SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The final rules that are the subject of this correction set forth six new subparts in part 408 (Special Benefits for Certain World War II Veterans). The six new subparts dealt with the following topics: the events you must report to us after you apply for SVB, the circumstances that will affect your SVB entitlement, how we handle overpayments and underpayments under the SVB program, how the administrative review process works, your right to appoint someone to represent you in your dealings with us, and administration agreements we may enter into with a State under which we will pay supplemental recognition payments to you on the State’s behalf. On page 25963 of the document we published in the Federal Register of May 10, 2004, we incorrectly designated the final four paragraphs in § 408.1003 as paragraphs (e) through (h).

Background

Present Law

Section 4081(a)(1)(A)(iii) of the Internal Revenue Code (Code) imposes a tax on the entry into the United States of taxable fuel. Taxable fuel means gasoline, diesel fuel, and kerosene. Existing regulations provide that the enterer is liable for the tax imposed on the entry of taxable fuel.

The regulations currently define the term enterer as generally meaning the importer of record (under customs law) with respect to the taxable fuel.

However, if the importer of record is acting as an agent (for example, the importer of record is a customs broker engaged by the owner of the taxable fuel), the person for whom the agent is acting is the enterer.

The regulations require an enterer to be registered by the IRS. The IRS will register an applicant only if the IRS determines that the applicant meets several tests, including the adequate security test. An applicant meets the adequate security test only if the IRS determines that the applicant has both adequate financial resources and a satisfactory tax history, or the applicant gives the IRS a bond.

Section 142.4 of the Customs regulations (19 CFR) provides that merchandise shall not be released from Customs custody unless a bond on Customs Form 301, Customs Bond, has been filed. This bond, which is filed by the importer of record, secures the payment of any duty, tax, or charge, and compliance with Customs laws and regulations. Section 141.3 of the Customs regulations provides that the importer's liability for duties includes liability for any internal revenue taxes which attach upon the importation of merchandise, unless otherwise provided by law or regulation. Also, § 113.62(a)(1)(ii) of the Customs regulations provides, in part, that if merchandise is imported and released from Customs custody, the obligors on
