SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Pursuant to the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. 552a, USDA is creating a new system of records, Enterprise Content Management (ECM) to be maintained by the Office of the Executive Secretariat. ECM is based upon a suite of document management applications that have been specifically designed for use by the employees and officers of USDA to manage documents associated with a wide range of administrative and business processes. At present, there are three components or modules that comprise ECM, the Enterprise Correspondence Management Module (ECMM), the General Use Module (GUM), and the Content Analysis Module (CAM). ECMM is designed and operated to support effective management of executive correspondence and other external and internal documents with similar internal business processes. GUM is designed to support effective management of internal business documents. CAM is designed to assist in the analysis and management of public and internal comments related to USDA programs and received in response to requests for such comments.

ECMM does include information regarding individuals, primarily information such as the name and address incident to their correspondence addressed to the Secretary of Agriculture and various other officers and employees of USDA. In a few cases, it includes supplementary information about the individual, most often voluntarily provided by that individual. The purpose of ECMM is to help USDA employees manage correspondence and other documents at any organizational level from initial receipt through completion and archival storage. Department officials are included in the correspondence drafting and policy making process through a managed clearance and control system. The system's workflow capabilities enable documents to be routed within or
