C.A. Lawton Company, Machinery
Division; De Pere, WI; Dismissal of Application for Reconsideration

Pursuant to 29 CFR 90.18(C) an application for administrative reconsideration was filed with the Director of the Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance for workers at C.A. Lawton Company, Machinery Division, De Pere, Wisconsin. The application did not contain new information supporting a conclusion that the determination was erroneous, and also did not provide a justification for reconsideration of the determination that was based on either mistaken facts or a misinterpretation of facts or of the law. Therefore, dismissal of the application was issued.

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273), and Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974 (26 U.S.C. 2813), as amended, the Department of Labor issued a Certification Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and a Negative Determination Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance on September 28, 2005, applicable to workers of Sara Lee Branded Apparel, Division Office, Winston-Salem, North Carolina. The notice was published in the Federal Register on October 31, 2005 (70 FR 62347).

At the request of a company official, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers at the Division Office, Winston-Salem, North Carolina location were engaged in activities related to the production of underwear (shorts and T-shirts). New information shows that Sara Lee Branded Apparel was formerly known as National Textiles and is currently known as Hanesbrands, Inc.
