DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR
Office of the Secretary

Privacy Act of 1974, As Amended; Amendment of an Existing System of Records

AGENCY: Office of the Secretary, Interior.

ACTION: Proposed amendment of an existing system of records.

SUMMARY: The Office of the Secretary, Department of the Interior (DOI), is issuing public notice of its intent to amend an existing Privacy Act system of records entitled, OHA–01, “Hearings and Appeals Files.” Changes include updating information under the following headings: System location; Categories of records in the system; Routine uses of records maintained in the system; and Policies and practices for storing, retrieving, accessing, retaining, and disposing of records in the system. Changes also include the renumbering of the system as OS–09, “Hearings and Appeals Files.”

EFFECTIVE DATE: Under 5 U.S.C. 552a(e)(11), the public is provided a 30-day period in which to comment on the agency’s intended use of the information in the system of records. The Office of Management and Budget (OMB), in its Circular A–130, requires an additional 10-day period in which to make comments. Any persons interested in commenting on this proposed amendment may do so by submitting comments in writing to the Privacy Act Officer, Office of the Secretary, 1849 C St., NW., MS 1413 MB, Washington, DC 20240. Comments received within 40 days of publication in the Federal Register will be considered.

CATEGORIES OF INDIVIDUALS COVERED BY THE SYSTEM:

Individuals involved or otherwise identified in hearings and appeals proceedings before the Office of the Director, Appeals Boards, and Hearings Divisions of the Office of Hearings and Appeals (OHA).

CATEGORIES OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

Information assembled in case files and docket systems pertaining to the following categories of hearings and appeals proceedings. Types of records vary from category to category and case to case, but may include correspondence; pleadings and briefs submitted by the parties; administrative record materials, other documentary evidence, and transcripts of testimony; notices, orders, and decisions issued by administrative law judges, administrative judges, and other deciding officials; names and addresses of parties; and associated docket cards and docket system data entries. During the active consideration of a case, records may also include deliberative process materials such as a judge’s notes, draft orders or decisions, and comments on such drafts from other judges or staff.

Primary categories of hearings and appeals proceedings covered by OS–09:
(1) Contract disputes arising out of decisions (and failures to decide) by contracting officers considered and decided by the Interior Board of Contract Appeals.
(2) Indian probate matters, including determination of heirs, approval of wills, and proceedings relating to tribal acquisition of certain interests of decedents in trust and restricted lands, considered and decided by the Probate Hearings Division; and appeals in such matters considered and decided by the Interior Board of Indian Appeals.
(3) Heirship determinations under the White Earth Reservation Land Settlement Act of 1985 considered and decided by the WELSA Hearings Division; and appeals in such matters considered and decided by the Interior Board of Indian Appeals.
(4) Appeals pertaining to administrative actions of the Bureau of Indian Affairs considered and decided by the Interior Board of Indian Appeals.
(5) Contest proceedings and other hearings relating to the use and disposition of public lands and their resources, including land selections arising under the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act, considered and decided by the Departmental Cases Hearings Division; appeals in such matters considered and decided by the Interior Board of Land Appeals; and appeals...
