SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Title: Consumer Complaint Form/ Obscene, Profane, and Indecent Complaint Form, FCC Forms 475 and 475B.

Type of Review: Revision of a currently approved collection.

Respondents: Individuals or households; Business or other for-profit entities; and Not-for-profit institutions.

Number of Respondents: 1,354,619: FCC Form 475—83,287; FCC Form 475B—1,271,332.

Estimated Time per Response: FCC Form 475—30 minutes; FCC Form 475B—15 minutes.

Total Annual Burden: 359,477: FCC Form 475—41,644 hours; FCC Form 475B—317,833 hours.

Total Annual Cost: None.

Needs and Uses: Revised FCC Form 475, Consumer Complaint Form, allows the Commission to collect detailed data from consumers of the practices of common carriers. This information contained in the collection will allow consumers to provide the Commission with the relevant information required to help consumers develop a concise statement outlining the issues in dispute and revisions were made to also minimize the need to call back consumers in order to acquire further data. The Commission uses the information to assist in resolving informal complaints and the collected data required to assess the practices of common carriers and as a part of investigative work performed by federal and state law enforcement agencies to monitor carrier practices and promote compliance with federal and state requirements. The data may ultimately become the foundation for enforcement actions and/or rulemaking proceedings, as appropriate.

We have revised FCC Form 475 to clarify information requirements and comply with OMB requests to make the form less confusing and more user friendly, by making it clear for which complaints revised Form 475 may be used. Form 475 has also been made more consumer-friendly by putting directions for use in colored text at the top of the form to emphasize which types of complaints may be filed using the revised Form 475. Revised Form 475 will be used for all telephone-related complaints, except slamming. Certain fields have an asterisk next to them if the information is required in order to submit a complaint. It is also clearly stated now for which complaints Form 475 may be used and clearly states that "slamming" complaints may not be filed using the revised Form 475. Letters and numbers have been added to the individual data requests to make it easier for consumers to fill out the revised FCC Form 475.

In Form 475, the Commission asks for the complainant's contact information in the first ten fields, including, name/ company name, address, telephone number and e-mail address. Form 475 also asks the consumer briefly to describe their complaints including the company(ies) involved, the account numbers, telephone numbers associated with the complaint, types of service involved, important dates, and the resolution the consumer is seeking. Revised Form 475 will also provide clearer guidance for persons wishing to file Telephone Consumer Protection Act (TCPA) related complaints (e.g., unwanted telemarketing calls, unsolicited faxes, etc.). Revised Form 475 now has a section for consumers to submit TCPA complaints with the Commission. This section includes five fields or questions where consumers will provide the requested information or respond to the question to file a TCPA violation with the Commission.

Proposed FCC Form 475B, Obscene, Profane, and Indecent Complaint Form, will enable the Commission to collect detailed data from consumers on the practices of those entities that may air/ broadcast obscene, profane and indecent programming by giving consumers an opportunity, for the first time, to use a specific form to delineate the consumer's complaint. Form 475B will be used only for complaints associated with obscene, profane, and/or indecent programming. Information contained in the collection will allow consumers to provide the Commission with the relevant information to help consumers develop a concise statement outlining the issues in dispute thereby minimizing the amount of time it takes to file a complaint, minimizing confusion on what information the Commission requires, and improving the complaint process and the overall quality of the complaints received.

Prior to the creation of Form 475B, consumers have attempted to use Form 475 to submit complaints about programming and in most such instances the Commission has been unable to process the complaints because not enough information was
