

the Commission's attention and resources from taking final action on the petitions to crafting a response to the instant request. OWL Reply at 2. Because the new, unified proposal differs from the varying relief sought by individual petitioners who are also parties to this Motion, OWL argues that it would be more appropriate for Movants to file a new petition. Id. OWL also claims that the Motion provides no compelling reason to reopen the comment period, as the only new fact that will be contributed to the already voluminous record is "that they have agreed among themselves that they now want the exact same thing." Id. at 3.

IV. Discussion

While OWL's concerns of delay are well-taken, the deliberation process requires a full, up-to-date picture of the participants' positions.² Because the Supplemental Comments provide a unified, tangible proposal to the overarching NVOCC tariff publication exemption matter, the granting of this Motion and the acceptance of the comments into the record may serve to advance an administratively final decision rather than postpone one.

The Commission has determined to grant the Motion, accept the Supplemental Comments into the record, and allow interested persons to respond to the Supplemental Comments by September 30, 2004. Interested persons are requested to submit their views or arguments in reply to the Supplemental Comments no later than September 30, 2004. Comments shall consist of an original and 15 copies, and shall be directed to the Secretary, Federal Maritime Commission, 800 North Capitol Street, NW., Washington, DC 20573-0001. It is also requested that a copy be submitted in electronic form (WordPerfect, Word or ASCII) on diskette, or e-mailed to Secretary@fmc.gov. The Commission has also determined to waive the service requirements found at 46 CFR 502.114(b). Instead, copies of all filed comments may be viewed on the Commission's Web page at <http://www.fmc.gov>.

Conclusion

Therefore, it is ordered, That Movants' Motion is granted and the Joint Supplemental Comments are accepted into the record;

It is further ordered, That the Commission waives the service requirements found at 46 CFR 502.114(b) for any responses to the Joint Supplemental Comments. Interested persons may respond to the Joint Supplemental Comments until September 30, 2004.

By the Commission.

Secretary.
