ADDRESSES: Interested parties are invited to submit written comments to Thomas Nixon, Legal Division, Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, 550 17th Street, NW., Washington, DC 20429. All comments should refer to “Depositor Claims for Increased Insurance.”

Comments may be hand-delivered to the guard station at the rear of the 17th Street Building (located on F Street), on business days between 7 a.m. and 5 p.m. Comments may also be submitted to the OMB desk officer for the FDIC: Mark Menchik, Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, New Executive Office Building, Washington, DC 20503.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Title: Depositor Claims for Increased Insurance.

OMB Number: New collection.

Frequency of Response: On occasion.

Affected Public: Depositors of failed insured institutions who had more than $100,000 deposited in a testamentary deposit account, a trust account, a defined benefit plan, or other retirement account who may be entitled to more than $100,000 in deposit insurance.

Estimated Annual Number of Respondents: 5,025.

Estimated Time per Response: The time per response will range from one-half hour to one hour depending on the form required.

Estimated Total Annual Burden: 2,738 hours.

General Description of Collection: Depositors of failed institutions initially deemed to be uninsured because their deposits are over $100,000 may be qualified for additional insurance coverage if they provide the FDIC with documents certifying to the existence of varying ownership rights and capacities. The forms in this collection facilitate customers providing the FDIC with the information that would allow increased insurance coverage. Further information about this submission, including copies of the collection of information, may be obtained by calling or writing the FDIC contact listed above.
