

In the request for reconsideration, the petitioner asserts that, contrary to the Department's findings, the subject worker group's separation from the subject firm was due to the shift of sample production abroad.

The Department has carefully reviewed the petitioner's request for reconsideration as well as the subject firm's response, and has determined that the Department will conduct further investigation based on the new information provided by the petitioner and the company official.

Conclusion

After careful review of the application, I conclude that the claim is of sufficient weight to justify reconsideration of the Department of Labor's prior decision. The application is, therefore, granted.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 1st day of March, 2005.

Matsushita Electronic Components Corporation of America, a Subsidiary of Matsushita Electric Corporation of America, Including Leased Workers of Staffing Solutions, Now Known as Panasonic Electronic Devices Corporation of America, Knoxville, TN; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance on June 16, 2004, applicable to workers of Matsushita Electronic Components Corporation of America, a subsidiary of Matsushita Electric Corporation of America, including leased workers of Staffing Solutions, Knoxville, Tennessee. The notice was published in the Federal Register on July 7, 2004 (69 FR 40984).

At the request of a company official, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers are engaged in the production of speakers, capacitors and aluminum foil.

New information shows that as the result of a corporate decision, Matsushita Electronic Components Corporation of America, a subsidiary of Matsushita Electric Corporation of America will become known as Panasonic Electronic Devices Corporation of America as of April 1, 2005. Workers separated from employment as the subject firm will have their wages reported under a separate unemployment insurance (UI) tax account for Panasonic Electronic Devices Corporation of America. Accordingly, the Department is amending this certification to properly reflect this matter.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Matsushita Electronic Components Corporation of America, a subsidiary of Matsushita Electric Corporation of America who were adversely affected by a shift in production to China.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-54,986 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Matsushita Electronic Components Corporation of America, a subsidiary of Matsushita Electric Corporation of America, now known as Panasonic Electronic Devices Corporation of America, including leased workers of Staffing Solutions, Knoxville, Tennessee, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after May 25, 2003, through June 16, 2006, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, are also eligible to apply for alternative trade adjustment assistance under Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 8th day of March, 2005.

Tyco Electronics, Power Components (COEV) Division, Watertown, SD, Including an Employee of Tyco Electronics, Power Components, (COEV) Division, Watertown, SD, Located in Plano, TX; Amended Notice of Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Notice of Certification Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance on January 19, 2005, applicable to workers of Tyco Electronics, Power Components (COEV) Division, Watertown, South Dakota. The notice was published in the Federal Register on February 7, 2005 (70 FR 6460).

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. New information shows that a worker separation occurred involving an employee of the Watertown, South Dakota facility of Tyco Electronics, Power Components (COEV) Division who was located in Plano, Texas. Mr. Dale E. Booso provided sales support services for the production of transformers and other components for networking, power and broadband magnetic products at the Watertown, South Dakota location of the subject firm.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending this certification to include an employee of the Watertown South Dakota facility of Tyco Electronics, Power Components (COEV) Division located in Plano, Texas. Since workers of the Watertown, South Dakota location of the subject firm were certified eligible to apply for alternative trade adjustment assistance, the Department is extending this eligibility to Mr. Dale E. Booso in Plano, Texas.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Tyco Electronics, Power Components (COEV) Division, Watertown, South Dakota, who were adversely affected by increased imports.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-56,134 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Tyco Electronics, Power Components (COEV) Division, Watertown, South Dakota (TA-W-56,134), including an employee of Tyco Electronics, Power Components (COEV) Division, Watertown, South Dakota, located in Plano, Texas (TA-W-56,134A), who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after December 2, 2003, through January 19, 2007, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, and are also eligible to apply for alternative trade adjustment assistance under Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974.
