Trailblazer Pipeline Company; Notice of Refund Report

November 12, 2004.

Take notice that on November 8, 2004, Trailblazer Pipeline Company (Trailblazer) tendered for filing its Refund Report regarding the penalty revenues for the period July 1, 2004, through September 30, 2004, that it refunded to its customers pursuant to section 40.10 of the General Terms and Conditions of its FERC Gas Tariff, Third Revised Volume No. 1.

Trailblazer states that copies of the filing are being mailed to its customers and interested state commissions.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a notice of intervention or motion to intervene, as appropriate. Such notices, motions, or protests must be filed in accordance with the provisions of section 154.210 of the Commission's regulations (18 CFR 154.210). Anyone filing an intervention or protest must serve a copy of that document on the Applicant. Anyone filing an intervention or protest on or before the intervention or protest date need not serve motions to intervene or protests on persons other than the Applicant.

The Commission encourages electronic submission of protests and interventions in lieu of paper using the "eFiling" link at <http://www.ferc.gov>. Persons unable to file electronically should submit an original and 14 copies of the protest or intervention to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426.

This filing is accessible on-line at <http://www.ferc.gov>, using the "eLibrary" link and is available for review in the Commission's Public Reference Room in Washington, DC. There is an "eSubscription" link on the Web site that enables subscribers to receive e-mail notification when a document is added to a subscribed docket(s). Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation; Notice of Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

November 9, 2004.

Take notice that on November 4, 2004, Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation (Transco) tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Third Revised Volume No. 1, the following tariff sheets, to become effective November 1, 2004:

Thirty-Eighth Revised Sheet No. 27
Fifty-Second Revised Sheet No. 28A

Transco states that the proposed rate changes would decrease the annual revenues by approximately $120,000.

Transco states that copies of the filing are being mailed to each of its GSS and LSS customers and interested State commissions.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation; Notice of Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

November 12, 2004.

Take notice that on November 8, 2004, Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation (Transco) tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Third Revised Volume No. 1, the tariff sheets enumerated on Appendix A to its filing, to become effective December 1, 2004.

Transco states that the purpose of the instant filing is to (1) modify certain provisions of its tariff to require that Transco post to its Internet Web site exercises of discretion under those particular tariff provisions, thereby eliminating the requirement to make a duplicate posting to its waiver log; (2) propose changes to the Maximum Daily Delivery Point Entitlement provisions of Section 19.1(d) and 19.2(d) of the General Terms and Conditions of its tariff; and (3) propose other changes to its tariff designed to provide greater service flexibility for Transco and its shippers.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a notice of
