

is less. Pursuant to recent modifications to the rule governing default payments, the percentage of the applicable bid to be assessed as an additional payment for defaults in a particular auction is established in advance of the auction. Accordingly, in the Auction No. 72 Comment Public Notice, the Bureau proposed to set the additional default payment for the auction of Phase II 220 MHz Service licenses at ten percent of the applicable bid. The Bureau sought comment on its proposal and no comments were received on this issue. The Bureau therefore adopts its proposal and sets the additional default payment for the auction of Phase II 220 MHz spectrum licenses at ten percent of the applicable bid.

179. Finally, the Bureau notes that in the event of a default, the Commission may re-auction the license or offer it to the next highest bidder (in descending order) at its final bid amount. In addition, if a default or disqualification involves gross misconduct, misrepresentation, or bad faith by an applicant, the Commission may declare the applicant and its principals ineligible to bid in future auctions, and may take any other action that it deems necessary, including institution of proceedings to revoke any existing licenses held by the applicant.

G. Refund of Remaining Upfront Payment Balance

180. All applicants that submit upfront payments but after the close of the auction are not winning bidders for a license in Auction No. 72 may be entitled to a refund of their remaining upfront payment balance after the conclusion of the auction. All refunds will be returned to the payer of record, as identified on the FCC Form 159, unless the payer submits written authorization instructing otherwise.

181. Bidders that drop out of the auction completely may be eligible for a refund of their upfront payments before the close of the auction.

182. Following the close of the auction, the Commission may refund upfront monies on deposit that exceed the required total payments owned by the winning bidders. Such refunds will be made to the payer of record as identified on the FCC Form 159, provided the necessary refund request and wire transfer instructions have been received.
