

1. Because the Trusts do not limit their investments to "eligible trust securities," the Trusts do not qualify for the exemption in paragraph (c) of rule 19b-1. Therefore, applicants request an exemption under section 6(c) from section 19(b) and rule 19b-1 to the extent necessary to permit capital gains earned in connection with the sale of portfolio securities to be distributed to Unitholders along with the Series' regular distributions. In all other respects, applicants will comply with section 19(b) and rule 19b-1.

2. Applicants state that their proposal meets the standards of section 6(c). Applicants assert that any sale of portfolio securities would be triggered by the need to meet Series' expenses, Installment Payments or by requests to redeem Units, events over which the Sponsor and the Series have no control. Applicants further state that, because principal distributions must be clearly indicated in accompanying reports to Unitholders as a return of principal and will be relatively small in comparison to normal dividend distributions, there is little danger of confusion from failure to differentiate among distributions.

Applicants' Conditions

Applicants agree that any order granting the requested relief will be subject to the following conditions:

A. DSC and Waiver of DSC Under Certain Circumstances

1. Each Series offering Units subject to a DSC will include in its prospectus the disclosure required in Form N-1A relating to deferred sales charges, modified as appropriate to reflect the differences between UITs and open-end management investment companies, and a schedule setting forth the number and date of each installment payment.

2. Any DSC imposed on Units issued by a Series will comply with the requirements of subparagraphs (1), (2) and (3) of rule 6c-10(a) under the Act.

B. Exchange Privilege, Conversion Offer and Rollover Privilege

1. The prospectus of each Series offering exchanges, rollovers, or conversions and any sales literature or advertising that mentions the existence of the Exchange Privilege, Conversion Offer or Rollover Privilege will disclose that the Exchange Privilege, Conversion Offer or Rollover Privilege is subject to modification, termination or suspension without notice, except in limited cases.

2. Whenever the Exchange Privilege, Conversion Offer or Rollover Privilege is to be terminated or its terms are to be amended materially, any holder of a security subject to that privilege will be given prominent notice of the impending termination or amendment at least 60 days prior to the date of termination or the effective date of the amendment, provided that: (a) No such notice need be given if the only material effect of an amendment is to reduce or eliminate the sales charge payable at the time of an exchange, to make one or more New Series eligible for the Exchange Privilege, Conversion Offer or Rollover Privilege, or to delete a Series which has terminated; and (b) no notice need be given if, under extraordinary circumstances, either (i) there is a suspension of the redemption of Units of the Series under section 22(e) of the Act and the rules and regulations promulgated under that section, or (ii) a Series temporarily delays or ceases the sale of its Units because it is unable to invest amounts effectively in accordance with applicable investment objectives, policies, and restrictions.

3. An investor who purchases Units under the Exchange Privilege, Conversion Offer or Rollover Privilege will pay a lower sales charge than that which would be paid for the Units by a new investor.

C. Net Worth Requirement

Applicants will comply in all respects with the requirements of rule 14a-3, except that the Series will not restrict their portfolio investments to "eligible trust securities."

D. Purchase and Sale Transactions Between a Terminating Series and a New Series

1. Each sale of Qualified Securities by a Terminating Series to a New Series will be effected at the closing price of the securities sold on a Qualified Exchange on the sale date, without any brokerage charges or other remuneration except customary transfer fees, if any.

2. The nature and conditions of such transactions will be fully disclosed to investors in the appropriate prospectus of each Terminating Series and New Series.

3. The Trustee of each Terminating Series and New Series will review the procedures discussed in the application relating to the sale of securities from a Terminating Series and the purchase of those securities for deposit in a New Series, and make such changes to the procedures as the Trustee deems necessary to ensure compliance with paragraphs (a) through (d) of rule 17a-7.

4. A written copy of these procedures and a written record of each transaction pursuant to this order will be maintained as provided in rule 17a-7(g).

Secretary.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 500-1]

In the Matter of Digital Gas, Inc.; Order of Suspension of Trading

November 17, 2006.

It appears to the Securities and Exchange Commission that there is a lack of current and accurate information concerning the securities of Digital Gas, Inc. ("Digital"), because of questions raised regarding the accuracy and adequacy of publicly disseminated information concerning, among other things, Digital's announced agreement with Techno Rubber, Inc. and Digital's assets.

The Commission is of the opinion that the public interest and the protection of investors require a suspension of trading in the securities of the above-listed company.

Therefore, it is ordered, pursuant to Section 12(k) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, that trading in the above-listed company is suspended for the period from 9:30 a.m. EST, November 17, 2006, through 11:59 p.m. EST, on December 4, 2006.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

Self-Regulatory Organizations; Chicago Board Options Exchange, Incorporated; Notice of Filing and Order Granting Accelerated Approval to a Proposed Rule Change Regarding Quarterly Options Series

November 16, 2006.

Pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Act"),¹ and Rule 19b-4 thereunder,² notice is hereby given that on November 8, 2006, the Chicago Board Options

² 17 CFR 240.19b-4.

Exchange, Incorporated (“CBOE” or “Exchange”), filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”) the proposed rule change as described in Items I and II below, which Items have been prepared by the Exchange. The Commission is publishing this notice and order to solicit comments on the proposed rule change from interested persons and to grant accelerated approval to the proposed rule change.

I. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement of the Terms of Substance of the Proposed Rule Change

CBOE proposes to amend its rules regarding the opening of Quarterly Options Series to limit the number of strike prices that the Exchange may open for Quarterly Options Series and make minor clarifications. The text of the proposed rule change is available on the Exchange’s Web site (<http://www.cboe.com>), at the Exchange’s Office of the Secretary, and at the Commission’s Public Reference Room.

II. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, the Exchange included statements concerning the purpose of and basis for the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. The Exchange has prepared summaries, set forth in sections A, B, and C below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

On July 11, 2006, the SEC approved CBOE’s proposal to add language to CBOE Rule 24.9 that would permit the listing and trading of Quarterly Options Series based on an underlying index.³ That language did not include a limit on the number of strike prices that may be opened for a Quarterly Options Series. In the instant filing, Exchange proposes to add such a limit.

The purpose of the proposed rule change is to amend CBOE Rule 24.9 (“Terms of Index Option Contracts”) to (1) Limit the number of strike prices that the Exchange may open for Quarterly

Options Series to five strike prices above or below the value of the underlying index, (2) clarify that the Exchange may open for trading additional Quarterly Options Series of the same class when the Exchange deems such action necessary to maintain an orderly market or meet customer demand, and (3) clarify that the opening of any new Quarterly Options Series will not affect the previously opened series of options of the same class.

1. Statutory Basis

CBOE believes the proposed rule change is consistent with the Act and the rules and regulations under the Act applicable to a national securities exchange and, in particular, the requirements of Section 6(b) of the Act.⁴ Specifically, the Exchange believes the proposed rule change is consistent with the Section 6(b)(5)⁵ requirements that the rules of an exchange be designed to promote just and equitable principles of trade, to remove impediments to and perfect the mechanism of a free and open market and a national market system, and to protect investors and the public interest.

B. Statement of Burden on Competition

CBOE does not believe that the proposed rule change will impose any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

C. Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants, or Others

The Exchange neither solicited nor received comments on the proposal.

III. Commission Findings and Order Granting Accelerated Approval of Proposed Rule Change

The Commission finds that the proposed rule change is consistent with the requirements of the Act and the rules and regulations thereunder applicable to a national securities exchange.⁶ In particular, the Commission believes that the proposed rule change is consistent with the requirements of Section 6(b)(5) of the Act,⁷ which requires, among other things, that the rules of the Exchange be designed to promote just and equitable principles of trade, to remove impediments to and perfect the mechanism of a free and open market and a national market system, and, in general, to protect investors and the public interest.

Currently, under CBOE Rule 24.9, at the time the Exchange initially lists strike prices for a QOS, the Exchange may list strike prices that are within $5 from the closing price of the underlying index on the preceding trading day. The Exchange may open for trading additional strike prices if the current market price of the underlying index moves substantially from the exercise prices of those QOS that already have been opened for trading on the Exchange. The exercise price of each such additional QOS is required to be reasonably related to the current index value of the underlying index at or about the time such additional series is opened for trading on the Exchange. The CBOE rules define the term “reasonably related to the current index value of the underlying index” to mean that the exercise price is within thirty percent of the current index value.

However, despite this “reasonably related” requirement, the current language of CBOE Rule 24.9 also permits the Exchange to open for trading additional strike prices that are more than thirty percent away from the current index value, “provided that demonstrated customer interest exists for such series, as expressed by institutional, corporate, or individual customers or their brokers.”⁸ Thus, as currently in effect, CBOE Rule 24.9 effectively does not limit the number of additional strike prices that may be opened for a QOS based on an underlying index.

In this filing, the Exchange proposes to eliminate the requirement that strike prices at the time of initial listing must be within $5 from the closing price of the underlying security on the preceding trading day. Instead, the proposal would limit the Exchange to listing no more than five strike prices above and five strike prices below the value of the underlying index at about the time the QOS is opened for trading on the Exchange.

In addition, the proposal would restrict the additional strike prices that may be opened on a QOS. The proposal would permit the Exchange to open additional strike prices that are above (or below) the value of the underlying index, provided that the total number of strike prices above (or below) the value of the underlying index is no greater than five. For example, assume that when a particular QOS was initially listed, the Exchange opened the maximum number of strike prices permitted by the rule: five above and five below the value of the underlying index at that time. If the index value subsequently increased such that only two strike prices were above the value of the underlying index, the Exchange would be permitted to open up to three additional strike prices above the value of the index. (In this example, the Exchange would not be permitted to open any additional strike prices below the value of the underlying index because it may only add strike prices provided that the total number of open strike prices on that side of the underlying index value remains five or fewer.) The provisions of CBOE Rule 24.9 requiring that the exercise price of additional series must be "reasonably related" to the value of the underlying index, unless "demonstrated customer interest" exists for a series with an exercise price more than 30% away from the current index value, would remain in place, but would be limited by the five above/five below restriction.

Although the proposal is more permissive in the range of strike prices that may be opened at the time of initial listing, the proposal to limit additional strike prices renders CBOE Rule 24.9(a)(2) more restrictive overall in the number of strike prices that may be opened on the Exchange. Therefore, the Commission believes the proposal should not raise any capacity or regulatory concerns not already discussed in the order approving the QOS pilot program.⁹ For these reasons, the Commission believes that the proposed rule change is consistent with the Act.

The Exchange has requested that the Commission approve the proposed rule change prior to the thirtieth day after publication of notice of the filing in the Federal Register. The Commission believes that accelerated approval is appropriate because the proposal adds a restriction on the number of strike prices that may be opened on the Exchange, thus lessening the impact of the QOS on the limited quote traffic capacity of the Exchange and the Options Price Reporting Authority, while still permitting the Exchange to list an appropriate range of strike prices in order to respond to market conditions and customer demand. Accordingly, the Commission finds good cause, consistent with Section 19(b)(2) of the Act,¹⁰ to approve the proposed rule change prior to the thirtieth day after publication of the notice of filing thereof in the Federal Register.

Self-Regulatory Organizations; Chicago Board Options Exchange, Incorporated; Notice of Filing and Immediate Effectiveness of Proposed Rule Change Relating to the Definition of Quarterly Index Expiration or QIX

November 16, 2006.

Pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Act")¹ and Rule 19b-4 thereunder,² notice is hereby given that on October 20, 2006, the Chicago Board Options Exchange, Incorporated ("Exchange" or "CBOE") filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission") the proposed rule change as described in Items I and II below, which Items have been prepared by the Exchange. The Exchange has designated this proposal as non-controversial under Section 19(b)(3)(A)(iii) of the Act³ and Rule 19b-4(f)(6) thereunder,⁴ which renders the proposed rule change effective upon filing with the Commission. The Commission is publishing this notice to solicit comments on the proposed rule change from interested persons.
