

welcome to observe the business of the meeting of HTAC and to make oral statements during the specified period for public comment. The public comment period will take place between 11 a.m. and 12 noon on May 17, 2007. To attend the meeting and/or to make oral statements regarding any of the items on the agenda, e-mail HTAC.Committee@ee.doe.gov at least 5 business days before the meeting. (Please indicate if you will be attending the meeting both days or just one day). Members of the public will be heard in the order in which they sign up for the Public Comment Period. Oral comments should be limited to two minutes in length. Reasonable provision will be made to include the scheduled oral statements on the agenda. The Chair of the Committee will make every effort to hear the views of all interested parties and to facilitate the orderly conduct of business. If you would like to file a written statement with the Committee, you may do so either before or after the meeting (electronic and hard copy). This notice is being published less than 15 days before the date of the meeting due to programmatic issues.

Minutes: The minutes of the meeting will be available for public review at hydrogen.energy.gov.

Issued at Washington, DC, on April 30, 2007.

Carol Matthews,

Acting Advisory Committee Management Officer.

Avista Energy, Inc.; Notice of Abbreviated Application for a Limited Jurisdiction Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity

April 26, 2007.

On April 19, 2007, Avista Energy, Inc. (Avista Energy) filed an abbreviated application pursuant to section 7(c) of the Natural Gas Act (NGA), and part 157 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations, requesting a limited jurisdiction certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the temporary assignment of rights to use expansion capacity at the Jackson Prairie Storage Project to Coral Energy Resources, L.P., as part of a Purchase and Sale Agreement that will result in the sale of substantially all of Avista Energy's operating assets to Coral Energy Resources, L.P., and its affiliates. Avista Energy also requests pre-granted abandonment at the conclusion of the limited term assignment.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a notice of intervention or motion to intervene, as appropriate. Such notices, motions, or protests must be filed on or before the date as indicated below. Anyone filing an intervention or protest must serve a copy of that document on the Applicant. Anyone filing an intervention or protest on or before the intervention or protest date need not serve motions to intervene or protests on persons other than the Applicant.

The Commission encourages electronic submission of protests and interventions in lieu of paper using the "eFiling" link at <http://www.ferc.gov>. Persons unable to file electronically should submit an original and 14 copies of the protest or intervention to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426.

This filing is accessible on-line at <http://www.ferc.gov>, using the "eLibrary" link and is available for review in the Commission's Public Reference Room in Washington, DC. There is an "eSubscription" link on the Web site that enables subscribers to receive e-mail notification when a document is added to a subscribed docket(s). Dominion Transmission, Inc.; Notice of Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

April 26, 2007.

Take notice that on April 23, 2007, Dominion Transmission, Inc. (DTI) tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Third Revised Volume No. 1, Third Revised Sheet No. 1162, to become effective May 24, 2007.

DTI states that the purpose of the proposed revisions is to clarify that, when DTI provides service to its customers on off-system transportation and/or storage capacity and DTI's contract with the third-party service provider contains limited or no extension rights, a corresponding limitation may apply in DTI's service agreement with its customer.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a notice of intervention or motion to intervene, as appropriate. Such notices, motions, or protests must be filed in accordance with the provisions of Section 154.210 of the Commission's regulations (18 CFR 154.210). Anyone filing an intervention or protest must serve a copy of that document on the Applicant. Anyone filing an intervention or protest on or before the intervention or protest date need not serve motions to intervene or protests on persons other than the Applicant.

The Commission encourages electronic submission of protests and interventions in lieu of paper using the "eFiling" link at <http://www.ferc.gov>. Persons unable to file electronically should submit an original and 14 copies of the protest or intervention to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426.
