Initiation of Changed Circumstances Reviews

Section 751(b)(1) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act), requires a changed circumstances review to be conducted upon receipt of a request containing information concerning changed circumstances sufficient to warrant a review. The Department has recognized that a corporate name change constitutes changed circumstances sufficient to warrant a review. See AD Changed Circumstances Preliminary Results.

In the context of changed circumstances reviews of an AD order based on a name change or a change in the company's ownership or structure, the Department relies on its "successor-in-interest" analysis to determine whether the successor remains essentially the same entity as the predecessor so that it is appropriate to impose the existing AD cash deposit rate of the predecessor on the successor. However, the successor-in-interest test for AD purposes may not fully address whether it is appropriate to apply the CVD cash deposit rate of a previously examined company to its claimed successor. As a result, the Department's preliminary results in the AD changed circumstances review that Hyundai is the successor-in-interest to INI may not be instructive with respect to the CVD order.

However, as noted above, the Department has recognized that INI's corporate name change to Hyundai constitutes changed circumstances sufficient to warrant a review. We also note that there is no concurrent administrative review of INI in which this name change could be examined. Therefore, in accordance with section 751(b) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.216 and 351.221, based on information concerning changed circumstances sufficient to warrant a review, as described above, we are initiating this changed circumstances administrative review of the CVD order.

Public Comment

Interested parties are invited to comment on the initiation of this changed circumstances review. Parties who submit argument in this proceeding are requested to submit with the argument (1) a statement of the issue, and (2) a brief summary of the argument. All written comments may be submitted by interested parties not later than 14 days after the date of publication of this notice in accordance with 19 CFR 351.303.

The Department will publish in the Federal Register a notice of preliminary results of changed circumstances review, in accordance with 19 CFR 351.221(c)(3), which will set forth the factual and legal conclusions upon which our preliminary results are based, and a description of any action proposed based on those results.

This notice is in accordance with section 751(b)(1) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.216 and 351.221.

Dated: June 15, 2006.
