

DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY*Federal Energy Regulatory Commission*[Docket No. CP04-378-000]*ANR Pipeline Company; Notice Of Application

July 21, 2004.

Take notice that on July 12, 2004, ANR Pipeline Company (ANR), 9 E. Greenway Plaza, Houston, Texas 77046, filed in Docket No. CP04-378-000, an application pursuant to section 7(b) of the Natural Gas Act (NGA), as amended, and the Rules and Regulations of the Commission, for authorization to abandon, due to its chronic poor performance, the Freeman 186 (Freeman 186) natural gas storage well and related facilities, located within the Lincoln-Freeman Storage Field, in Clare County, Michigan, all as more fully set forth in the application which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection. This filing may be also viewed on the web at <http://www.ferc.gov> using the "eLibrary" link. Enter the docket number excluding the last three digits in the docket number field to access the document. For assistance, call (866) 208-3676 or TTY, (202) 502-8659.

Any questions regarding this application should be directed to Dawn McGuire, Counsel, El Paso Corporation, 9 E. Greenway Plaza, Houston, Texas 77046, at (832) 676-5503 or by fax at (832) 676-2251 or Kathy Cash, Certificates & Regulatory Compliance, ANR Pipeline Company, 9 E. Greenway Plaza, Houston, Texas 77046 at (832) 676-3102 or by fax at (832) 676-2251.

There are two ways to become involved in the Commission's review of this project. First, any person wishing to obtain legal status by becoming a party to the proceedings for this project should, before the comment date of this notice, file with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, a motion to intervene in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.214 or 385.211) and the Regulations under the NGA (18 CFR 157.10). A person obtaining party status will be placed on the service list maintained by the Secretary of the Commission and will receive copies of all documents filed by the applicant and by all other parties. A party must submit 14 copies of filings made with the Commission and must mail a copy to the applicant and to every other party in the proceeding. Only parties to the proceeding can ask for court review of Commission orders in the proceeding.

However, a person does not have to intervene in order to have comments considered. The second way to participate is by filing with the Secretary of the Commission, as soon as possible, an original and two copies of comments in support of or in opposition to this project. The Commission will consider these comments in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but the filing of a comment alone will not serve to make the filer a party to the proceeding. The Commission's rules require that persons filing comments in opposition to the project provide copies of their protests only to the party or parties directly involved in the protest.

Comments, protests and interventions may be filed electronically via the Internet in lieu of paper. See, 18 CFR 385.2001(a)(1)(iii) and the instructions on the Commission's Web site under the "e-Filing" link.

July 21, 2004.

On July 12, 2004, CenterPoint Energy Gas Transmission Company (CenterPoint), 1111 Louisiana Street, Houston, Texas 77002-5231, filed in Docket No. CP04-377-000, an application pursuant to section 7(c) of the Natural Gas Act (NGA) and Part 157, Subpart A of the Commission's Regulations, for any and all authorizations to construct, own and operate mainline compression facilities and appurtenances thereto, located in Arkansas. Specifically, CenterPoint proposes to construct, own and operate 6,380 horsepower of new compression by installing one additional compressor unit and appurtenant facilities at its Round Mountain Compressor Station located on CenterPoint's Line J in Conway County, Arkansas, and one additional compressor unit and appurtenant facilities at its Helena Compressor Station located on CenterPoint's Line T in Phillips County, Arkansas. Total construction costs are estimated to be approximately $9.8 million. CenterPoint states that it seeks authorization to provide year round firm service to a local distribution customer, Arkansas Western Gas Company, in northwestern Arkansas and further enhance the operational flexibility and efficiency of its system, all as more fully set forth in the application which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection. This filing may be also viewed on the web at <http://www.ferc.gov> using the "eLibrary" link. Enter the docket number excluding the last three digits in the docket number field to access the document. For assistance, call (202) 502-8659 or TTY, (202) 208-3676.

Any questions regarding this application should be directed to Lawrence O. Thomas, Director-Rates & Regulatory Affairs, CenterPoint Energy Gas Transmission Company, P. O. Box 21734, Shreveport, Louisiana 71151; or call (318) 429-2804, fax (318) 429-3133.

There are two ways to become involved in the Commission's review of this project. First, any person wishing to obtain legal status by becoming a party to the proceedings for this project should, on or before the comment date stated below, file with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, a motion to intervene in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.214 or 385.211) and the Regulations under the NGA (18 CFR 157.10). A person obtaining party status will be placed on the service list maintained by the Secretary of the Commission and will receive copies of all documents filed by the applicant and by all other parties. A party must submit 14 copies of filings made with the Commission and must mail a copy to the applicant and to every other party in the proceeding. Only parties to the proceeding can ask for court review of Commission orders in the proceeding.

However, a person does not have to intervene in order to have comments considered. The second way to participate is by filing with the Secretary of the Commission, as soon as possible, an original and two copies of comments in support of or in opposition to this project. The Commission will consider these comments in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but the filing of a comment alone will not serve to make the filer a party to the proceeding. The Commission's rules require that persons filing comments in opposition to the project provide copies of their protests only to the party or parties directly involved in the protest.

Persons who wish to comment only on the environmental review of this project should submit an original and two copies of their comments to the Secretary of the Commission. Environmental commenters will be placed on the Commission's environmental mailing list, will receive copies of the environmental documents, and will be notified of meetings associated with the Commission's environmental review process. Environmental commenters will not be required to serve copies of filed documents on all other parties. However, the non-party commenters will not receive copies of all documents filed by other parties or issued by the Commission (except for the mailing of environmental documents issued by the Commission) and will not have the right to seek court review of the Commission's final order.

Comments, protests and interventions may be filed electronically via the Internet in lieu of paper. See, 18 CFR 385.2001(a)(1)(iii) and the instructions on the Commission's web site under the "e-Filing" link.

[Docket No. RP00-500-004]

Chandeleur Pipe Line Company; Notice of Negotiated Rate

July 21, 2004.

Take notice that on July 15, 2004, Chandeleur Pipe Line Company (Chandeleur) tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Second Revised Volume No. 1, Third Revised Sheet No. 73, to become effective on July 1, 2004.

Chandeleur states that the proposed change would update Chandeleur's tariff to reflect its current conditions regarding contracts containing Negotiated Rates and requests waiver of Commission regulation in order to allow the sheet to become effective July 1, 2004.

Chandeleur further states that the principal reasons for the tariff change is that effective with the month of July, 2004, Chandeleur implemented certain Negotiated Rate Agreements.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a notice of intervention or motion to intervene, as appropriate. Such notices, motions, or protests must be filed in accordance with the provisions of section 154.210 of the Commission's regulations (18 CFR 154.210). Anyone filing an intervention or protest must serve a copy of that document on the Applicant. Anyone filing an intervention or protest on or before the intervention or protest date need not serve motions to intervene or protests on persons other than the Applicant.

The Commission encourages electronic submission of protests and interventions in lieu of paper using the "eFiling" link at <http://www.ferc.gov>. Persons unable to file electronically should submit an original and 14 copies of the protest or intervention to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426.

This filing is accessible online at <http://www.ferc.gov>, using the "eLibrary" link and is available for review in the Commission's Public Reference Room in Washington, DC.
