SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

Submission for OMB Review; Comment Request

Upon Written Request; Copies Available From: Securities and Exchange Commission, Office of Filings and Information Services, Washington, DC 20549.

Extension:

Regulation 12B, OMB Control No. 3235-0062, SEC File No. 270-70; Form 15, OMB Control No. 3235-0167, SEC File No. 270-170.

Notice is hereby given that, pursuant to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.), the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission") has submitted to the Office of Management and Budget requests for extension of the previously approved collections of information discussed below.

Regulation 12B (OMB Control No. 3235-0062; SEC File No. 270-70) includes rules governing all registration statements pursuant to Sections 12(b) and 12(g) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Exchange Act"), including all amendments to such statements and reports. The purpose of the regulation is to set forth guidelines for the uniform preparation of Exchange Act documents. All information is provided to the public for review. The information required is filed on occasion and is mandatory. Regulation 12B is assigned one burden hour for administrative convenience because the regulation simply prescribes the disclosure that must appear in other filings under the federal securities laws.

Form 15 (OMB Control No. 3235-0167; SEC File No. 270-170) is a certification of termination of a class of security under Section 12(g) or notice of suspension of duty to file reports pursuant to Sections 13 and 15(d) of the Exchange Act. All information is provided to the public for review. Approximately 2,000 issuers file Form 15 annually and it takes approximately a total of 1.5 hours per response for a total of 3,000 annual burden hours.

An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid control number.

Written comments regarding the above information should be directed to the following persons: (i) Desk Officer for the Securities and Exchange Commission, Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Room 10102, New Executive Office Building, Washington, DC 20503; or submit an e-mail to: David_Rostker@omb.eop.gov, and (ii) R. Corey Booth, Director/Chief Information Officer, Office of Information Technology, Securities and Exchange Commission, 450 Fifth Street, NW., Washington, DC 20549. Comments must be submitted to OMB within 30 days of this notice.

Dated: August 3, 2004.

Applicants' Representations: 1. First Western SBLC, Inc. ("FW") is a Florida corporation that is licensed as a small business lending company under the Small Business Investment Act of 1958 (the "SBIA"). FW originates variable-rate loans that are partially guaranteed by the Small Business Administration (the "SBA") and which are generally secured with first liens on real and/or personal property of the borrower. Western Financial Capital Corporation ("WFCC") is a Florida corporation that is licensed as a small business investment company under the SBIA. WFCC principally originates fixed rate secured loans to small businesses and funds its lending operations by issuing fixed rate, long-term debentures, which are guaranteed and sold by the SBA. PMC Investment Corporation ("PMIC") is a Florida corporation that is licensed as a specialized small business investment company under the SBIA. PMCIC uses long-term funds provided by the SBA through the issuance of debentures, together with its own capital, to provide long-term collateralized loans to eligible small businesses owned by disadvantaged persons. PMCIC funds its lending operations by issuing fixed-rate, long-term subordinated debentures, which are guaranteed and sold by the SBA. PMCIC also funds its operations by selling nonvoting preferred stock to the SBA. FW and WFCC filed Forms N-8A notifying the Commission of their registration under section 8(a) of the Act on June 24, 1983. PMCIC filed Form N-8A notifying the Commission of its registration under section 8(a) of the Act on February 23, 1987. FW, WFCC, and PMCIC are each registered under the Act as a closed-end management investment company.

2. Prior to February 29, 2004, FW, WFCC and PMCIC were subsidiaries of PMC Capital, Inc. ("PMC Capital"). PMC Capital, a Florida corporation, was a closed-end management investment company that elected to operate as a business development company under the Act. On February 29, 2004, PMC Capital merged with and into PMC Commercial Trust ("PMC Commercial"), a Texas real estate investment trust, with PMC Commercial continuing as the surviving entity.¹ FW, WFCC and PMCIC are now subsidiaries of PMC Commercial, which commenced operating the businesses of PMC Capital and its subsidiaries as of the date of the merger.

Applicants' Legal Analysis: 1. Section 8(f) of the Act provides that whenever the Commission, upon application or its own motion, finds that a registered investment company has ceased to be an investment company, the Commission shall so declare by order and upon the taking effect of such order, the registration of such company shall cease to be in effect.

2. Section 3(c)(1) of the Act provides that any issuer whose outstanding securities (other than short-term paper) are beneficially owned by not more than one hundred persons, and which is not making and does not presently propose to make a public offering of its securities, is not an investment company within the meaning of the Act.

3. Applicants state that, under section 3(c)(1) of the Act, FW, WFCC, and PMCIC are not investment companies because PMC Commercial owns all of the outstanding securities of FW, and PMC Commercial and the SBA own all of the outstanding securities of WFCC and PMCIC, and the applicants do not presently propose to make a public offering of their securities.

4. Each applicant states that it is not a party to any litigation or administrative proceedings.

For the Commission, by the Division of Investment Management, under delegated authority.

Jill M. Peterson,

Assistant Secretary.
