Applicants' Representations

1. AIG SunAmerica is a stock life insurance company originally organized under the laws of the state of California in April 1965. AIG SunAmerica (previously known as Anchor National Life Insurance Company), through a series of transactions, redomesticated under the laws of the state of Arizona on January 1, 1996. AIG SunAmerica is a wholly-owned subsidiary of SunAmerica Life Insurance Company, an Arizona corporation, which is, in turn, wholly-owned by AIG Retirement Services, a Delaware corporation, which is, in turn, wholly-owned by American International Group, Inc. AIG SunAmerica is authorized to write annuities and life insurance in the District of Columbia and all states except New York.

2. The Variable Separate Account of AIG SunAmerica (the "Separate Account") was established by AIG SunAmerica on June 25, 1981, in accordance with the laws of the state of California and is currently authorized under the laws of the state of Arizona. The Separate Account is registered as a unit investment trust under the 1940 Act. The Separate Account is used to fund the Contracts and other annuity contracts issued by AIG SunAmerica and is currently divided into a total of 160 subaccounts (the "Variable Accounts"). Each of the available Variable Accounts invests in and reflects the investment performance of specific portfolios in which the Variable Accounts invest. One of the Variable Accounts currently invests in the Replaced Portfolio (referred to hereafter as the "Variable Account").

3. The Contracts, PolarisAmerica and Polaris Choice, issued by AIG SunAmerica through its Separate Account, are fixed and variable flexible premium deferred non-participating variable annuity contracts that currently utilize the Replaced Portfolio as one of many underlying investments. AIG SunAmerica discontinued new allocations into the Replaced Portfolio under both Contracts as of the close of business on September 30, 2002, consistent with the Replaced Portfolio
