Second Revised Sheet No. 193

Iroquois states that on a periodic basis it reviews the provisions in its tariff for consistency and sentence syntax. Iroquois explains that during a recent review, it identified grammatical and non substantive corrective changes or "housekeeping" issues. Iroquois asserts that the majority of these changes reflect recent internal staff restructuring.

Iroquois states that copies of its filing were served on all jurisdictional customers and interested state regulatory agencies and all parties to the proceeding.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a notice of intervention or motion to intervene, as appropriate. Such notices, motions, or protests must be filed in accordance with the provisions of section 154.210 of the Commission's regulations (18 CFR 154.210). Anyone filing an intervention or protest must serve a copy of that document on the Applicant. Anyone filing an intervention or protest on or before the intervention or protest date need not serve motions to intervene or protests on persons other than the Applicant.

The Commission encourages electronic submission of protests and interventions in lieu of paper using the "eFiling" link at <http://www.ferc.gov>. Persons unable to file electronically should submit an original and 14 copies of the protest or intervention to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426.

This filing is accessible on-line at <http://www.ferc.gov>, using the "eLibrary" link and is available for review in the Commission's Public Reference Room in Washington, DC. Iroquois Gas Transmission System, L.P.; Notice of Compliance Filing

November 30, 2004.

Take notice that on November 19, 2004, Iroquois Gas Transmission System, L.P. (Iroquois) tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, First Revised Volume No. 1, First Substitute Original Sheet No. 6F, to be effective on October 8, 2004.

Iroquois states that the filing is being made to comply with the Commission's order issued November 5, 2004 (109 ¶FERC 61,150) and reflects the period of service under two negotiated rate agreements with Consolidated Edison Company of New York, Inc. (Consolidated Edison). Iroquois requests a waiver of the 30-day notice requirement to permit the tariff sheet to take effect on October 8, 2004, the date the negotiated rate agreements with Consolidated Edison took effect.

Iroquois states that copies of its filing were served on all jurisdictional customers and interested state regulatory agencies and all parties to the proceeding.

Any person desiring to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rule 211 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211). Protests to this filing will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Such protests must be filed in accordance with the provisions of Section 154.210 of the Commission's regulations (18 CFR 154.210). Anyone filing a protest must serve a copy of that document on all the parties to the proceeding.

The Commission encourages electronic submission of protests in lieu of paper using the "eFiling" link at <http://www.ferc.gov>. Persons unable to file electronically should submit an original and 14 copies of the protest to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426.

[Docket No. ES04-39-001]

ISO New England, Inc.; Notice of Filing

November 30, 2004.

Take notice that on November 19, 2004, ISO New England, Inc. (ISO-New England) filed an application pursuant to section 204 of the Federal Power Act. The application requests that the Commission amend the authorization to issue senior notes previously granted on July 15, 2004, in Docket No. ES04-39-000, to permit ISO-New England to use proceeds from the borrowings for general public utility purposes, including the fund working capital.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a notice of intervention or motion to intervene, as appropriate. Such notices, motions, or protests must be filed on or before the comment date. Anyone filing a motion to intervene or protest must serve a copy of that document on all the parties to the proceeding.

The Commission encourages electronic submission of protests and interventions in lieu of paper using the "eFiling" link at <http://www.ferc.gov>. Persons unable to file electronically should submit an original and 14 copies of the protest or intervention to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426.
