[Docket No. PR04-10-000]

Arkansas Western Gas Company; Notice of Petition for Rate Approval

April 13, 2004.

Take notice that on April 1, 2004, Arkansas Western Gas Company (AWG) filed pursuant to section 284.123(b)(2) of the Commission's regulations, a petition for rate approval requesting that the Commission approve the proposed rates as fair and equitable for firm and interruptible transmission services performed under section 311 of the Natural Gas Policy Act of 1978 (NGPA). Raptor proposes an effective date of April 1, 2004.

AWG states that it owns and operates intrastate transmission and local distribution facilities in several counties in Arkansas. AWG further states that it also owns and operates a local distribution system in northeast Arkansas that includes two 50' pipeline stubs which cross the Arkansas/Missouri border and interconnect with United Cities Gas Company.

Any person desiring to participate in this rate proceeding must file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington DC 20426, in accordance with § 385.214 or 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed with the Secretary of the Commission on or before the date as indicated below. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. This petition for rate approval is available for review at the Commission in the Public Reference Room or may be viewed on the Commission's Web site at <http://www.ferc.gov> using the eLibrary link. Enter the docket number excluding the last three digits I the docket number field to access the document. For Assistant, call (202) 502-8222 or for TTY, (202) 502-8659. Comments, protests and interventions may be filed electronically via the Internet in lieu of paper. The Commission strongly encourages electronic filings. See, 18 CFR 385.2001(1)(iii) and the instructions on the Commission's web site under the e-Filing link.

Intervention and Protest Date: April 28, 2004.

Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation; Notice of Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

April 13, 2004.

Take notice that on April 8, 2004, Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation (Columbia) tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Second Revised Volume No. 1, the revised tariff sheets listed on Appendix A to the filing, with a proposed effective date of May 8, 2004.

Columbia states that as an integral component of its efforts to prepare for 2004 re-contracting issues, it has undertaken a comprehensive review of the pro forma service agreements in its Tariff, and this review has led Columbia to propose several Tariff revisions.

Columbia states that these tariff revisions are intended to (1) correct/delete certain minor inconsistencies in Columbia's pro forma service agreements, and (2) to ensure that Columbia, when it agrees with its shippers in future service agreements on minimum pressures and/or hourly flow rates, can also agree with its shippers on conditions to those minimum pressures/hourly flow rates necessary to ensure the integrity of Columbia's pipeline system.

Columbia states that copies of its filing have been mailed to all firm customers, interruptible customers, and affected state commissions.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.214 or 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed in accordance with Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings.
