

to recognize appropriate speeds for different road conditions and slopes, and to lower the grader blade to provide additional stopping capability; and (3) the safety of the miners will not be compromised. The petitioner asserts that the alternative braking method will provide the necessary safety for the workforce as is required in 30 CFR 75.1909(b)(6).

Docket Number: M-2007-005-M.

Petitioner: Oldcastle Industrial Minerals, 550 S. Biesecker Road, Thomasville, Pennsylvania.

Mine: Thomasville Mine, (MSHA I.D. No. 36-03432), located in York County, Pennsylvania.

Regulation Affected: 30 CFR 57.11052(d) (Refuge areas).

Modification Request: The petitioner requests a modification of the existing standard to permit the use of compressed air cylinders and bottled water instead of using compressed air and water lines to underground refuge chambers. The petitioner states that: (1) The Thomasville Mine is a high purity, non-gas liberating limestone mine where multiple geologic deformation phases have occurred which has led to the utilization of multiple mining techniques on many different working levels within multiple underground and surface mine operations; (2) the refuge chamber will contain enough compressed air to support four (4) people for up to 2 days, which based on NIOSH figures of oxygen consumption, will require a minimum of 672 cubic feet of oxygen or 3215 cubic feet of breathable air (of which 20.9% is oxygen) supplied in compressed air tanks; and (3) since there is no source of potable water underground it will supply bottled water in the refuge chamber to provide a source of safe, clean water, which would not be the case if water lines from the pumping stations were used.
