II. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, the Exchange included statements concerning the purpose of, and basis for, the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. The Exchange has prepared summaries, set forth in Sections A, B, and C below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

Proposed Amendment to NYSE Rule 343(d)

NYSE Rule 343 lists certain procedures that must be followed to, among other things, avoid confusion regarding the Membership affiliation of persons conducting a securities or commodities business with the public. NYSE Rule 343(d) requires a member or member organization that maintains a customer office to display in such office a certificate of membership provided by the Exchange, and requires such certificate to be returned to the Exchange upon termination of the office or the organization’s membership status. In practice, these certificates are frequently not returned, and the Exchange believes that the consequences of disregarding this provision of the rule have been negligible. The Exchange believes that rules that are widely violated and not enforced detract from the integrity of all Exchange rules, and the difficulty of enforcing the requirement that certificates be returned outweighs any minimal benefit of its enforcement. Therefore, the Exchange proposes to eliminate in NYSE Rule 343(d) the requirement to return a certificate of membership upon termination of the customer office or the organization’s membership status.

Proposed Amendment to NYSE Rule 35 (Adding NYSE Rule 35.80)

The Exchange’s Floor Official Manual requires the membership to notify the Security Office of the Exchange within 24 hours of a Floor member’s or employee’s termination, and to surrender such member’s or employee’s Exchange-issued identification card to the Security Office within five business days of termination, or upon the cancellation of the member’s or employee’s card prior to expiration. A member’s or member organization’s reassignment of a Floor member or employee to non-Floor functions is also subject to these requirements.⁵

The Exchange believes that the increase in potential security risks since September 11, 2001, necessitates shortening the time allowed for surrendering Exchange-issued identification cards from five days to one day. Codifying the aforementioned requirements in the Exchange’s rules would enable the Exchange to enforce those requirements. Thus, the Exchange proposes in proposed NYSE Rule 35.80 to require a member or member organization to notify the Exchange’s Security Office, and surrender any Exchange-issued identification card, within 24 hours of a Floor member or employee termination or re-assignment to non-Floor functions, or cancellation of a member’s or employee’s Exchange-issued identification card prior to expiration.

Proposed Amendment to NYSE Rule 476A

NYSE Rule 476A provides that the Exchange, subject to specified requirements, may impose a fine, not to exceed $5,000, on any member, member organization, allied member, approved person, or registered or non-registered employee of a member or member organization for a minor violation of specified Exchange rules. The purpose of the NYSE Rule 476A procedure is to provide a meaningful sanction for a rule violation when the initiation of full disciplinary proceedings under NYSE Rule 476 is not warranted by the minor nature of the violation, or when the violation calls for a stronger regulatory response than an admonition letter would convey. NYSE Rule 476A preserves due process rights, identifies those rule violations that may be the subject of summary fines, and includes a schedule of fines.

In SR-NYSE-84-27,⁶ which initially set forth the provisions and procedures of NYSE Rule 476A, the Exchange indicated that it would amend the list of rules from time to time, as it considered appropriate, in order to phase-in the implementation of Rule 476A as experience with it was gained. Because of the possible range of severity of a member’s or member organization’s failure to notify the Exchange’s Security Office and surrender an Exchange-issued identification card within 24 hours of a Floor member’s or employee’s termination or re-assignment to non-Floor functions or cancellation of such identification card, as required by proposed NYSE Rule 35.80, an amendment to NYSE Rule 476A would allow the Exchange to sanction the members’ and member organizations’ less serious instances of delinquency pursuant to the minor violation fine provisions of NYSE Rule 476A. The Exchange believes that the addition of proposed NYSE Rule 35.80 to the list of rule violations in NYSE Rule 476A would not compromise the Exchange’s ability to bring appropriate formal disciplinary actions for more serious violations of NYSE Rule 35.80.

Proposed Amendment to NYSE Rule 412 (Rescinding NYSE Rule 412(g))

NYSE Rule 412 mandates several time frames and procedures that must be followed when transferring customer accounts between member organizations. NYSE Rule 412(g) currently allows the Exchange to impose upon a member organization a fee of up to $100 per securities account for each day the organization fails to adhere to the requirements of NYSE Rule 412. NYSE Rule 476A also provides for the imposition of minor fines for such violations.

The Exchange’s Special Review of the Consistency of Informal Disciplinary Actions recommended the establishment of guidelines to clearly indicate which NYSE Rule 412 violations should be penalized pursuant to NYSE Rule 412(g) and which should be sanctioned by the imposition of minor fines pursuant to NYSE Rule 476A.⁷

NYSE Rule 412(g) was proposed in 1984, prior to the adoption of NYSE Rule 476A in March 1985.⁸ Once NYSE Rule 476A became operative, the Exchange had another effective method of enforcing NYSE Rule 412, and the sanctions of NYSE Rule 412(g) became superfluous. Historically, the Exchange's practice in most, if not all, cases of minor violations of NYSE Rule 412 has been to assess summary fines under NYSE Rule 476A rather than fees under NYSE Rule 412(g). Therefore, rather than establish guidelines for choosing between NYSE Rule 476A and NYSE Rule 412(g), the Exchange believes it would be more appropriate to simply rescind NYSE Rule 412(g) and continue to sanction violations of NYSE Rule 412 through the assessment of fines pursuant to NYSE Rule 476A.

2. Statutory Basis

The Exchange believes that the proposal, as amended, is consistent with Section 6(b) of the Act⁹ in general, and Section 6(b)(5) of the Act¹⁰ in particular, in that it is designed to prevent fraudulent and manipulative acts and practices, to promote just and equitable principles of trade and, in general, to protect investors and the public interest by making the Exchange's rules more consistent with membership and Exchange practices and strengthening the Exchange's security procedures. The Exchange also believes that the proposed rule change is consistent with Section 6(b)(6)¹¹ of the Act, which requires the rules of the Exchange to provide for its members and persons associated with its members to be appropriately disciplined for violations of those rules through fitting sanctions, including the imposition of fines.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

The Exchange believes that the proposal would not impose any burden on competition not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

⁷ Rule 476A provides for individuals to be fined $1,000 for first-time offenses, $2,500 for second-time offenses, and $5,000 for subsequent offenses, and for member organizations to be fined $2,500 for first-time offenses and $5,000 for subsequent offenses.
