Background

On October 31, 2006, the Department published in the Federal Register a notice of initiation of administrative review of the antidumping duty order on stainless steel wire rod from Sweden, covering the period September 1, 2005, through August 31, 2006. See Initiation of Antidumping and Countervailing Duty Administrative Reviews, 71 FR 63752 (October 31, 2006). The preliminary results for this administrative review are currently due no later than June 4, 2007.¹

¹ June 4, 2007, is the next business day after 245 days from the last day of the anniversary month of the order.

Statutory Time Limits

Section 751(a)(3)(A) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended ("the Act"), requires the Department of Commerce ("Department") to issue the preliminary results of an administrative review within 245 days after the last day of the anniversary month of an order for which a review is requested and a final determination within 120 days after the date on which the preliminary results are published. If it is not practicable to complete the review within the time period, section 751(a)(3)(A) of the Act allows the Department to extend these deadlines to a maximum of 365 days and 180 days, respectively.

Extension of Time Limits for Preliminary Results

The Department requires additional time to review and analyze the sales and cost information submitted by the respondent in this administrative review and, if necessary, issue an additional supplemental questionnaire. FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: William McElnea, 202-482-2831.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Sustainable manufacturing has garnered increasing attention among the manufacturing industry as firms have recognized its cost-effectiveness and profitability. For the purposes of this notice, "sustainable manufacturing" is defined as the creation of manufactured products that use processes that are non-polluting, conserve energy and natural resources, are economically sound, and safe for employees, communities, and consumers. At this early stage in sustainable manufacturing's development, increased public-private interaction can be an effective means for government and industry to (a) identify the opportunities and challenges faced by manufacturers in pursuing sustainable production practices and (b) promote capacity-building among individual firms and industry sectors as a whole.

The purpose of the proposed "Green Manufacturing Day", tentatively scheduled for September 2007, will be to: (1) Disseminate and promote best business practices in sustainable manufacturing, (2) assist small-and-medium-sized enterprises in identifying and implementing practical sustainable manufacturing solutions, (3) provide information on relevant emerging technologies, (4) educate participants on federal government efforts to promote sustainable manufacturing, and (5) provide information on international sustainable manufacturing initiatives, projects, and opportunities. The event will include presenters/speakers from a variety of stakeholder groups (i.e. private sector, government and academia) on a variety of topics relating to sustainable manufacturing.

Topic areas covered may include, but are not limited to, industrial recycling, natural resource conservation, water supply and waste-water treatment, solid-waste management, hazardous waste management, environmental assessment, environmental accounting, lean and clean manufacturing, regulatory compliance, renewable energy, remanufacturing, refurbishing/reconditioning, environmental technology research and development, and air pollution control.
