Agere Systems, Inc.; Orlando, FL;
Amended Certification Regarding
Eligibility To Apply for Worker
Adjustment Assistance and Alternative
Trade Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on December 19, 2005, applicable to workers of Agere Systems, Inc., Orlando, Florida. The workers are engaged in employment related to the production of integrated circuits.

By letter dated March 2, 2006, the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, Local Union 2000, provided new information which indicated that the intention was to apply for all Trade Act benefits available at the time of the filing (November 3, 2005). Therefore, the Department has made a decision to investigate further to determine whether the subject workers are eligible to apply for Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance.

The investigation revealed that a significant number of workers of the subject firm are age 50 or over, workers have skills that are not easily transferable, and conditions in the industry are adverse.

Review of this information shows that all eligibility criteria under section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974 (26 U.S.C. 2813), as amended, have been met for workers at the subject firm.

Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to reflect its finding.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-58,369 is hereby issued as follows:

"All workers of Agere Systems, Inc., Orlando, Florida, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after November 3, 2004 through December 19, 2007, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, and are also eligible to apply for Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance under section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended."

Signed at Washington, DC, this 19th day of April 2006.

Broyhill Furniture Industries, Inc.,
Pacemaker Furniture Company;
Lenoir, NC; Amended Certification
Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and
Alternative Trade Adjustment
Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273), the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on December 22, 2004, applicable to workers of Broyhill Furniture Industries, Inc., Pacemaker Furniture Company, Lenoir, North Carolina. The workers are engaged in the production of case goods (wooden) furniture used in bedrooms, dining rooms and living rooms. The notice was published in the Federal Register on January 4, 2005 (70 FR 3391).

New information provided by the petitioners indicated that their intention was to apply for all available Trade Act benefits at the time of the filing. Therefore, the Department has made a decision to investigate further to determine if the workers are eligible to apply for Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance.

The investigation revealed that a significant number of workers of the subject firm are age 50 or over, workers have skills that are not easily transferable, and conditions in the industry are adverse.

Review of this information shows that all eligibility criteria under section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974 (26 U.S.C. 2813), as amended have been met for workers at the subject firm.

Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to reflect its finding.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-56,170 is hereby issued as follows:

"All workers of Broyhill Furniture Industries, Inc., Pacemaker Furniture Company, Lenoir, North Carolina, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after December 1, 2003, through December 22, 2006, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 and are also eligible to apply for Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance under section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974."

Signed at Washington, DC this 14th day of April 2006.

Campbell Hausfeld/Scott Fetzer
Company, Including Leased On-Site
Workers From Superior Staffing,
Leitchfield, KY; Certification Regarding
Eligibility To Apply for Worker
Adjustment Assistance and Negative
Determination Regarding Eligibility To
Apply for Alternative Trade Adjustment
Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273), as amended, the Department of Labor herein presents the results of its investigation regarding certification of eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance.

In order to make an affirmative determination and issue a certification of eligibility to apply for Trade Adjustment Assistance, the group eligibility requirements in either paragraph (a)(2)(A) or (a)(2)(B) of section 222 of the Trade Act must be met. It is determined in this case that the requirements of (a)(2)(B) of section 222 have been met.

The investigation was initiated on February 17, 2006 and filed on behalf of workers at Campbell Hausfeld/Scott Fetzer Company, Leitchfield, Kentucky. The workers produce air compressors.

The investigation revealed that the subject firm leased some on-site production workers from Superior Staffing. The investigation revealed that employment, sales, and production at the subject firm declined in 2005 compared with 2004 and also in January-February 2006 compared with the same period of 2005. Company imports of air compressors increased during the above periods.

In accordance with section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974 (26 U.S.C. 2813), as amended, the Department of Labor herein presents the results of its investigation regarding certification of eligibility to apply for alternative trade adjustment assistance (ATAA) for older workers.
