

2004 and 2005. The survey revealed that customer(s) increased import purchases while reducing purchases from the subject firm.

In accordance with section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974 (26 U.S.C. 2813), as amended, the Department of Labor herein presents the results of its investigation regarding certification of eligibility to apply for alternative trade adjustment assistance (ATAA) for older workers.

In order for the Department to issue a certification of eligibility to apply for ATAA, the group eligibility requirements of section 246 of the Trade Act must be met. The Department has determined in this case that the requirements of Section 246 have been met.

A significant number of workers at the firm are age 50 or over and possess skills that are not easily transferable. Competitive conditions within the industry are adverse.

Conclusion

After careful review of the facts obtained in the investigation, I determine that increased imports of cast aluminum wheels, like or directly competitive with those produced by Hayes Lemmerz International, Huntington, Indiana, contributed importantly to the total or partial separation of workers and to the decline in sales or production at that firm or subdivision. In accordance with the provisions of the Act, I make the following certification:

“All workers of Hayes Lemmerz International, Huntington, Indiana, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after February 17, 2005, through two years from the date of certification are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, and are also eligible to apply for alternative trade adjustment assistance under Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974.”

Signed in Washington, DC, this 16th day of March 2006.

Certifying Officer, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

Natick Paperboard Corporation, Paperboard Mill Division; Natick, MA; Notice of Revised Determination on Reconsideration

By application of April 1, 2006 United Steelworkers of America, Local 516, requested administrative reconsideration of the Department's negative determination regarding eligibility for workers and former workers of the subject firm to apply for Trade Adjustment Assistance (TAA) and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance (ATAA).

The initial investigation resulted in a negative determination signed on February 9, 2006 was based on the finding that imports of recycled paperboard for the book, binding and game industries did not contribute importantly to worker separations at the subject plant and no shift of production to a foreign source occurred. The denial notice was published in the Federal Register on March 2, 2006 (71 FR 10716).

In the request for reconsideration, the petitioner provided additional information regarding the subject firm's customers and requested an investigation relating to secondary impact concerning the subject firm as an upstream supplier to the book, binding and game industries. A review of the new facts determined that the workers of the subject firm may be eligible for TAA on the basis of a secondary upstream supplier impact.

The Department conducted an investigation of subject firm workers on the basis of secondary impact, it was revealed that Natick Paperboard Corporation, Paperboard Mill Division, Natick, Massachusetts supplied paperboard that was used in the production of board games and paper based office supply products, and a loss of business with domestic manufacturers (whose workers were certified eligible to apply for adjustment assistance) contributed importantly to the workers separation or threat of separation.

In accordance with section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974 (26 U.S.C. 2813), as amended, the Department of Labor herein presents the results of its investigation regarding certification of eligibility to apply for alternative trade adjustment assistance (ATAA) for older workers.

In order for the Department to issue a certification of eligibility to apply for ATAA, the group eligibility requirements of section 246 of the Trade Act must be met. The Department has determined in this case that the requirements of section 246 have been met.

A significant number of workers at the firm are age 50 or over and possess skills that are not easily transferable. Competitive conditions within the industry are adverse.

Conclusion

After careful review of the facts obtained in the investigation, I determine that workers of Natick Paperboard Corporation, Paperboard Mill Division, Natick, Massachusetts engaged in production of recycled paperboard qualify as adversely affected secondary workers under section 222 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended. In accordance with the provisions of the Act, I make the following certification:

All workers of Natick Paperboard Corporation, Paperboard Mill Division, Natick, Massachusetts, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after October 28, 2004, through two years from the date of this certification, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, and are eligible to apply for alternative trade adjustment assistance under section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 19th day of April, 2006.

Certifying Officer, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

Paris Accessories, Inc.; Walnutport, PA; Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended (19 U.S.C. 2273), the Department of Labor herein presents the results of an investigation regarding certification of eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance.

In order to make an affirmative determination and issue a certification of eligibility to apply for Trade Adjustment Assistance, the group eligibility requirements in either paragraph (a)(2)(A) or (a)(2)(B) of section 222 of the Trade Act must be met. It is determined in this case that the requirements of (a)(2)(B) of section 222 have been met.

The investigation was initiated on March 21, 2006 in response to a petition filed by a union official on behalf of workers at Paris Accessories, Inc., Walnutport, Pennsylvania. The workers were engaged in the production of knit dickies, knit hats, ski band and ski masks.

Employment at the subject plant has declined, and the subject firm has shifted the production of knit dickies, knit hats, ski band and ski masks to a country (Mexico) that is a party to a Free Trade Agreement and the Dominican Republic, a beneficiary country under the Caribbean Basin Economic Recovery Act with the United States.

Paris Accessories, Inc., Walnutport, Pennsylvania workers were previously certified (TA-W-54,465) for trade adjustment assistance. That certification expires on April 21, 2006.

In addition, in order for the Department to issue a certification of eligibility to apply for ATAA, the group eligibility requirements of Section 246 of the Trade Act must be met. The Department has determined in this case that the requirements of Section 246 have been met.

A significant number of workers at the firm are age 50 or over and possess skills that are not easily transferable. Competitive conditions within the industry are adverse.

Conclusion

After careful review of the facts obtained in the investigation, I conclude that there was a shift in production from the workers firm or subdivision to Mexico and Dominican Republic of articles that are like or directly competitive with those produced by the subject firm or subdivision. In accordance with the provisions of the Act, I make the following certification:

“All workers at Paris Accessories, Inc., Walnutport, Pennsylvania, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after April 22, 2006 through two years from the date of certification are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, and are also eligible to apply for alternative trade adjustment assistance under Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974.”

Signed in Washington, DC this 7th day of April, 2006.

Stone Apparel, a Subsidiary of Stone International, LLC; Industrias Orion S.A. DE C.V.; Columbia, SC; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273), and section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974 (26 U.S.C. 2813), as amended, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance on September 16, 2005, applicable to workers of Stone Apparel, a subsidiary of Stone International, LLC, Columbia, South Carolina. The notice was published in the Federal Register on October 31, 2005 (70 FR 62347).

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers finished and distributed men's and boy's underwear.

New information shows that in July 2005, Industrias Orion S.A. DE C.V. purchased the manufacturing operations of Stone Apparel, a subsidiary of Stone International, Columbia, South Carolina. Some workers separated from employment at the subject firm had their wages reported under the separate Unemployment Insurance (UI) tax account for Industrias Orion S.A. DE C.V., Columbia, South Carolina.

Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to properly reflect this matter.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Stone Apparel, a subsidiary of Stone International, LLC who were adversely affected by a shift in production to El Salvador.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-57,810 is hereby issued as follows:

“All workers of Stone Apparel, a subsidiary of Stone International, LLC, Industrias Orion S.A. DE C.V., Columbia, South Carolina, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after August 19, 2004, through September 16, 2007, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, and are also eligible to apply for alternative trade adjustment assistance under section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974.”

Signed at Washington, DC this 13th day of April 2006.
