Columbia states that as an integral component of its efforts to prepare for 2004 re-contracting issues, it has undertaken a comprehensive review of the pro forma service agreements in its Tariff, and this review has led Columbia to propose several Tariff revisions.

Columbia states that these tariff revisions are intended to (1) correct/delete certain minor inconsistencies in Columbia's pro forma service agreements, and (2) to ensure that Columbia, when it agrees with its shippers in future service agreements on minimum pressures and/or hourly flow rates, can also agree with its shippers on conditions to those minimum pressures/hourly flow rates necessary to ensure the integrity of Columbia's pipeline system.

Columbia states that copies of its filing have been mailed to all firm customers, interruptible customers, and affected state commissions.
