

201.8 of the Commission's rules; any submissions that contain BPI must also conform with the requirements of sections 201.6, 207.3, and 207.7 of the Commission's rules. The Commission's rules do not authorize filing of submissions with the Secretary by facsimile or electronic means, except to the extent permitted by section 201.8 of the Commission's rules, as amended, 67 FR. 68036 (November 8, 2002).

In accordance with sections 201.16(c) and 207.3 of the Commission's rules, each document filed by a party to the reviews must be served on all other parties to the reviews (as identified by either the public or BPI service list), and a certificate of service must be timely filed. The Secretary will not accept a document for filing without a certificate of service.

Authority: These reviews are being conducted under authority of title VII of the Tariff Act of 1930; this notice is published pursuant to section 207.62 of the Commission's rules.

Issued: May 13, 2004.

By order of the Commission.

Marilyn R. Abbott,

Secretary to the Commission.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Occupational Safety and Health Administration

Susan Harwood Training Grant Program, FY 2004 Budget

Announcement Type: Initial announcement of availability of funds and solicitation for grant applications.

Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance No.: 17.502.

DATES: Grant applications must be received by the OSHA Office of Training and Education in Arlington Heights, Illinois, by 4:30 p.m. (central time) on Friday, June 18, 2004.

SUMMARY: This notice contains all of the necessary information and forms needed to apply for grant funding. The U.S. Department of Labor, Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) awards funds to nonprofit organizations to provide training and education programs or to develop training materials for employers and workers about safety and health topics selected by OSHA. Any nonprofit organization, including community-based and faith-based organizations, that is not an agency of a State or local government, is eligible to apply. State or local government-supported institutions of higher education are eligible to apply in accordance with 29 CFR part 95. This notice announces grant availability for two different categories of Susan Harwood Training grants. General descriptions of the two categories of grants are provided below.

Targeted Topic Grants

The Targeted Topic category grants are available to nonprofit organizations to conduct training for employers and employees on four different occupational safety and health topic areas selected by OSHA.

OSHA Training Materials Development Grants

The OSHA Training Materials Development category grants are available to nonprofit organizations to develop, evaluate, and validate training materials on four different occupational safety and health topic areas selected by OSHA. The materials are to be tailored to the industry or hazard and selected target audience. Training materials are to be developed in portable formats that are suitable for hard-copy publication and distribution and for Internet publication and distribution. The materials are intended for use by employers, employees, and other interested parties for the conduct of training or for self-study.

ADDRESSES: Grant applications must be sent to the attention of: Grants Officer, U.S. Department of Labor, OSHA, Office of Training and Education—OETP, 2020 S. Arlington Heights Road, Arlington Heights, Illinois 60005-4102.
