Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Company, LP; Notice of Supplemental Refund Report

August 18, 2004.

Take notice that on August 11, 2004, Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Company, LP (Panhandle) tendered for filing its Supplemental Refund Report. Panhandle states that the Commission issued an order on July 12, 2004 which rejected Panhandle's Refund Report, directed Panhandle to flowthrough to its customers amounts received from Southland Royalty Company / Burlington Resources Oil & Gas Company LP (Burlington), and required Panhandle to submit a refund report by August 11, 2004.

Panhandle states that a copy of this information is being sent to intervenors in the subject proceeding, Non-Settling First Sellers, Panhandle's affected customers, and respective State Regulatory Commissions.

Any person desiring to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rule 211 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211). Protests to this filing will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Such protests must be filed on or before the date as indicated below. Anyone filing a protest must serve a copy of that document on all the parties to the proceeding.

The Commission encourages electronic submission of protests in lieu of paper using the "eFiling" link at <http://www.ferc.gov>. Persons unable to file electronically should submit an original and 14 copies of the protest to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426.

Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Company, LP; Notice of Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

August 18, 2004.

Take notice that on August 13, 2004, Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Company, LP (Panhandle) tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Third Revised Volume No. 1, the following tariff sheets to become effective September 13, 2004:

First Revised Sheet No. 230
Original Sheet Nos. 230A through 230G

Panhandle states that this filing is being made to propose generally applicable tariff provisions that offer contract demand reduction rights under specified circumstances. In particular, Panhandle states that it proposes to allow shippers to elect from four types of contract demand reduction options if they meet the eligibility requirements set forth in the tariff. They include (1) regulatory unbundling, (2) loss of load, (3) plant outage and (4) buyout.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a notice of intervention or motion to intervene, as appropriate. Such notices, motions, or protests must be filed in accordance with the provisions of section 154.210 of the Commission's regulations (18 CFR 154.210). Anyone filing an intervention or protest must serve a copy of that document on the Applicant. Anyone filing an intervention or protest on or before the intervention or protest date need not serve motions to intervene or protests on persons other than the Applicant.

The Commission encourages electronic submission of protests and interventions in lieu of paper using the "eFiling" link at <http://www.ferc.gov>. Persons unable to file electronically should submit an original and 14 copies of the protest or intervention to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426.

[Docket No. ER04-944-000]

Reliant Energy Wholesale Generation, LLC; Notice of Issuance of Order

August 18, 2004.

Reliant Energy Wholesale Generation, LLC (REWG) filed an application for market-based rate authority, with an accompanying tariff. The proposed tariff provides for wholesale sales of energy, capacity and ancillary services at market-based rates. REWG also requested waiver of various Commission regulations. In particular, REWG requested that the Commission grant blanket approval under 18 CFR part 34 of all future issuances of securities and assumptions of liability by REWG.

On August 16, 2004, pursuant to delegated authority, the Director, Division of Tariffs and Market Development—South, granted the request for blanket approval under part 34, subject to the following:

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest the blanket approval of issuances of securities or assumptions of liability by REWG should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214).

Notice is hereby given that the deadline for filing motions to intervene or protest, is September 15, 2004.

Absent a request to be heard in opposition by the deadline above, REWG is authorized to issue securities and assume obligations or liabilities as a guarantor, endorser, surety, or otherwise in respect of any security of another person; provided that such issuance or assumption is for some lawful object within the corporate purposes of REWG, compatible with the public interest, and is reasonably necessary or appropriate for such purposes.

The Commission reserves the right to require a further showing that neither public nor private interests will be adversely affected by continued approval of REWG's issuances of securities or assumptions of liability.

Copies of the full text of the Director's Order are available from the Commission's Public Reference Room, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426. The Order may also be viewed on the Commission's Web site at <http://www.ferc.gov>, using the eLibrary link. Enter the docket number excluding the last three digits in the docket number filed to access the document. Comments, protests, and interventions may be filed electronically via the internet in lieu of paper. See 18 CFR 385.2001(a)(1)(iii) and the instructions on the Commission's Web site under the "e-Filing" link. The Commission strongly encourages electronic filings.

Southern Natural Gas Company; Notice of Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

August 18, 2004.

Take notice that on August 12, 2004, Southern Natural Gas Company (Southern) tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Seventh Revised Volume No. 1, the following revised sheets to become effective October 1, 2004:

Sixth Revised Sheet No. 19
Fifth Revised Sheet No. 38
Fifth Revised Sheet No. 40
Sixth Revised Sheet No. 49
Fifth Revised Sheet No. 51A
Seventh Revised Sheet No. 60

Southern states that the proposed tariff sheets are filed in response to the Commission's order issued August 9, 2004, which approved Southern's request to abandon certain facilities located in Shelby County, Texas and DeSoto Parish, Louisiana (Logansport Gathering System) by sale to Dominion Gas Ventures, Inc. or its designee, and ordered Southern to make a Section 4 filing at least 30 days prior to the effective date of the transfer of the Logansport Gathering System to delete the gathering rates from its tariff and to make any other conforming tariff changes to reflect the sale and abandonment.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a notice of intervention or motion to intervene, as appropriate. Such notices, motions, or protests must be filed in accordance with the provisions of Section 154.210 of the Commission's regulations (18 CFR 154.210). Anyone filing an intervention or protest must serve a copy of that document on the Applicant. Anyone filing an intervention or protest on or before the intervention or protest date need not serve motions to intervene or protests on persons other than the Applicant.
