

to the proceeding. The Commission's rules require that persons filing comments in opposition to the project provide copies of their protests only to the party or parties directly involved in the protest.

Persons who wish to comment only on the environmental review of this project should submit an original and two copies of their comments to the Secretary of the Commission. Environmental commenters will be placed on the Commission's environmental mailing list, will receive copies of the environmental documents, and will be notified of meetings associated with the Commission's environmental review process. Environmental commenters will not be required to serve copies of filed documents on all other parties. However, the non-party commenters will not receive copies of all documents filed by other parties or issued by the Commission (except for the mailing of environmental documents issued by the Commission) and will not have the right to seek court review of the Commission's final order.

The Commission strongly encourages electronic filings of comments, protests and interventions via the Internet in lieu of paper. See, 18 CFR 385.2001(a)(1)(iii) and the instructions on the Commission's Web site (<http://www.ferc.gov>) under the "e-Filing" link.

Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation; Notice of Revised Annual Cash-Out Reports

December 28, 2006.

Take notice that on December 21, 2006, Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation (Transco) tendered for filing revised cash-out reports for the annual periods ended July 31, 2001, 2002, 2003, 2004 and 2005. As explained in the filing, Transco requests that the Commission issue an order that accepts and approves the revised cash-out reports and authorizes Transco to make the appropriate refunds and surcharges to each shipper, as necessary.

Transco states that copies of the filing are being mailed to parties on the official service list in Docket Nos. CP88-391 and RP93-162 and interested state commissions.

Any person desiring to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rule 211 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211). Protests to this filing will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Such protests must be filed on or before the date as indicated below. Anyone filing a protest must serve a copy of that document on all the parties to the proceeding.

The Commission encourages electronic submission of protests in lieu of paper using the "eFiling" link at <http://www.ferc.gov>. Persons unable to file electronically should submit an original and 14 copies of the protest to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426.

This filing is accessible online at <http://www.ferc.gov>, using the "eLibrary" link and is available for review in the Commission's Public Reference Room in Washington, DC. [Docket No. PR07-6-000]

Worsham-Steed Gas Storage, L.P.; Notice of Petition for Rate Approval

December 28, 2006.

Take notice that on December 14, 2006, Worsham-Steed Gas Storage, L.P. (Worsham-Steed), an intrastate natural-gas storage company, filed a petition for rate approval of market-based rates for storage services pursuant to section 284.123 of the Commission's regulations. Worsham-Steed is requesting that the Commission approve market-based rates for its storage services, including storage-related hub services, pursuant to section 311 of the Natural Gas Policy Act of 1978.

Worsham-Steed states that it does not have market power in any relevant product or geographic market for storage services and has submitted a market power study with its petition, which supports the conclusion that Worsham-Steed lacks market power.

Any person desiring to participate in this rate proceeding must file a motion to intervene or to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a notice of intervention or motion to intervene, as appropriate. Such notices, motions, or protests must be filed on or before the date as indicated below. Anyone filing an intervention or protest must serve a copy of that document on the Applicant. Anyone filing an intervention or protest on or before the intervention or protest date need not serve motions to intervene or protests on persons other than the Applicant.

The Commission encourages electronic submission of protests and interventions in lieu of paper using the "eFiling" link at <http://www.ferc.gov>. Persons unable to file electronically should submit an original and 14 copies of the protest or intervention to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426.
