BILLING CODE 4710-06-P

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

28 CFR Parts 0, 5, 12, 17, 65, and 73

[Docket No. NSD 100; AG Order No. 2865-2007]

Office of the Attorney General; National Security Division

AGENCY: Department of Justice.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This rule amends part 0 of title 28 of the Code of Federal Regulations to reflect the establishment of the National Security Division at the Department of Justice. The National Security Division was created by section 506 of the USA PATRIOT Improvement and Reauthorization Act of 2005 (“the Act”). This rule, which sets forth the Division’s organization, mission and functions, amends the Code of Federal Regulations in order to conform the Department’s regulations to the Act and to reflect accurately the Department’s internal management structure.

This rule also amends the Department’s regulations in title 28 other than in part 0 to make nomenclature and organizational changes reflecting the establishment of the National Security Division.

DATES: Effective Date: March 7, 2007.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Jessie Liu, National Security Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20530; Telephone (202) 514-1057.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On March 9, 2006, the President signed the USA PATRIOT Improvement and Reauthorization Act of 2005 (“the Act”), Public Law 109-277 (120 Stat. 192). Section 506 of the Act created a new National Security Division (NSD) in the Department of Justice. This rule conforms the Department’s regulations to the Act and sets forth the new Division’s organization, mission, and functions.

This rule reflects the establishment of the NSD, reporting to the Deputy Attorney General, by consolidating the resources of the Office of Intelligence Policy and Review (OIPR) and the Criminal Division’s Counterterrorism and Counterespionage Sections. These organizational changes will strengthen the Department’s efforts to combat terrorism and other threats to national security.

Consolidating OIPR and the Criminal Division’s Counterterrorism and Counterespionage Sections under the NSD will ensure greater coordination and unity of purpose among the Department’s primary organizational units that handle core national security matters. These changes will allow the Department to maximize the effectiveness of prosecutors handling cases in the core national security fields of counterterrorism and counterespionage, who will continue to carry out the same critical functions they handle today. The NSD will be positioned to coordinate all related Department resources and ensure that critical information is shared as appropriate across the Department and the Executive Branch.

The mission of the NSD is to coordinate the Department’s efforts in carrying out its core mission of combating terrorism and protecting national security. Among the major functions the NSD will perform are the following:

- Develop, enforce, and supervise the application of all federal criminal laws related to the national counterterrorism and counterespionage enforcement programs, except those specifically assigned to other Divisions;
- Prosecute and coordinate a wide range of criminal prosecutions and investigations targeting individuals and organizations involving terrorist acts at home or against U.S. persons or interests abroad or that assist in the financing of or providing support to those acts;
- Administer the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act;
- Supervise sensitive areas of law enforcement related to the activities of the National Security Division, except tasks assigned to other Divisions;

- Advise, assist, coordinate with, and train those in the law enforcement community, including federal, state, and local prosecutors, investigative agencies and foreign criminal justice entities (provided that any training of foreign criminal justice entities should be conducted in coordination with the Criminal Division), in matters related to the Division’s activities;

- Advise the Attorney General, the Office of Management and Budget, and the White House on matters relating to the national security activities of the United States; and

- Through the Assistant Attorney General for National Security, serve as the Department of Justice’s primary liaison to the Director of National Intelligence.

This rule also makes further amendments to the Department’s regulations in title 28 other than in part 0 in order to make nomenclature and organizational changes reflecting the establishment of the NSD. Generally, the changes involve either adding the NSD to the list of the Department’s components or substituting the NSD in place of either the Criminal Division or the Office of Intelligence Policy and Review. In some instances, the Assistant Attorney General for National Security is substituted for the Assistant Attorney General, Criminal Division or for the Counsel for Intelligence Policy, as appropriate.

This rule only makes changes to the Department’s internal organization and structure and does not affect the rights or obligations of the general public.

Administrative Procedure Act—5 U.S.C. 553

This rule is a rule of agency organization and relates to a matter relating to agency management and is therefore exempt from the requirements of prior notice and comment and a 30-day delay in the effective date. See 5 U.S.C. 553(a)(2), 553(b)(3)(A).

Regulatory Flexibility Act

The Attorney General, in accordance with the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 605(b)), has reviewed this regulation and by approving it certifies that this regulation will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities because it pertains to personnel and administrative matters affecting the Department. Further, a Regulatory Flexibility Analysis was not required to be prepared for this final rule because the Department was not required to publish a general notice of proposed rulemaking for this matter.

Executive Order 12866—Regulatory Planning and Review

This action has been drafted and reviewed in accordance with Executive Order 12866, Regulatory Planning and Review, section 1(b), Principles of Regulation. This rule is limited to agency organization, management, and personnel as described by section 3(d)(3) of that order and, therefore, is not a “regulation” or “rule” as defined by the order. Accordingly, this action has not been reviewed by the Office of Management and Budget.

Executive Order 13132—Federalism

This regulation will not have substantial direct effects on the States, on the relationship between the national government and the States, or on distribution of power and responsibilities among the various levels of government. Therefore, in accordance with Executive Order 12612, it is determined that this rule does not have sufficient federalism implications to warrant the preparation of a Federalism Assessment.

Executive Order 12988—Civil Justice Reform

This regulation meets the applicable standards set forth in sections 3(a) and 3(b)(2) of Executive Order 12988.

Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995

This rule will not result in the expenditure by State, local and tribal governments, in the aggregate, or by the private sector of $100,000,000 or more in any one year, and it will not significantly or uniquely affect small governments. Therefore, no actions were deemed necessary under the provisions of the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995.

Congressional Review Act

This action pertains to agency management, personnel, and organizations and does not substantially affect the rights or obligations of non-agency parties and, accordingly, is not a “rule” as that term is used by the Congressional Review Act (Subtitle E of the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act of 1996 (SBREFA)). Therefore, the reporting requirement of 5 U.S.C. 801 does not apply.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

A. Qualified Domestic Relations Order Provisions

Section 206(d)(3) of title I of ERISA, and the related provisions of section 414(p) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (Code), establish a limited exception to the prohibitions against assignment and alienation contained in ERISA section 206(d)(1) and Code section 401(a)(13).¹ Under this limited

¹The QDRO provisions were added to ERISA and the Code by the Retirement Equity Act of 1984 (REA), Public Law 96-397, 96 Stat. 1438 (1984). Except where no corresponding provision exists, all references to paragraphs of ERISA section 206(d)(3) should be read to refer to corresponding provisions of Code section 414(p). The Secretary of Labor has authority to interpret the QDRO provisions, section 206(d)(3), and its parallel provision at section 414(p) of the Code, and to issue QDRO regulations in consultation with the Secretary of the Treasury. 29 U.S.C. 1056(d)(3)(N). The Secretary of the Treasury has authority to issue rules and exception, a participant’s benefits under a pension plan may be assigned to an alternate payee, defined as the participant’s spouse, former spouse, child, or other dependent, pursuant to an order that constitutes a qualified domestic relations order (QDRO) within the meaning of those provisions. Such QDROs, in addition, survive the federal preemption of State law imposed by ERISA section 514(a) by virtue of ERISA section 514(b)(7).

Pursuant to the QDRO provisions, a plan administrator must determine, in accordance with specified procedures, whether an order purporting to divide a participant’s benefits under a plan meets the applicable requirements set forth in section 206(d)(3) of ERISA. If the plan administrator determines that the order meets these requirements and is, accordingly, a QDRO within the meaning of section 206(d)(3), the plan administrator must distribute the assigned portion of the participant’s benefits to the alternate payee or payees named in the order in accordance with the terms of the order.

Subparagraphs (G) and (H) of ERISA section 206(d)(3) set forth provisions relating to the procedures that a plan must establish, and a plan administrator must observe, in determining whether an order is a QDRO and in administering the plan and the participant’s benefits during the period in which the plan administrator is making such a determination. The plan’s procedures must be reasonable, must be in writing, must require prompt notification and disclosure of the procedures to participants and alternate payees upon receipt of an order, and must permit alternate payees to designate representatives for notice purposes. In addition, the plan administrator must complete the determination process and notify participants and alternate payees of its determination within a reasonable period after receipt of the order.

Subparagraph (H) of section 206(d)(3) provides specific procedural protection of a potential alternate payee’s interest in a participant’s benefits during the plan’s determination process and for a period of up to 18 months (the 18-month period) during which the issue of the qualified status of a domestic relations order is being determined—whether by the plan administrator, by a court of competent jurisdiction, or regulations necessary to coordinate the requirements of section 414(p) (and the regulations issued by the Secretary of Labor thereunder) with the other provisions of Chapter I of Subtitle A of the Code. 26 U.S.C. 401(n). The Secretary of the Treasury has been consulted on this interim final rule.
