Applicant's Representations

1. Applicant was organized as an Ohio corporation in 1987 by the H.R.H. Family Trust (the "Trust"), which owned all of Applicant's outstanding stock. The Trust beneficiaries were certain members of the Harry R. Horvitz and Lois U. Horvitz family. In 1998, Applicant was reorganized as a single member Ohio limited liability company, and in January 2003, ownership was transferred equally to the three children of Harry R. Horvitz and Lois U. Horvitz.

2. Applicant operates as the "family office" for Lois U. Horvitz and (i) the lineal descendants of Lois and her now-deceased husband Harry R. Horvitz, (ii) the spouses of those lineal descendants, (iii) the sister of one such spouse and (iv) the mother and two children of that sister (collectively the "Family"). In addition to the Family, Applicant's other clients consist of (i) trusts, partnerships, limited liability companies, corporations, and other entities that both (A) are wholly-owned or controlled by members of the Family and (B) were created either for the sole benefit of Family members or for the benefit of both Family members and charitable organizations and (ii) foundations created by members of the Family (collectively "Clients").

3. Applicant represents that the "family office" services it provides to Clients include: developing asset allocation strategies; serving as the general partner to three partnerships wholly owned by the Family, which hold investments in private equity funds and hedge funds managed by third parties; recommending investment advisers and monitoring and recommending termination of such advisers; managing cash; preparing financial and tax reports; developing tax planning strategies; implementing estate planning activities; bill paying; travel planning; household staff supervision and payroll administration; and administering grant and scholarship programs for foundations established by the Family.

4. Applicant represents that the fees it receives have not generated, and are not intended to generate, a profit for Applicant. Applicant represents that its fees are structured so that fees it receives from Clients only cover its direct costs and overhead costs.

5. Applicant represents that it does not hold itself out to the public as an investment adviser. Applicant represents that it is not listed in any local telephone book as an investment adviser and is listed in the building directory merely by its name, which does not connote investment advisory activities. Applicant represents that it does not engage in any advertising, attend any investment management-related conferences as a vendor, or conduct any marketing activities whatsoever.

6. Applicant represents that it has no public retail or institutional clients, and has never solicited, and does not plan to solicit or accept clients from the retail or institutional investing public. Applicant further represents that its sole purpose is to serve as a "family office" for the Family, and at no time will it seek or accept investment advisory clients other than Clients.

Applicant's Legal Analysis

1. Section 202(a)(11) of the Advisers Act defines the term "investment adviser" to mean any person who, for compensation, engages in the business of advising others, either directly or through publications or writings, as to the value of securities or as to the advisability of investing in, purchasing, or selling securities, or who, for compensation and as part of a regular business, issues or promulgates analyses or reports concerning securities Section 202(a)(11)(F) of the Advisers Act authorizes the SEC to exclude from the definition of "investment adviser" persons that are not within the intent of section 202(a)(11).

2. Section 203(a) of the Advisers Act requires investment advisers to register with the SEC. Section 203(b) of the Advisers Act provides exemptions from this registration requirement.

3. Applicant asserts that it does not qualify for any of the exemptions provided by section 203(b). Applicant also asserts that it is not prohibited from registering with the SEC under Section 203A(a) because it has assets under management of not less than $25,000,000.

4. Applicant requests that the SEC declare it to be a person not within the intent of section 202(a)(11). Applicant states that there is no public interest in requiring it to be registered under the Advisers Act. Applicant states that it is a private organization that was formed to be the "family office" for the Family. Applicant represents that all of its clients are either members of the Family or are entities created by or for the benefit of the Family. Applicant states that it has no public clients in the sense of retail or institutional investors, and that it has no plans to solicit or accept clients from the retail or institutional public. Applicant also states that it does not hold itself out to the public as an investment adviser, does not engage in any advertising, or attend investment management-related conferences as a vendor or conduct any marketing activities. Applicant asserts that serving as the "family office" for the Family has been, is, and will continue to be the sole purpose for its existence and operation.

For the SEC, by the Division of Investment Management, under delegated authority.

Deputy Secretary.

Applicants' Representations

1. CIBC Mellon, a Canadian corporation, is engaged in the business of providing transfer agent and corporate trust services. Applicants (other than Dreyfus Service and Mellon Funds) serve as investment adviser or sub-adviser for one or more registered investment companies ("Funds"). Dreyfus Service and Mellon Funds act as the depositor or principal underwriter for certain Funds.

2. On February 24, 2005, the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia entered the Injunction against CIBC Mellon in a matter brought by the Commission.¹ The Commission alleged in the complaint ("Complaint") that CIBC Mellon violated sections 5(a)(1) and (2) of the Securities Act of 1933, sections 10(b), 15(a) and 17A of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Exchange Act") and rule 10b-5 under the Exchange Act. The Complaint alleged that CIBC Mellon participated in a fraudulent scheme to promote, distribute and sell the stock of a now defunct Canadian telecommunications company by supplying the perpetrators of the scheme with a virtually limitless supply of purportedly "free trading" stock and that CIBC Mellon failed to register with the Commission as a transfer agent and as a broker-dealer. The Injunction enjoined CIBC Mellon, its agents, servants, employees, attorneys and all persons in active concert or in participation with them from violating the provisions of the federal securities laws cited in the Complaint. Without admitting or denying the allegations in the Complaint, CIBC Mellon consented to the entry of the Injunction as well as the payment of disgorgement and penalties and other equitable relief.

Applicants' Legal Analysis

Section 9(a)(2) of the Act, in relevant part, prohibits a person who has been enjoined from engaging in or continuing any conduct or practice in connection with the purchase or sale of a security from acting, among other things, as an investment adviser or depositor of any registered investment company or a principal underwriter for any registered open-end investment company, registered UIT or registered face-amount certificate company. Section 9(a)(3) of the Act makes the prohibition in section 9(a)(2) applicable to a company, any affiliated person of which has been disqualified under the provisions of section 9(a)(2). Section 2(a)(3) of the Act defines "affiliated person" to include any person directly or indirectly controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, the other person. Applicants state that CIBC Mellon is an affiliated person of the Applicants within the meaning of section 2(a)(3) of the Act. Applicants state that the entry of the Injunction would result in Applicants being subject to the disqualification provisions of section 9(a) of the Act.

1. Section 9(c) of the Act provides that the Commission shall grant an application for exemption from the disqualification provisions of section 9(a) if it is established that these provisions, as applied to Applicants, are unduly or disproportionately severe or that Applicants' conduct has been such as not to make it against the public interest or the protection of investors to grant the application.
