

possesses information pertaining to the matter, when it is necessary to obtain information or testimony relevant to the matter.

2. A record from this system may be disclosed as a routine use in court or administrative proceedings to the tribunals, counsel, other parties, witnesses, and the public (in publicly available pleadings, filings or discussion in open court) when such disclosure: (1) Is relevant to, and necessary for, the proceeding; and (2) is compatible with the purpose for which the Department collected the records; and (3) the proceedings involve:

(a) The Department, its predecessor agencies, current or former contractors of the Department, or other United States Government agencies and their components, or

(b) A current or former employee of the Department and its predecessor agencies, current or former contractors of the Department, or other United States Government agencies and their components, who are acting in an official capacity, or in any individual capacity where the Department or other United States Government agency has agreed to represent the employee.

3. A record from this system of records may be disclosed to a Federal agency, in response to its written request, to facilitate the requesting agency's decision concerning the hiring or retention of an employee, the issuance of a security clearance, the reporting of an investigation of an employee, the letting of a contract, or the issuance of a license, grant, or other benefit, to the extent that the information is relevant and necessary to the requesting agency's decision on the matter. The Department must deem such disclosure to be compatible with the purpose for which the Department collected the information.

4. A record from the system may be disclosed as a routine use to the appropriate local, State or Federal agency when records alone or in conjunction with other information, indicate a violation or potential violation of law whether civil, criminal, or regulatory in nature, and whether arising by general statute or particular program pursuant thereto.

5. A record from this system of records may be disclosed to a member of Congress submitting a request involving the constituent when the constituent has requested assistance from the member with respect to the subject matter of the record. The member of Congress must provide a copy of the constituent's request for assistance.

6. A record from the system may be disclosed as a routine use to DOE contractors in performance of their contracts, and their officers and employees who have a need for the record in the performance of their duties. Those provided information under this routine use are subject to the same limitations applicable to Department officers and employees under the Privacy Act.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR STORING, RETRIEVING, ACCESSING, RETAINING, AND DISPOSING OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

STORAGE:

Records may be stored as paper files and electronic media.

RETRIEVABILITY:

Records may be retrieved by name, social security number and employee number.

SAFEGUARDS:

Paper records are maintained in locked cabinets and desks. Electronic records are controlled through established DOE computer center procedures (personnel screening and physical security), and they are password protected. Access is limited to those whose official duties require access to the records.

RETENTION AND DISPOSAL:

Records retention and disposal authorities are contained in the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) General Records Schedule and DOE record schedules that have been approved by NARA.

SYSTEM MANAGER(S) AND ADDRESS:

Director of Security, U.S. Department of Energy, 1000 Independence Avenue, SW., Washington, DC 20585.

Field Offices: The HRP certifying official, or his or her designee of the "System Locations" listed above are the system managers for their respective portions of this system.

NOTIFICATION PROCEDURES:

In accordance with the DOE regulation implementing the Privacy Act, at 10 CFR part 1008, a request by an individual to determine if a system of records contains information about him/her should be directed to the Director, Headquarters Freedom of Information Act and Privacy Act Group, U.S. Department of Energy, or the Privacy Act Officer at the appropriate address identified above under "System Locations." For records maintained by Laboratory, Area Office or Site Offices, the request should be directed to the Privacy Act Officer at the Operations Office, Field Office or Service Center that has jurisdiction over that office or facility. The request should include the requester's complete name, time period for which records are sought, and the office location(s) where the requester believes the records are located.

RECORDS ACCESS PROCEDURES:

Same as Notification Procedures above. Records are generally kept at locations where the work is performed. In accordance with the DOE Privacy Act regulation, proper identification is required before a request is processed.

CONTESTING RECORD PROCEDURES:

Same as Notification Procedures above.

RECORD SOURCE CATEGORIES:

The individual, medical records, occupational training records, and HRP program and personnel security records. Information also may be obtained from the supervisor, site occupational medical director, and the management official when completing the Human Reliability Program Certification.

SYSTEM EXEMPTED FROM CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF THE ACT:

None.

ANR Pipeline Company; Notice of Tariff Filing

June 28, 2004.

Take notice that on June 24, 2004, ANR Pipeline Company (ANR) tendered for filing, as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Second Revised Volume No. 1, the following tariff sheets proposed to become effective July 1, 2004:

Fifty-Eighth Revised Sheet No. 8
Fifty-Eighth Revised Sheet No. 9
Fifty-Seventh Revised Sheet No. 13
Seventieth Revised Sheet No. 18

ANR states that the above-referenced tariff sheets are being filed to reduce the Dakota Gasification Company (Dakota) reservation and commodity surcharges to $0.00 as of July 1, 2004. ANR projects that as of June 30, 2004, it will have fully recovered all the Dakota above-market costs and buyout costs that it has been authorized to collect. ANR requests that it be permitted to eliminate the Dakota surcharges immediately to avoid any further overcollections.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with sections 385.214 or 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed in accordance with section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. This filing is available for review at the Commission in the Public Reference Room or may be viewed on the Commission's Web site at <http://www.ferc.gov> using the eLibrary. ISO New England Inc., et al.; Bangor Hydro-Electric Company, et al.; The Consumers of New England v. New England Power Pool; Notice of Extension of Time

June 28, 2004.

On June 22, 2004, ISO New England Inc. (ISO), and the New England transmission owners (consisting of Bangor Hydro-Electric Company; Central Maine Power Company; New England Power Company; Northeast Utilities Service Company on behalf of its operating companies: The Connecticut Light and Power Company, Western Massachusetts Electric Company, Public Service Company of New Hampshire, Holyoke Power and Electric Company, and Holyoke Water Power Company; NSTAR Electric & Gas Corporation on behalf of its operating affiliates: Boston Edison Company, Commonwealth Electric Company, Canal Electric Company, and Cambridge Electric Light Company; The United Illuminating Company; Vermont Electric Power Company, Inc.; Fitchburg

Gas and Electric Light Company; and Unifil Energy Services, Inc. (collectively New England TOs) submitted a partial compliance filing, as directed by the Commission's Order (Order) issued March 24, 2004, in Docket Nos. RT04-2-000, et al., 106 FERC ¶ 61,280 (2004). The June 22, 2004, filing included a request for an extension of time to file the portion of the compliance filing relating to reversionary interests (and revisions to the Participants Agreement otherwise required in the March 24, 2004, Order.)

The ISO and the New England TOs state that an extension of time is necessary to allow the parties to continue ongoing settlement discussions aimed at resolving outstanding issues in these proceedings.

Upon consideration, notice is hereby given that the date for filing the portion of the compliance filing relating to reversionary interests (and revisions to the Participants Agreement required by the March 24, 2004, Order) is granted to and including August 20, 2004, as requested by ISO New England and New England TOs.
