Needs and Uses: The ARMIS Report 43–08 collects network operating data in a consistent format. The report monitors network growth, usage, and reliability. The Commission uses an indexed revenue threshold to determine which carriers are required to file the ARMIS reports. The revenue threshold for mid-sized carriers is currently $123 million. In this collection, we are revising the number of carriers filing this ARMIS report from 55 to 56 to reflect two carriers that fell below the revenue threshold.
