RIN 1400-AB95Schedule of Fees for Consular Services; Exemption From the Nonimmigrant Visa Application Processing Fee for Family Members of Individuals Killed or Critically Injured While Serving the United States

AGENCY: State Department.

ACTION: Interim rule.

SUMMARY: This rule amends the Schedule of Fees for Consular Services ("Schedule of Fees" or "Schedule") to include an exemption from the nonimmigrant visa application processing fee for family members traveling to the United States for the funeral or burial of a U.S. Government employee killed in the line of duty or to visit a U.S. Government employee critically injured in the line of duty.

DATES: Implementation Date: This interim rule is effective September 2, 2004. Interested parties are invited to submit written comments by September 24, 2004.

ADDRESSES: Comments may be submitted in writing to the Office of the Executive Director, Bureau of Consular Affairs, Department of State, Suite H1004, 2401 E Street NW., Washington, DC 20520. Comments may also be forwarded via e-mail to fees@state.gov. In addition, this document may be viewed and comments submitted by going to the "Regulations.gov" Web site at <http://www.regulations.gov/index.cfm>.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Phillip Min, Office of the Executive Director, Bureau of Consular Affairs, telefax: 202-663-2499; e-mail: fees@state.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:Background

This rule amends the Schedule of Fees for Consular Services, 22 CFR 22.1, effective immediately. In addition, the amendment made by this rule will be incorporated into the proposed Schedule of Fees published as a proposed rule for comment in the Federal Register (Public Notice 4765) on July 19, 2004. See 69 FR 42913-42919.

Consular officers are required by law to charge fees as established in the Schedule of Fees for Consular Services, and they may not grant exemptions from fees set forth in the Schedule except as specifically authorized in the Schedule. The Schedule includes nonimmigrant visa reciprocity fees established pursuant to Section 281 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1351), and a nonimmigrant visa application processing fee, commonly known as the "machine readable visa" or "MRV" fee, which generally recovers from the visa applicant the full cost of processing the visa application on the assumption that in most cases nonimmigrant visa services are provided primarily for the benefit of the individual applicant. Current exemptions from the MRV fee exist only for applicants for A, G, C-3, NATO, and diplomatic visas; applicants for J visas participating in U.S. Government-sponsored exchanges; persons who need replacement visas when the original visa was not properly affixed or needs to be reissued through no fault of the applicant; applicants traveling to provide charitable services as determined by the Department of State; and U.S. Government employees traveling on official business.

The new exemption from the nonimmigrant visa application processing (MRV) fee will provide a waiver of the fee for an applicant who is an immediate family member of a U.S. Government employee killed in the line of duty and who is traveling to attend the employee's funeral and/or burial. The new exemption will also be applicable to a family member visiting a U.S. Government employee who has been critically injured in the line of duty during the period of emergency treatment and convalescence. The exemption will extend to a surviving parent, sibling, spouse, son, or daughter of the deceased or injured U.S. Government employee. This exemption appropriately shifts the cost of visa processing in such cases to the general public because it is in the national interest to assist close non-U.S. citizen relatives of U.S. Government employees killed or critically injured in the line of duty traveling to the United States for funeral and/or burial events or for visitation during emergency treatment and convalescence.

Regulatory Findings

Administrative Procedure Act

The Department is publishing this rule as an interim rule effective upon publication under the good cause authorities of 5 U.S.C. 553(b)(B) and (d)(3) and the exemption provision of 5 U.S.C. 553 (d)(1).

Regulatory Flexibility Act

The Department of State, in accordance with the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 605(b)), has reviewed this regulation and, by approving it, certifies that this rule will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities as defined in 5 U.S.C. 601(6). Adding the exemption will have no economic impact on such entities.

Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995

This rule will not result in the expenditure by State, local, and tribal governments, in the aggregate, or by the private sector, of $100 million or more in any year and it will not significantly or uniquely affect small governments. Therefore, no actions were deemed necessary under the provisions of the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995, 2 U.S.C. 1501 et seq.

Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act of 1996

This rule is not a major rule as defined by 5 U.S.C. 801–808, which constitute the Congressional Review portion (Subtitle E) of the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Act of 1996. This rule will not result in an annual effect on the economy of $100 million or more; a major increase in costs or prices; or significant adverse effects on competition, employment, investment, productivity, innovation, or on the ability of the United States-based companies to compete with foreign-based companies in domestic and export markets.

Executive Order 12866

The Department of State does not consider this rule to be a “significant regulatory action” under Executive Order 12866, section 3(f), Regulatory Planning and Review. In addition, the Department is exempt from Executive Order 12866 except to the extent that it is promulgating regulations in conjunction with a domestic agency that are significant regulatory actions. The Department has nevertheless reviewed the regulation to ensure its consistency with the regulatory philosophy and principles set forth in that Executive Order.

Executive Order 12988: Civil Justice Reform

The Department has reviewed this regulation in light of sections 3(a) and 3(b)(2) of Executive Order 12988 to eliminate ambiguity, minimize litigation, establish clear legal standards, and reduce burden.

Executive Order 13132

This regulation will not have substantial direct effects on the States, on the relationship between the national government and the States, or on the distribution of power and responsibilities among the various levels of government. Therefore, in accordance with section 6 of Executive Order 13132, it is determined that this rule does not have sufficient federalism implications to warrant the preparation of a federalism summary impact statement.

Paperwork Reduction Act

This rule does not impose any new reporting or record-keeping requirements subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act, 44 U.S.C. Chapter 35.
