

under Title I and language acquisition assessments under Title III); standards development; assessment and instruction of LEP students; Title III requirements; Title I requirements; and English language development. Staff from the Department's comprehensive technical assistance centers will facilitate the roundtable discussions.

During the final 90 minutes of each meeting, we will provide the public with an opportunity to comment on the discussion or to provide additional recommendations.

Individuals interested in giving testimony during the public session of the meetings to address one or more of the four questions will be allowed three to five minutes to make their statements. We request that you submit three written copies and an electronic file (CD or diskette) of your statement at the meeting. Please include your name and contact information on the written and electronic files.

If you are interested in giving testimony during the public session of a meeting, please register at the LEP Partnership Web site, LEP.Partnership@ed.gov, at least one week before the public meeting. We will process registrations on a first-come, first-served basis. Persons who are unable to register to present testimony during the meeting are encouraged to submit written recommendations. Written recommendations will be accepted at the meeting site or via e-mail at the addresses listed in the ADDRESSES section of this notice.

Assistance to Individuals With Disabilities at the Public Meetings

The meeting sites will be accessible to individuals with disabilities and sign language interpreters will be available. If you need an auxiliary aid or service other than a sign language interpreter to participate in the meeting (e.g., interpreting service such as oral, cued speech, or tactile interpreter; assisted listening device; or materials in alternate format), notify the contact person listed under FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT at least two weeks before the scheduled meeting date. Although we will attempt to meet a request we receive after this date, we may not be able to make available the requested auxiliary aid or service because of insufficient time to arrange it.
