[Docket No. EC06-64-000]

Burney Forest Products, A Joint Venture, Woodgreen Power LLC, USPF II Burney, LP; Notice of Filing

January 20, 2006.

Take notice that on January 13, 2006, DCTC-Burney, Inc. (DCTC), a Delaware corporation and Woodgreen Power LLC, (Woodgreen) a Delaware limited liability company (collectively, Sellers) requesting for themselves and on behalf of Burney Forest Products, A Joint Venture, a California general partnership (BFP) and USPF II Burney, LP (Buyer), tendered for filing an application requesting all necessary authorizations under section 203 of the Federal Power Act, for an indirect transfer of jurisdictional facilities involving the sale by Sellers and the purchase by Buyer and purchase by Bankers Commercial Corporation of a passive, approximately twenty-five percent indirect interest in BFP.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211, 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a notice of intervention or motion to intervene, as appropriate. Such notices, motions, or protests must be filed on or before the comment date. On or before the comment date, it is not necessary to serve motions to intervene or protests on persons other than the Applicant.

The Commission encourages electronic submission of protests and interventions in lieu of paper using the "eFiling" link at <http://www.ferc.gov>. Persons unable to file electronically should submit an original and 14 copies of the protest or intervention to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426.

This filing is accessible on-line at <http://www.ferc.gov>, using the "eLibrary" link and is available for review in the Commission's Public Reference Room in Washington, DC. There is an "eSubscription" link on the Web site that enables subscribers to receive e-mail notification when a document is added to a subscribed docket(s). For assistance with any FERC Online service, please e-mail FERCOnlineSupport@ferc.gov, or call (866) 208-3676 (toll free). For TTY, call (202) 502-8659.

Dominion Transmission, Inc.; Notice of Application

January 19, 2006.

Take notice that on January 9, 2006, Dominion Transmission, Inc. (DTI), 120 Tredegar Street, Richmond, Virginia 23219, filed in Docket No. CP06-48-000 an application pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act and part 157 the Commission's Rules and Regulations for all the necessary authorizations required to abandon, transfer, and reclassify approximately 62 miles of low pressure, small diameter pipeline; various meters and appurtenant facilities located in West Virginia. DTI states that concurrently with the submission of this application, it is also submitting an application under section 4 of the NGA seeking approval for the rate treatment associated with the reclassified facilities, all as more fully set forth in the application which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection. This filing may be also viewed on the Web at <http://www.ferc.gov> using the "eLibrary" link. Enter the docket number excluding the last three digits in the docket number field to access the document. For assistance, call (866) 208-3676 or TTY, (202) 502-8659.

Questions regarding this application should be directed to Anne E. Bomar, Managing Director, Transmission Rates and Regulation, Dominion Resources, Inc., 120 Tredegar Street, Richmond, Virginia 23289, or call (804) 819-2134.

There are two ways to become involved in the Commission's review of this project. First, any person wishing to obtain legal status by becoming a party to the proceedings for this project should, before the comment date of this notice, file with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, a motion to intervene in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.214 or 385.211) and the Regulations under the NGA (18 CFR 157.10). A person obtaining party status will be placed on the service list maintained by the Secretary of the Commission and will receive copies of all documents filed by the applicant and by all other parties. A party must submit 14 copies of filings made with the Commission and must mail a copy to the applicant and to every other party in the proceeding. Only parties to the proceeding can ask for court review of Commission orders in the proceeding.

However, a person does not have to intervene in order to have comments considered. The second way to participate is by filing with the Secretary of the Commission, as soon as possible, an original and two copies of comments in support of or in opposition to this project. The Commission will consider these comments in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but the filing of a comment alone will not serve to make the filer a party to the proceeding. The Commission's rules require that persons filing comments in opposition to the project provide copies of their protests only to the party or parties directly involved in the protest.

Comments, protests and interventions may be filed electronically via the Internet in lieu of paper. See, 18 CFR 385.2001(a)(1)(iii) and the instructions on the Commission's Web site under the "e-Filing" link.

El Paso Marketing, L.P.; Notice of Filing

January 20, 2006.

Take notice that on January 17, 2006, El Paso Marketing, L.P. submitted an application under section 203 of the Federal Power Act seeking authorization to transfer certain power sales agreements to Morgan Stanley Capital Group, Inc. to become a co-applicant and agrees with the description of the Proposed Transaction.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211, 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a notice of intervention or motion to intervene, as appropriate. Such notices, motions, or protests must be filed on or before the comment date. On or before the comment date, it is not necessary to serve motions to intervene or protests on persons other than the Applicant.

The Commission encourages electronic submission of protests and interventions in lieu of paper using the "eFiling" link at <http://www.ferc.gov>. [Docket No. CP06-45-000]

Northwest Pipeline Corporation; Notice of Application

January 20, 2006.

Take notice that on January 4, 2006, Northwest Pipeline Corporation (Northwest), 295 Chipeta Way, Salt Lake City, Utah 84158, filed an abbreviated application, pursuant to section 7(c) of the Natural Gas Act (NGA) and Part 157 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing Northwest to construct and operate its "Parachute Lateral Project" to transport up to 450,000 Dth per day for Williams

Power Company, Inc. The Parachute Lateral Project will consist of: (1) Approximately 37.6 miles of 30-inch pipeline and appurtenant facilities in Garfield and Rio Blanco counties, Colorado, extending from Williams Production RMT Company Inc.'s (E&P) Parachute gas processing plant facilities to interconnects with Wyoming Interstate Company (WIC) and Colorado Interstate Gas Company (CIG), at the Greasewood Hub in Rio Blanco County, Colorado; and (2) the Starkey Gulch Receipt Meter Station, located at E&P's Parachute plant in Garfield County, Colorado, all as more fully set forth in the application which is on file with the Commission and open for public inspection. These filings are available for review at the Commission in the Public Reference Room or may be viewed on the Commission's Web site at <http://www.ferc.gov> using the "eLibrary" link. Enter the docket number excluding the last three digits in the docket number field to access the document. For assistance, please contact FERC Online Support at FERCOnlineSupport@ferc.gov or toll free at (866) 208-3676, or for TTY, contact (202) 502-8659.

Any questions regarding this application may be directed to Steven W. Snarr, General Counsel, Northwest Pipeline Corporation, P.O. Box 58900, Salt Lake City, Utah 84158-0900 at (801) 584-7094 or by fax at (801) 584-7862 or Gary K. Kotter, Manager, Certificates and Tariffs, Northwest Pipeline Corporation, P.O. Box 58900, Salt Lake City, Utah 84158-0900, at (801) 584-7117 or by fax at (801) 584-7764.

Northwest states that the proposed facilities will have a firm design capacity of 450,000 Dth per day and an estimated total cost of $55.1 million. In order to meet a November 2006 in-service, Northwest requests that the Commission issue a final certificate order by July 1, 2006.

There are two ways to become involved in the Commission's review of this project. First, any person wishing to obtain legal status by becoming a party to the proceedings for this project should, on or before the below listed comment date, file with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, a motion to intervene in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.214 or 385.211) and the Regulations under the NGA (18 CFR 157.10). A person obtaining party status will be placed on the service list maintained by the Secretary of the Commission and will receive copies of all documents filed by the applicant and by all other parties. A party must submit 14 copies of filings made with the Commission and must mail a copy to the applicant and to every other party in the proceeding. Only parties to the proceeding can ask for court review of Commission orders in the proceeding.

However, a person does not have to intervene in order to have comments considered. The second way to participate is by filing with the Secretary of the Commission, as soon as possible, an original and two copies of comments in support of or in opposition to this project. The Commission will consider these comments in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but the filing of a comment alone will not serve to make the filer a party to the proceeding. The Commission's rules require that persons filing comments in opposition to the project provide copies of their protests only to the party or parties directly involved in the protest.

Persons who wish to comment only on the environmental review of this project should submit an original and two copies of their comments to the Secretary of the Commission. Environmental commenters will be placed on the Commission's environmental mailing list, will receive copies of the environmental documents, and will be notified of meetings associated with the Commission's environmental review process. Environmental commenters will not be required to serve copies of filed documents on all other parties. However, the non-party commenters will not receive copies of all documents filed by other parties or issued by the Commission (except for the mailing of environmental documents issued by the Commission) and will not have the right to seek court review of the Commission's final order.

Motions to intervene, protests and comments may be filed electronically via the Internet in lieu of paper; see, 18 CFR 385.2001(a)(1)(iii) and the instructions on the Commission's Web site under the "e-Filing" link. The Commission strongly encourages electronic filings.
