3. This rule does not contain policies with Federalism implications as that term is defined under E.O. 13132.

4. The Department finds that there is good cause under 5 U.S.C. 553 (b)(3) to waive the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act requiring prior notice and the opportunity for public comment because it is unnecessary. This regulation deletes a redundant paragraph and redesignates the remaining paragraphs in one section for clarity; inserts material inadvertently omitted from previous rules in three places in the EAR; clarifies instructions for applying for authorization to transfer items subject to the EAR in-country; adds an alias for a listed entity on the Entity List; and removes references to two ECCNs that do not exist. The revisions made by this rule are administrative in nature and do not affect the rights and obligations of the public. Because these revisions are not substantive changes to the EAR, it is unnecessary to provide notice and opportunity for public comment. In addition, the 30-day delay in effectiveness required by U.S.C. 553(d) is not applicable because this rule is not a substantive rule. No other law requires that a notice of proposed rulemaking and an opportunity for public comment be given for this rule.

Because notice of proposed rulemaking and opportunity for public comment are not required to be given for this rule under the Administrative Procedure Act or by any other law, the analytical requirements of the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601 et. seq.) are not applicable.

Suspension of Special (Occupational) Tax (2004R-778P)

AGENCY: Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau, Treasury.

ACTION: Temporary rule; Treasury decision.

SUMMARY: In this temporary rule, the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau amends its regulations relating to special (occupational) tax, to reflect a 3-year tax suspension effected by section 246 of the American Jobs Creation Act of 2004. Section 246 amends the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 to provide that, during the period from July 1, 2005, through June 30, 2008, the rate of special (occupational) tax on certain occupations will be zero. The occupations affected by the 3-year tax suspension are: Manufacturers of nonbeverage products who claim tax drawback; proprietors of distilled spirits plants, alcohol fuel plants, bonded and taxpaid wine premises, and breweries; and wholesale and retail dealers in distilled spirits, wine, and beer. The requirements to register annually and keep prescribed records remain in effect. The text of these temporary regulations serves as the text of the proposed regulations set forth in the notice of proposed rulemaking on this subject in the Proposed Rules section of this issue of the Federal Register.

DATES: Effective Date: This temporary rule is effective as of July 1, 2005.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

Various provisions within subtitle E of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (IRC) impose an annual tax on certain business occupations. This tax is referred to as the “special (occupational) tax” or more briefly as the “special tax.” In general, payment of this tax is a prerequisite for engaging in any of the covered occupations. The current annual rates of special (occupational) tax are as follows:

Manufacturer of Nonbeverage Products .....	$ 500
Proprietor of Distilled Spirits Plant .....	1,000
Proprietor of Alcohol Fuel Plant ....	1,000
Proprietor of Bonded Wine Cellar ..	1,000
Proprietor of Bonded Wine Warehouse .....	1,000
Proprietor of Taxpaid Wine Bottling House .....	1,000
Brewer .....	1,000
Wholesale Liquor Dealer or Beer Dealer .....	500
Retail Liquor Dealer or Beer Dealer .....	250
User of, or Dealer in, Specially Denatured Alcohol .....	250
User of Tax-Free Alcohol .....	250
Manufacturer of Tobacco Products .....	1,000
Manufacturer of Cigarette Papers and Tubes .....	1,000
Export Warehouse Proprietor .....	1,000

Each tax year for payment of special (occupational) tax runs from July 1 through the following June 30. In addition, special tax returns, with payment of the appropriate tax, must be submitted before beginning a new business, and each year thereafter on or before July 1.

Some of the covered occupations are subject to a reduced rate for small entities. A small entity, engaging in an occupation subject to a basic rate of $1,000 per year, is subject to a reduced rate of just $500 per year. However, a small alcohol fuel plant is exempt from special tax. Educational institutions using small quantities of tax-free or specially denatured alcohol are also exempt from special tax.

Besides requiring payment of the annual tax, the IRC requires an annual registration of persons subject to special tax and imposes certain recordkeeping requirements. Further, liquor (distilled spirits, wine, and beer) dealers must purchase distilled spirits from (1) a wholesale liquor dealer who has paid special tax for the location where the sale is consummated, (2) a wholesale dealer in liquors who is exempt, at the place where such purchase is made, from the payment of the tax, or (3) a person who is not subject to wholesale liquor dealer's special tax where the sale is consummated.

Current regulations relating to special (occupational) tax are contained in title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations (27 CFR) and are administered by the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau (TTB). These regulations provide for a single form to be used both as a tax return and a registration. The form is TTB Form 5630.5, "Special Tax Registration and Return." Persons who complete this form and pay the appropriate tax are issued a "Special Tax Stamp," which functions as a receipt for payment of the tax and also provides evidence of registration. This tax stamp is not a license and does not authorize any activity that would be illegal under any other Federal or State law.

American Jobs Creation Act of 2004

On October 22, 2004, President Bush signed into law the American Jobs Creation Act of 2004 (the Act), Pub. L. 108-357, 118 Stat. 1418. Section 246 of the Act, entitled "Suspension of Occupational Taxes Relating to Distilled Spirits, Wine, and Beer," amended subpart G of part II of subchapter A of chapter 54 of the IRC by redesignating section 5148 as section 5149 and adding a new section 5148 (26 U.S.C. 5148) entitled "Suspension of Occupational Tax." New section 5148 provides that, during the 3-year period from July 1, 2005, through June 30, 2008, the rate of special (occupational) tax imposed under sections 5081, 5091, 5111, 5121, and 5131 will be zero.

The effect of new section 5148 is that the following occupations are not subject to payment of special (occupational) tax during the suspension period: Manufacturer of nonbeverage products, proprietor of distilled spirits plant, (including an alcohol fuel plant), proprietor of bonded wine cellar, proprietor of bonded wine warehouse, proprietor of taxpaid wine bottling house, brewer, wholesale liquor dealer or beer dealer, and retail liquor dealer or beer dealer.

On the other hand, the following occupations, which are not covered by the IRC sections listed in new section 5148, are not affected by the suspension and remain subject to the special (occupational) tax during the suspension period: User of or dealer in specially denatured alcohol, user of tax-free alcohol, manufacturer of tobacco products (that is, cigars, cigarettes, smokeless tobacco, pipe tobacco, and roll-your-own tobacco), manufacturer of cigarette papers or tubes, and export warehouse proprietor (for the export of tobacco products, cigarette papers, or cigarette tubes).

Although the tax rate for the occupations affected by the suspension will be zero during the suspension period, new section 5148 further provides that persons engaging in those occupations must still register annually and comply with applicable recordkeeping requirements. Finally, section 246 of the Act amended section 5117 of the IRC (26 U.S.C. 5117) by adding a new subsection (d) to provide that during the suspension period a dealer may purchase distilled spirits, for resale, only from persons required to keep records as a wholesale liquor dealer, except as otherwise specifically provided by law or regulations.

Regulations Changes in General

In order to reflect the changes made by section 246 of the Act, this document generally amends the TTB regulations by adding the requirements that are applicable during the suspension period to the current regulatory provisions, which remain applicable at all times outside the suspension period. The regulatory amendments therefore refer to the fact that the suspension is for a fixed period with a beginning and ending date. Accordingly, provided that no further changes are made to the special (occupational) tax statutory provisions, the regulatory provisions that were in effect prior to the adoption of the changes made by section 246 of the Act will operate without the need for further regulatory changes upon termination of the suspension period.

TTB Form 5630.5, "Special Tax Registration and Return," will continue in use for registration purposes during the suspension period. All persons engaged in occupations currently subject to special tax must continue to register by completing and submitting this form annually during the suspension period. Persons in occupations not affected by the suspension must continue to pay the current rate of tax as well.

Because the primary purpose of the "Special Tax Stamp" is to serve as a receipt for payment of the tax, TTB has decided not to issue these stamps during the suspension period, except for those occupations that will remain subject to payment of a special (occupational) tax.

Specific Types of Regulatory Changes

Each regulation referring to an affected special tax liability is amended in this document to refer as well to an obligation to register during the 3-year tax suspension period. Similarly, if a regulation prescribes the time for payment of a special tax, the regulation is amended to prescribe the same time for registration during the suspension period. Regulations affording exemptions from payment of special tax (such as the exemptions from liquor dealer tax on sales, by alcohol beverage manufacturers, of products stored on their manufacturing premises) are amended to add similar exemptions from registration during the tax suspension period.

Regulations providing a penalty for failure to file a special tax return or to pay special tax cannot simply be amended to provide the same penalties for failure to register during the tax suspension period, because the penalties described in those regulations are based on the amount of tax, which will become zero in the suspension period. This does not mean that no penalty exists for failure to register during the suspension period. Section 5603(b) of the IRC (26 U.S.C. 5603(b)) provides criminal penalties applicable to persons who are "required by this chapter * * * or regulations issued pursuant thereto to keep or file any record, return, report, summary, transcript, or other document" and who neglect to do so. A penalty of "not more than $1,000" or imprisonment for "not more than 1 year" or both may be imposed for each offense. Therefore, except in the case of part 17 of the TTB regulations as discussed below, regulations referring to a penalty for failure to file a special tax return are amended to refer to the penalty prescribed in section 5603(b), with respect to a failure to register during the tax suspension period.

While the regulations are not being amended to reflect other enforcement actions available to TTB in the event the required records are not maintained, TTB reminds holders of basic permits that these permits are conditioned on compliance with all Federal law relating to alcohol. The conditions include compliance with the internal revenue laws relating to alcohol, which include the requirement to register and/or maintain the required records.

The TTB regulations in 27 CFR part 17, which deal with manufacturers of nonbeverage products, require special treatment in several respects. For such manufacturers, payment of special tax is not a prerequisite for engaging in business, but is a prerequisite for claiming drawback of excise tax on distilled spirits used in their manufacturing processes. Accordingly, their time limit for filing a tax return and paying special tax is set by the regulations as no later than completion of final action on the first claim for any tax year. Failure to comply with this time limit is a violation subject to a $1,000 civil penalty prescribed by 26 U.S.C. 5134(c)(2). The same time limit and civil penalty will apply to registration during the suspension period. However, for changes of business location, and succession to business ownership by any of the statutorily privileged successors (such as children succeeding deceased parents, etc.), current regulations in 27 CFR 17.61 and 17.71 require payment of a new special tax if notice of the change is not submitted within 90 days. During the suspension period, when the rate of special tax is zero, the requirement for a new special tax is not applicable. Therefore, manufacturers changing location and successors assuming ownership may submit notice of the change, without penalty under 26 U.S.C. 5134(c)(2), at any time prior to completion of final action on the first claim after the change, or within 90 days of the change, whichever is later.

Certain changes are needed to reflect the fact that TTB will not issue special tax stamps for occupations whose tax rate is zero during the suspension period. Specifically, regulations promising issuance of special tax stamps or requiring persons to obtain such stamps are amended to indicate that no stamps will be issued during the suspension period. Regulations referring to the holding of a special tax stamp at a location are amended to refer, for purposes of the suspension period, to registration for that location. Regulations on changes of address, which refer to the address stated on the special tax stamp, are amended to refer, during the suspension period, to the same address as stated on the special tax return (TTB Form 5630.5). Regulations requiring submission of special tax stamps for endorsement of changes in name or address are amended to waive this requirement during the suspension period (nevertheless, such changes still must be registered by submission of a new special tax return). Lastly, the regulation in 27 CFR 31.125, which indirectly prohibits an activity (retailing of alcohol beverages on board a non-passenger train, vessel, or aircraft) by stating that no special tax stamp will be issued is amended to express the prohibition directly, so that it will be as meaningful during the suspension period as at other times. (Note: On April 15, 2005, part 194 of the TTB regulations (27 CFR part 194) was recodified as part 31 (27 CFR part 31); see T.D. TTB-25, 70 FR 19880.)

The current law restricting purchases of distilled spirits by dealers is in 26 U.S.C. 5117, and the implementing regulations are contained in 27 CFR 31.211. Under the amendments made by section 246 of the Act, as described above, during the tax suspension period, section 5117 only authorizes such purchases from persons required to keep records as wholesale liquor dealers—except that limited retail dealers as defined in 26 U.S.C. 5122(c) will be permitted, as currently, to purchase distilled spirits from retail liquor dealers. In addition, amended section 5117 allows the Secretary of the Treasury to expand, by regulation, the categories of persons from whom such distilled spirits purchases may be made. Accordingly, this Treasury decision amends § 31.211 to provide that, during the suspension period, a dealer must purchase distilled spirits from (a) a wholesale dealer (including a State, a political subdivision of a State, the District of Columbia, and a distilled spirits plant) required to keep records as such under part 31, (b) a retail liquor store operated by a State, a political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia, or (c) a person not required to register as a wholesale liquor dealer under part 31. The current provision allowing limited retail dealers to purchase distilled spirits from retail liquor dealers is retained.

Finally, in sections or paragraphs where the full regulatory text is set forth in this document, the amendments made by this document include a few minor, nonsubstantive editorial changes, such as the correction of typographical errors.

Public Participation

For submitting comments, please refer to the notice of proposed rulemaking on this subject published in the Proposed Rules section of this issue of the Federal Register.

Regulatory Flexibility Act

Because no notice of proposed rulemaking is required for temporary rules, the provisions of the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601 et seq.) do not apply.

Executive Order 12866

It has been determined that this temporary rule is not a significant regulatory action as defined in E.O. 12866. Therefore, a regulatory assessment is not necessary.

Paperwork Reduction Act

Under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, no persons are required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a valid Office of Management and Budget (OMB) control number. The collections of information contained in the regulations amended by this temporary rule have been previously reviewed and approved by OMB in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3504(h)) under control numbers 1513-0005, 1513-0088, 1513-0112, and 1513-0113. There is no new or revised collection of information imposed by this Treasury decision, and there is no change in the reporting or recordkeeping burden so no new control numbers are necessary and the previous control numbers will continue to be used.

Inapplicability of Prior Notice and Comment and Delayed Effective Date Procedures

It has been determined that prior notice and comment procedures are not required pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 553(b)(A), and a delayed effective date is not required pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 553(d)(2).

■ 2. Section 17.21 is amended by designating the existing text as paragraph (a), adding the heading “General.” to newly designated paragraph (a), removing the word “Each” at the beginning of the first sentence of newly designated paragraph (a) and adding, in its place, the words “Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (b) of this section, each”, and adding a new paragraph (b) to read as follows:

(b) Suspension of tax. During the period from July 1, 2005, through June 30, 2008, the rate of the tax described in paragraph (a) of this section is zero. Accordingly, payment of the tax is not a prerequisite for claiming drawback on spirits used during that period. However, the drawback claimant still must register by filing the special tax return on Form 5630.5 during the suspension period even though the amount of tax due is zero.

§ 17.22 [Amended]

■ 3. Section 17.22 is amended by adding at the end before the period the words “, except that the tax rate is zero during the suspension period described in § 17.21(b)”.

§ 17.23 [Amended]

■ 4. Section 17.23 is amended at the beginning by removing the word “A” and adding, in its place, the words “Subject to § 17.21(b), a”.

■ 5. Section 17.24 is amended by designating the existing text as paragraph (a), adding the heading “General.” to newly designated paragraph (a), and adding a new paragraph (b) to read as follows:

§ 17.24 Time for payment of special tax.

(b) Suspension of tax. The rate of special tax is zero during the period from July 1, 2005, through June 30, 2008 (see § 17.21(b)). During this period, the registration requirement continues. The drawback claimant must register by filing a special tax return, Form 5630.5. The claimant may register without penalty under 26 U.S.C. 5134(c) at any time prior to completion of final action on the first claim submitted for each tax year.

§ 17.31 [Amended]

■ 6. Section 17.31 is amended by adding at the end of the first sentence before the period the words “, and the filing of a return is required for registration purposes even though no tax is due during the suspension period described in § 17.21(b)”.

■ 7. Section 17.32 is amended by adding at the end of paragraph (a)(5) before the period the words “or to which the return relates during the suspension period described in § 17.21(b)” and revising paragraph (b) to read as follows:

§ 17.32 Completion of ATF Form 5630.5.

(b) Multiple locations. A taxpayer subject to special tax, or required to register during the suspension period described in § 17.21(b), for the same period at more than one location or for more than one class of tax shall—

(1) File one special tax return, Form 5630.5, with payment of applicable tax, to cover all such locations and classes of tax; and

(2) Prepare, in duplicate, a list identified with the taxpayer’s name, address (as shown on the Form 5630.5), employer identification number, and period covered by the return. The list shall show, by States, the name, address, and tax class of each location for which special tax is being paid, or for which registration is being made during the suspension period described in § 17.21(b). The original of the list shall be filed in accordance with instructions on the return, and the copy shall be retained at the taxpayer’s principal place of business (or principal office, in the case of a corporate taxpayer) for the period specified in § 17.170.

* * * * *

■ 8. Section 17.51 is amended:

■ a. By designating the existing text as paragraph (a);

■ b. In the first sentence of newly designated paragraph (a), by removing the word “Each” and adding, in its place, the words “Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (b) of this section, each”;

■ c. Also in the first sentence of newly designated paragraph (a), by adding after the words “payment in the” the word “applicable”; and

■ d. By adding a new paragraph (b) to read as follows:

§ 17.51 Issuance of stamps.

(b) During the suspension period described in § 17.21(b) when registration is required but no tax is due, a special tax stamp will not be issued.

■ 9. Section § 17.61 is revised to read as follows:

§ 17.61 General.

A manufacturer who, during a tax year for which a special tax return has been filed with payment of any tax due, moves its place of manufacture to a place other than that specified on the return, shall register the change, by executing a new return on Form 5630.5, designated as “Amended Return.” This Amended Return shall set forth the time of the move and the address of the new location. If a special tax stamp was issued for the former location, the taxpayer shall also submit the special tax stamp for endorsement of the change in location. In general, the taxpayer must submit the new return and the special tax stamp within 90 days after the move to the new premises. However, if the move occurs during the suspension period described in § 17.21(b) when no tax was due and no special tax stamp was issued, the taxpayer may submit the new return alone without penalty at any time prior to completion of final action on the first claim covering use of spirits at the new premises, or within 90 days of the move, whichever is later.

§ 17.62 [Amended]

■ 10. Section 17.62 is amended at the beginning by removing the word “A” and adding, in its place, the words “Except in the case of claims covering spirits used during the suspension period described in § 17.21(b) when the special tax rate is zero, a”.

■ 11. Section 17.71 is amended by designating the existing text as paragraph (a) and revising the first sentence of newly designated paragraph (a) and adding a new paragraph (b) to read as follows:

§ 17.71 General.

(a) Subject to paragraph (b) of this section, certain persons may qualify for succession to the same privileges granted by law to the taxpayer, to cover the remainder of the tax year for which the special tax was paid, or for which registration was made during the suspension period described in § 17.21(b). * * *

(b) With respect to spirits used during the suspension period described in § 17.21(b), the successor or successors must file the return prior to completion of final action on the claim(s) covering such spirits, or within 90 days of the change in control, whichever is later.

§ 17.73 [Amended]

■ 12. Section 17.73 is amended at the beginning by removing the word “A” and adding, in its place, the words “Except in the case of claims covering spirits used during the suspension period described in § 17.21(b) when the special tax rate is zero, a”.

■ 13. Section 17.75 is revised to read as follows:

§ 17.75 Formation of partnership or corporation.

If one or more persons who have filed a special tax return and paid any tax due form a partnership or corporation, as a separate legal entity, to take over the business of manufacturing nonbeverage products, the new firm or corporation shall file a new special tax return and pay a new special tax in order to be eligible to receive drawback. In the case of claims covering spirits used during the suspension period described in § 17.21(b), the rate of special tax is zero.

■ 14. Section 17.76 is revised to read as follows:

§ 17.76 Addition or withdrawal of partners.

(a) General partners. When a business formed as a partnership, subject to the filing of a special tax return, admits one or more new general partners, the new partnership shall file a new special tax return and pay a new special tax in order to be eligible to receive drawback (in the case of claims covering spirits used during the suspension period described in § 17.21(b), the rate of special tax is zero). Withdrawal of general partners is covered by § 17.72(d).

(b) Limited partners. Changes in the membership of a limited partnership requiring amendment of the certificate but not dissolution of the partnership are not changes that incur liability to additional special tax or that require the filing of a new special tax return.

■ 15. Section 17.77 is revised to read as follows:
