Tennessee Gas Pipeline Company; Notice of Abbreviated Application for a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity for Authorization To Abandon Transportation Services

March 10, 2006.

Take notice that on March 6, 2006, Tennessee Gas Pipeline Company (Tennessee) filed an abbreviated application with the Commission for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7(b) of the Natural Gas Act and Part 157 the Commission's Rules and Regulations for authorization to abandon certain inactive certificated transportation services performed pursuant to Tennessee Rate Schedules T-123, T-129, T-144, T-145, T-167 and T-171 all as more fully set forth in the application on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a notice of intervention or motion to intervene, as appropriate. Such notices, motions, or protests must be filed on or before the date as indicated below. Anyone filing an intervention or protest must serve a copy of that document on the Applicant. Anyone filing an intervention or protest on or before the intervention or protest date need not serve motions to intervene or protests on persons other than the Applicant.

The Commission encourages electronic submission of protests and interventions in lieu of paper using the "eFiling" link at <http://www.ferc.gov>. Persons unable to file electronically should submit an original and 14 copies of the protest or intervention to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426.

This filing is accessible on-line at <http://www.ferc.gov>, using the "eLibrary" link and is available for review in the Commission's Public Reference Room in Washington, DC. There is an "eSubscription" link on the Web site that enables subscribers to receive e-mail notification when a document is added to a subscribed docket(s).
