Number of Respondents: 91.

Estimated Time per Response: .50 hours–8 hours.

Frequency of Response: Recordkeeping requirement, third party disclosure requirement, and on occasion reporting requirement.

Needs and Uses: Sections 206–209 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended (the “Act”), provide the statutory framework for the Commission's rules for resolving formal complaints against common carriers. Section 208(a) authorizes complaints by any person “complaining of anything done or omitted to be done by any common carrier” subject to the provisions of the Act. Section 208(a) specifically states that “it shall be the duty of the Commission to investigate the matters complained of in such manner and by such means as it shall deem proper.” In 1988, Congress added subsection 208(b) to require that any complaint filed with the Commission concerning the lawfulness of a common carrier's charges, practices, classifications or regulations must be resolved by the Commission in a final, appealable order within 12 months from the date filed, or 15 months from the date filed if “the investigation raises questions of fact of * * * extraordinary complexity.”

This collection of information includes the process for submitting a formal complaint. The information is used by the Commission to determine the sufficiency of complaints and to resolve the merits of disputes between the parties. The Accelerated Docket process expedites the processing of certain complaints.
