AGENCY: Commodity Futures Trading Commission.

ACTION: Technical amendments.

SUMMARY: This document contains technical amendments to the final rule amendments that were published on October 7, 2002 (67 FR 62350). This rule relates to delegations of authority from the Commodity Futures Trading Commission (Commission) to its staff.

EFFECTIVE DATES: January 14, 2005.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

1. Technical Amendments

By Rule 140.93, the Commission has delegated to the Director of the Division of Clearing and Intermediary Oversight (DCIO) various functions reserved to the Commission under Part 4 of the Commission's regulations, which relates to the operations and activities of commodity pool operators (CPOs) and commodity trading advisors.¹ As is explained below, the technical amendments the Commission is making to Rule 140.93 conform the rule to changes the Commission previously has made to certain paragraphs of the rule itself and to certain other rules to which Rule 140.93 applies.

On October 7, 2002, the Commission amended its rules to reflect the reassignment of responsibilities, including delegations of authority pursuant to Rule 140.83, resulting from its reorganization of its staff. Under the reorganized structure, the (former) Divisions of Trading and Markets and Economic Analysis were reconfigured into two new divisions and one new office, DCIO, the Division of Market Oversight, and the Office of the Chief Economist. As amended, the Commission's rules reflected new assignments of responsibilities, including delegated authorities. In this regard, the Commission removed the words "Trading and Markets" from the body of Rule 140.93 and added, in their place, the words "Clearing and Intermediary Oversight." However, the Commission neglected at that time to make a similar amendment to the title of the rule itself. Accordingly, one of the technical amendments the Commission is making is the removal of the words "Trading and Markets" from the title of Rule 140.93 and the addition, in their place, of the words "Clearing and Intermediary Oversight."

One of the rules to which Rule 140.93 applies is Rule 4.22, which concerns the Annual Report that a CPO registered or required to be registered under the Act must prepare and distribute to each participant in each pool it operates. On December 11, 2002, the Commission delegated to the National Futures Association (NFA) all functions under Rule 4.22(f)—e.g., the receiving and granting or denying of applications for extensions of time to distribute Annual Reports.² On that date, the Commission also amended Rule 4.22(f) by removing the word "Commission" from the rule and adding, in its place, the words "National Futures Association."³ Thus, under [the Director's] direction as he may designate from time to time."

Commission rules cited to herein are found at 17 CFR Ch. I (2004). Both the Commodity Exchange Act (Act), 7 U.S.C. 1 et seq. (2000), and the Commission's rules issued thereunder can be accessed through the Commission's Web site, at: <http://www.cftc.gov/cftc/cftclawreg.htm>.

² 67 FR 77470 (December 18, 2002). NFA is a futures association registered as such with the Commission under Section 17 of the Act, 7 U.S.C. 21 (2000).

³ 67 FR 77409 (December 18, 2002). The Commission did not delegate to NFA any functions under Rule 4.22(g), which concerns the election by a CPO of its pool's fiscal year and the authority of other technical amendments the Commission is making are the removal of paragraph (a)(2) of Rule 140.93 (such that Rule 140.93 no longer refers to Rule 4.22(f)) and the redesignation of paragraphs (a)(3) through (a)(6) of Rule 140.93 as paragraphs (a)(2) through (a)(5) of Rule 140.93.

Another of the rules to which Rule 140.93 applies is Rule 4.5, which, among other things, provides an exclusion from the term "commodity pool operator" for specified "eligible persons" with respect to their operation of certain "qualifying entities," provided those persons comply with certain conditions in operating those entities. On August 1, 2003, the Commission eliminated certain of those conditions from Rule 4.5 by removing paragraphs (c)(2)(i) and (c)(2)(ii) and redesignating paragraphs (c)(2)(iii) and (c)(2)(iv) as paragraphs (c)(2)(i) and (c)(2)(ii) of the rule.⁴ At that time, however, the Commission did not also amend Rule 140.93 to make conforming changes to its references to Rule 4.5. To remedy this oversight, the final technical amendment the Commission is making is the correction in (newly redesignated) Rule 140.93(a)(4) to refer to Rule 4.5(c)(2)(ii).

II. Need for Correction

As published, Rule 140.93 contains text which no longer is accurate. Thus, it is in need of correction.

III. Related Matters

A. The Administrative Procedure Act

The Commission finds that that Rule 140.93 relates solely to agency practice and procedure and that notice of proposed rulemaking and opportunity for public participation are not required. Thus, the Commission has determined to make the amendments to Rule 140.93 effective immediately. The forgoing is in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act, as codified, 5 U.S.C. 553.⁵

B. The Regulatory Flexibility Act

The Regulatory Flexibility Act ("RFA"), 5 U.S.C. 601, et seq., requires that agencies, in proposing rules, consider the impact of those rules on small businesses. The RFA defines the term "rule" to mean "any rule for which the agency publishes a general notice of proposed rulemaking pursuant to section 553(b) of this title * * * for which the agency provides an opportunity for notice and public comment.” 5 U.S.C. 601(2). Since the rules are not being effected pursuant to section 553(b), they are not “rules” as defined in the RFA, and the analysis and certification process certified in that statute do not apply.

C. The Paperwork Reduction Act

The Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (PRA), 44 U.S.C. 3501, et seq., which imposes certain requirements on federal agencies, including the Commission, in connection with their conducting or sponsoring any collection of information as defined by the PRA, does not apply to these rule amendments because these rule amendments do not contain information collection requirements as defined by the PRA.

D. Cost-Benefit Analysis

Section 15 of the Act, as amended by section 119 of the CFMA, requires the Commission, before issuing a new regulation under the Act, to consider the costs and benefits of its action. The Commission understands that, by its terms, section 15 does not require the Commission to quantify the costs and benefits of a new regulation or to determine whether the benefits of the proposed regulation outweigh its costs.

Section 15 further specifies that costs and benefits shall be evaluated in light of five broad areas of market and public concern: (1) Protection of market participants and the public; (2) efficiency, competitiveness, and financial integrity of futures markets; (3) price discovery; (4) sound risk management practices; and (5) other public interest considerations.

Accordingly, the Commission could in its discretion give greater weight to any one of the five enumerated areas of concern and could in its discretion determine that, notwithstanding its costs, a particular rule was necessary or appropriate to protect the public interest or to effectuate any of the provisions or to accomplish any of the purposes of the Act.

The Commission has considered the costs and benefits of this rule package in light of the specific areas of concern identified in section 15, at the time that the Commission delegated these responsibilities to the Division and the National Futures Association.
