Van Dorn Demag Corp., a Division of Demag Products Group, Strongsville, Ohio, Including Employees of Van Dorn Demag Corp., a Division of Demag Products Group, Strongsville, Ohio Located in Atlanta, Georgia; Amended Notice of Revised Determination on Reconsideration Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Notice of Revised Determination on Reconsideration Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance on February 5, 2004, applicable to workers of Van Dorn Demag Corporation, a division of Demag Products Group, Strongsville, Ohio. The notice was published in the Federal Register on February 24, 2004 (69 FR 8493).

At the request of a company official, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. New information shows that workers were separated involving employees of the Strongsville, Ohio facility of Van Dorn Demag Corporation, a division of Demag Products Group located in Atlanta, Georgia. These employees provided sales support services for the production of plastic injection molding machinery at the Strongsville, Ohio location of the subject firm.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending this certification to include employees of the Strongsville, Ohio facility of Van Dorn Demag Corporation, a division of Demag Products Group, located in Atlanta, Georgia.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Van Dorn Demag Corporation, a division of Demag Products Group, Strongsville, Ohio, who were adversely affected by increased imports.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-53,527 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Van Dorn Demag Corporation, A Division of Demag Products Group, Strongsville, Ohio (TA-W-53,527), including employees of Van Dorn Corporation, A Division of Demag Products Group, Strongsville, Ohio, located in Atlanta, Georgia (TA-W-53,527A), who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after November 12, 2002, through February 5, 2006, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, and are also eligible to apply for alternative trade adjustment assistance under section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 21st day of July, 2004.

Elliott S. Kushner,

Certifying Officer, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

VF Intimates, LP, Johnstown, PA; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on June 15, 2004, applicable to workers of VF Intimates, LP, Johnstown, Pennsylvania. The notice will be published soon in the Federal Register.

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers are engaged in the production of ladies' intimate apparel.

New findings show that there was a previous certification, TA-W-40,563A, issued on March 5, 2002, for workers of Bestform, Inc., Johnstown Distribution Center, Johnstown, Pennsylvania, (Johnstown operation name was changed in January 2003 to VF Intimates, LP), who were engaged in employment related to the production and distribution of ladies' intimate apparel. That certification expired on March 5, 2004. To avoid an overlap in worker group coverage, the certification is being amended to change the impact date from May 18, 2003 to March 6, 2004, for workers of the subject firm.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-54,952 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of VF Intimates, LP, Johnstown, Pennsylvania, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after March 6, 2004, through June 15, 2006, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 21st day of July, 2004.

Elliott S. Kushner,

Certifying Officer, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

Weirton Steel Corporation, Weirton, West Virginia; Notice of Negative Determination Regarding Application for Reconsideration

By application of June 18, 2004, a company representative requested administrative reconsideration of the Department's negative determination regarding eligibility for workers and former workers of the subject firm to apply for Trade Adjustment Assistance (TAA). The denial notice was signed on May 14, 2004, and published in the Federal Register on June 2, 2004 (69 FR 31135).

Pursuant to 29 CFR 90.18(c) reconsideration may be granted under the following circumstances:

(1) If it appears on the basis of facts not previously considered that the determination complained of was erroneous;

(2) if it appears that the determination complained of was based on a mistake in the determination of facts not previously considered; or

(3) if in the opinion of the Certifying Officer, a misinterpretation of facts or of the law justified reconsideration of the decision.

The TAA petition, which was filed on behalf of workers at Weirton Steel Corporation, Weirton, West Virginia engaged in the production of hot-rolled, cold-rolled, tin-plate and hot dipped, and electrolytic galvanized steel, was denied because the "contributed importantly" group eligibility requirement of section 222 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended, was not met. The subject firm did not increase its reliance on imports of hot-rolled, cold-
