Regulatory Flexibility Act—After considering the economic impacts of today's action on small entities under the Regulatory Flexibility Act, I certify that this action will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities; 4. Unfunded Mandates Reform Act—Because this action approves pre-existing requirements under state law and does not impose any additional enforceable duty beyond that required by state law, this action does not contain any unfunded mandate, or significantly or uniquely affect small governments, as described in the Unfunded Mandates Act; 5. Executive Order 13132: Federalism—EO 13132 does not apply to this action because this action will not have federalism implications (i.e., there are no substantial direct effects on states, on the relationship between the national government and states, or on the distribution of power and responsibilities between federal and state governments); 6. Voluntary consensus standards are technical standards (e.g., materials specifications, test methods, sampling procedures, and business practices) that are developed or adopted by voluntary consensus standards bodies. This action does not involve technical standards. Therefore, EPA did not consider the use of any voluntary consensus standards. 10. § 501.2 General.

(a) Statutory functions. The Commission regulates common carriers by water and other persons involved in the oceanborne foreign commerce of the United States under provisions of the Shipping Act of 1984, as amended by the Ocean Shipping Reform Act of 1998 (46 U.S.C. app. sections 1701–1720); section 19 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1920 (46 U.S.C. app. section 876); the Foreign Shipping Practices Act of 1988 (46 U.S.C. app. section 1710a); sections 2 and 3, Public Law 89–777, Financial Responsibility for Death or Injury to Passengers and for Non-Performance of Voyages (46 U.S.C. app. sections 817d and 817e); and other applicable statutes.

Not more than three Commissioners may be appointed from the same political party. The President designates one of the Commissioners to serve as the Chairman of the Commission (“Chairman”).

on June 30 of each successive year), except that, when the term of office of a member ends, the member may continue to serve until a successor is appointed and qualified. A vacancy in the office of any Commissioner shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointment, except that any person chosen to fill a vacancy shall be appointed only for the unexpired term of the Commissioner whom he or she succeeds. Each Commissioner shall be removable by the President for inefficiency, neglect of duty, or malfeasance in office.

The affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the Commission is required to dispose of any matter before the Commission. For purposes of holding a formal meeting for the transaction of the business of the Commission, the actual presence of two Commissioners shall be sufficient. Proxy votes of absent members shall be permitted.

The Commission shall, through its Secretary, keep a true record of all its meetings and the ye-and-nay votes taken therein on every action and order approved or disapproved by the Commission. In subpart A of this part, the Commission has delegated general functions, and in this subpart C it is delegating miscellaneous, specific authorities set forth in §§ 501.23, et seq., to the delegates designated therein, subject to the limitations prescribed in subsequent subsections of this section.

(b) Deputies. Where bureau or office deputies are officially appointed, they are hereby delegated all necessary authority to act in the absence or incapacity of the director or chief.

(c) Redelegation. Subject to the limitations in this section, the delegates may redelegate their authorities to subordinate personnel under their supervision and direction; but only if this subpart is amended to reflect such redelegation and notice thereof is published in the Federal Register. Under any redelegated authority, the redelegator assumes full responsibility for actions taken by subordinate redelegates.

(d) Exercise of authority; policy and procedure. The delegates and redelegates shall exercise the authorities delegated or redelegated in a manner consistent with applicable laws and the established policies of the Commission, and shall consult with the General Counsel where appropriate.

(e) Exercise of delegated authority by delegator. Under any authority delegated or redelegated, the delegator (Commission), or the redelegator, respectively, shall retain full rights to exercise the authority in the first instance.

(f) Review of delegatee's action. The delegator (Commission) or redelegator of authority shall retain a discretionary right to review an action taken under delegated authority by a subordinate delegatee, either upon the filing of a written petition of a party to, or an intervenor in, such action; or upon the delegator's or redelegator's own initiative.

(1) Petitions for review of actions taken under delegated authority shall be filed within ten (10) calendar days of the action taken:

(i) If the action for which review is sought is taken by a delegatee, the petition shall be addressed to the Commission pursuant to § 502.69 of this chapter.

(ii) If the action for which review is sought is taken by a redelegatee, the petition shall be addressed to the redelegator whose decision can be further reviewed by the Commission under paragraph (f)(1)(i) of this section, unless the Commission decides to review the matter directly, such as, for example, in the incapacity of the redelegator.

(2) The vote of a majority of the Commission less one member thereof shall be sufficient to bring any delegated action before the Commission for review under this paragraph.

(g) Action—when final. Should the right to exercise discretionary review be declined or should no such review be sought under paragraph (f) of this section, then the action taken under delegated authority shall, for all purposes, including appeal or review thereof, be deemed to be the action of the Commission.

(h) Conflicts. Where the procedures set forth in this section conflict with law or any regulation of this chapter, the conflict shall be resolved in favor of the law or other regulation.

Background

Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), § 1.53(e), delegates to the Administrator of the Research and Special Programs Administration (RSPA) the authority to carry out functions and activities related to emergency preparedness and response vested in the Secretary by 49 U.S.C. 101 and 301 or delegated to the Secretary by or through the Defense Production Act of 1950, 50 U.S.C. App. 2061 et seq.; Executive Order 12148, as amended; Executive Order 12656, as amended; Executive Order 12742, as amended; Executive Order 12919, as amended; Reorganization Plan No. 3 of 1978; and such other statutes, executive orders, and other directives as may pertain to emergency preparedness and response.

The functions related to emergency preparedness and response are currently performed by the RSPA's Office of Emergency Transportation (OET), subject to coordination with and concurrence by the Director of Intelligence and Security. The OET's mission is to serve as the Departmental emergency coordinator. OET also provides leadership for emergency preparedness and response activities; develops national preparedness and response policies and procedures in coordination with other Federal, state, local, and private sector authorities; operates the Department's Crisis Management Center (CMC); and participates on behalf of the United States in international emergency preparedness and response planning and related activities with the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) and other Allies.

The Transportation, Treasury, Independent Agencies, and General Government Appropriations Act, 2005, transfers operational responsibility for the OET and the CMC from RSPA to the Office of the Secretary. This authority is being delegated to the Office of Intelligence and Security, which is now being renamed to the Office of Intelligence, Security, and Emergency Response to reflect the inclusion of OET and the CMC. Therefore, this final rule rescinds the current delegation of Secretarial authority to the Administrator, RSPA, in 49 CFR 1.53(e) to carry out the functions and activities currently relating to emergency transportation performed by the OET and gives notice that these functions and activities shall be carried out by the Director of the Office of Intelligence, Security, and Emergency Response.
