

Project, and LRGFCP). In addition, USIBWC maintains the Tijuana River Flood Control Project, located in the United States portion of the Tijuana River, extending 2.3 miles from the international boundary. This project provides flood protection to areas in the United States.

The proposed federal action that will be evaluated in the PEIS may include activities to ensure adequate flood control and water deliveries per international agreements and treaties, while identifying opportunities for enhancements to the riparian ecosystem and the development of recreational opportunities.

2. Alternatives

The USIBWC, as the lead agency, proposes to collect information necessary for the preparation of a PEIS and to analyze alternatives for the management of the flood control projects to ensure compliance with the projects' mandates (flood protection, water deliveries and/or boundary stabilization) while creating opportunities for habitat restoration and recreation. Management activities to be evaluated may include: (1) Construction activities, such as raising and setting back levees, recreating meanders, and modifying the river channel; (2) maintenance activities such as vegetation control, channel dredging, and erosion control; and (3) other non-structural activities, such as land management and grazing.

The PEIS will identify, describe, and evaluate the existing environmental, cultural, sociological and economical, and recreational resources; describe the flood protection projects; and evaluate the impacts associated with the alternatives under consideration. Significant issues which have been identified to be addressed in the PEIS include, but are not limited to impacts to water resources, water quality, cultural and biological resources, threatened and endangered species, and recreation. Coordination with the United States Fish and Wildlife Service will ensure compliance with the Fish and Wildlife Coordination Act of 1973, as amended. Cultural resources assessments for the project areas will be coordinated by the New Mexico State Historic Preservation Officer, the Texas State Historic Preservation Officer, and the California State Historic Preservation Officer. Other federal and state agencies will be consulted, as required, to ensure compliance with federal and state laws and regulations.

The USIBWC has invited several agencies to participate as cooperating agencies pursuant 40 CFR 1501.6, to the extent possible. Other agencies may be invited to become cooperators as they are identified during the scoping process.

The environmental review of this project will be conducted in accordance with the requirements of NEPA, CEQ Regulations (40 CFR parts 1500–1508), other appropriate federal regulations, and the USIBWC procedures for compliance with those regulations. Copies of the PEIS will be transmitted to federal and state agencies and other interested parties for comments and will be filed with the Environmental Protection Agency in accordance with 40 CFR parts 1500–1508 and USIBWC procedures.

The USIBWC anticipates the Draft PEIS will be made available to the public by November 2005.

Dated: November 16, 2004.
