

Supportive Housing for Persons with Disabilities Program NOFA and the Section 202 Supportive Housing for the Elderly Program NOFA. This document makes corrections to these competition reopening announcements to clarify that applicants submitting paper applications for the Section 202 Program NOFA and the Section 811 Program NOFA competition reopening announcements must submit applications to the local HUD office or Program Center office and not to the HUD Multifamily Hub office.

DATES: The submission dates of September 6, 2005, as published in the Federal Register Notices on August 5, 2005, announcing the competition reopenings, remain in effect.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Aretha Williams, Director, Grant Policy and Management Division, Department of Housing and Urban Development, 451 Seventh Street, SW., Room 6142, Washington, DC 20410-7000; telephone 202-708-3000 (this is not a toll-free number). Persons with speech or hearing impairments may access this number via TTY by calling the toll-free Federal Information Relay Service at 800-877-8339.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On March 21, 2005, (70 FR 13575) HUD published its Notice of HUD's Fiscal Year (FY) 2005, Notice of Funding Availability (NOFA), Policy Requirements and General Section to the SuperNOFA for HUD's Discretionary Grant Programs. On August 5, 2005, (70 FR 45412) HUD published competition reopening announcements for the Section 202 Program NOFA and the Section 811 Program NOFA.

Summary of Technical Corrections

HUD is publishing the following technical correction to clarify that applicants submitting paper applications for the Section 202 Program NOFA and the Section 811 Program NOFA competition reopening announcements must submit applications to the local HUD office or Program Center office and not to the HUD Multifamily Hub office. HUD will not penalize an applicant who, prior to today's Federal Register date, did not see this technical correction and who submitted an application to the Multifamily Hub office.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

Restoring an endangered or threatened animal or plant to the point where it is again a secure, self-sustaining member of its ecosystem is a primary goal of the Service's endangered species program. To help guide the recovery effort, the Service is working to prepare recovery plans for most of the federally threatened and endangered species native to the United States. Recovery plans describe actions considered necessary for conservation of the species, establish criteria for reclassification and delisting, and provide estimates of the time and cost for implementing the recovery measures.

The Act requires the development of recovery plans for listed species unless
