SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Title: Interstate Telecommunications Service Provider Worksheet.

Form Number: FCC Form 159-W.

Type of Review: Extension of a currently approved collection.

Respondents: Business and other for-profit entities.

Number of Respondents: 3,400.

Estimated Time per Response: 0.5 hours (30 minutes).

Frequency of Response: On occasion and annual reporting requirements.

Total Annual Burden: 1,700 hours.

Total Annual Costs: None.

Privacy Impact Assessment: No impact(s).

Needs and Uses: Section 9 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, authorizes the FCC to assess and to collect regulatory fees to recover costs incurred in carrying out the Commission's enforcement actions, policies, rulemaking activities, and user information services.

Telecommunications licensees and permittees that provide interstate, international, mobile, and satellite services, including telephone operator services, must pay those fees, which are based upon a percentage of the licensee/permittee's interstate revenues. The FCC requires telecommunications licensees and permittees to file FCC Form 159-W to determine how much of each telecommunications carrier's interstate revenues are available to the carrier by extraction from another information collection, Telecommunications Reporting Worksheet, FCC Form 499-A (OMB Control Number 3060-0855). The FCC developed FCC Form 159-W to provide a convenient format for these telecommunications licensees and permittees to verify the information that is extracted from the interstate revenue information (which are already "populated" on this form) and to complete and/or verify the simple calculation of the fee amount that is due, correcting any inaccuracies as necessary. The FCC uses this information to determine if the telecommunications licensee or permittee has properly calculated the amount of its regulatory fee. The FCC is making minor revisions to FCC Form 159-W to provide a clearer format. Respondents may access FCC Form 159-W online through the FCC's Web page: <http://www.fcc.gov/frnreg>.
