

extend the pilot periods to provide the Exchange and Commission more data upon which to evaluate the rules.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

The proposed rule change does not impose any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants or Others

The Exchange has not solicited, and does not intend to solicit, comments on this proposed rule change. The Exchange has not received any written comments from members or other interested parties.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

Because the foregoing proposed rule change: (1) Does not significantly affect the protection of investors or the public interest; (2) does not impose any significant burden on competition; and (3) by its terms does not become operative for 30 days after the date of this filing, or such shorter time as the Commission may designate if consistent with the protection of investors and the public interest, the proposed rule change has become effective pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A)⁹ of the Act and Rule 19b-4(f)(6) thereunder.¹⁰ As required under Rule 19b-4(f)(6)(iii),¹¹ the Exchange provided the Commission with written notice of its intent to file the proposed rule change, along with a brief description and text of the proposed rule change, at least five business days prior to the date of the filing of the proposed rule change.

A proposed rule change filed under Rule 19b-4(f)(6)¹² normally may not become operative prior to 30 days after the date of filing. However, Rule 19b-4(f)(6)(iii)¹³ permits the Commission to designate a shorter time if such action is consistent with the protection of investors and the public interest. The ISE requests that the Commission waive the 30-day operative delay, as specified in Rule 19b-4(f)(6)(iii),¹⁴ which would make the rule change effective and operative upon filing. The Commission believes that waiving the 30-day operative delay is consistent with the protection of investors and the public interest because such waiver would allow the pilot periods to continue without interruption until July 25, 2007.¹⁵ Accordingly, the Commission designates the proposed rule change operative upon filing with the Commission.

At any time within 60 days of the filing of such proposed rule change, the Commission may summarily abrogate such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

IV. Solicitation of Comments

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views, and arguments concerning the foregoing, including whether the proposed rule change is consistent with the Act. Comments may be submitted by any of the following methods:

II. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, Nasdaq included statements concerning the purpose of and basis for the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. The Exchange has prepared summaries, set forth in Sections A, B, and C below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

Nasdaq proposes to modify the fees charged to companies that list upon emerging from bankruptcy. Specifically, Nasdaq proposes to waive the entry fee (which includes a $5,000 non-refundable application fee) that such companies would otherwise be required to pay. In addition, for companies listing on the NASDAQ Global Market (including the NASDAQ Global Select Market), Nasdaq proposes to charge the company the minimum annual listing fee applicable to companies on that market (currently $30,000) for the first (prorated) year that such a company is listed³ and for each of the subsequent two full calendar years.⁴ Finally, Nasdaq proposes that a company that emerges from bankruptcy and relists during the same year that it has previously paid an annual fee will not be required to pay a second annual fee for that year.

Nasdaq believes that the proposed fees are justified by the unique circumstances faced by companies emerging from bankruptcy. These companies typically are not raising any new capital at the time of listing, so the payment of initial listing fees is more burdensome than for companies that are listing upon an initial public offering. Also, because of the desire in bankruptcy proceedings to ensure that creditors are paid as much as possible, these companies are much more sensitive to both the initial and continued costs associated with listing. As such, Nasdaq believes the proposed fees are reasonable and equitably allocated.

The proposed rule change will not affect Nasdaq's commitment of resources to its regulatory oversight of the listing process or its other regulatory programs. Specifically, Nasdaq historically has not listed a large number of companies emerging from bankruptcy in any given year.⁵ Further, Nasdaq will still conduct a complete review of these companies for compliance with Nasdaq listing standards in the same manner as any other company applying for listing on Nasdaq. The company must successfully complete that review process and demonstrate compliance with the initial listing requirements prior to being approved for listing.

2. Statutory Basis

Nasdaq believes that the proposed rule change is consistent with the provisions of Section 6 of the Act⁶ in general, and with Section 6(b)(4) of the Act⁷ in particular, which requires that Nasdaq's rules provide for the equitable allocation of reasonable dues, fees, and other charges among its issuers. Nasdaq believes that the proposed waivers are equitable and reasonable in light of the unique circumstances faced by companies emerging from bankruptcy.

³ Nasdaq prorates the annual fee for the year a company lists, based on the month in which the company lists.

⁴ All domestic companies on the NASDAQ Capital Market pay the same annual fee.

⁵ Nasdaq listed four companies upon their emergence from bankruptcy from January 1, 2006, through March 31, 2007.

⁶ 15 U.S.C. 78f.

⁷ 15 U.S.C. 78f(b)(4).

B. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

Nasdaq does not believe that the proposed rule change will result in any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants or Others

Written comments on the proposed rule change were neither solicited nor received.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing For Commission Action

Within 35 days of the date of publication of this notice in the Federal Register or within such longer period (i) As the Commission may designate up to 90 days of such date if it finds such longer period to be appropriate and publishes its reasons for so finding, or (ii) as to which the Exchange consents, the Commission will:

(A) By order approve the proposed rule change, or

(B) Institute proceedings to determine whether the proposed rule change should be disapproved.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[Release No. 34-56096; File No. SR-NASDAQ-2007-037]

Self-Regulatory Organizations; The NASDAQ Stock Market LLC; Notice of Filing of Amendment No. 2 and Order Granting Accelerated Approval of Proposed Rule Change, as Modified by Amendment Nos. 1 and 2, To Modify Order Audit Trail System Rules To Provide an Exemption From Transmission Requirements for Proprietary Orders

July 18, 2007.

I. Introduction

On April 3, 2007, The NASDAQ Stock Market LLC ("Nasdaq") filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission"), pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Act"),¹ and Rule 19b-4 thereunder,² a proposed rule change to provide an exemption from OATS transmission requirements for certain proprietary orders. On June 4, 2007, Nasdaq filed Amendment No. 1. The proposed rule change, as amended, was published for comment in the Federal Register on June 6, 2007.³ The Commission received one comment letter expressing support for the proposal.⁴ On July 17, 2007, Nasdaq filed Amendment No. 2. This notice and order notices Amendment No. 2; solicits comments from interested persons on Amendment No. 2; and approves the proposed rule change, as amended, on an accelerated basis.

II. Description of Proposal

Nasdaq proposes to modify its OATS rules to adopt a limited exemption from OATS⁵ order data transmission requirements for proprietary trading firms. Nasdaq proposes to define a "Proprietary Trading Firm" as a Nasdaq member that trades its own capital, with all the trading being done in the firm's accounts by traders that are owners of, employees of, or contractors to the firm. A Proprietary Trading Firm would not have "customers," as that term is defined in Nasdaq Rule 0120(g) and would not be a member of the NASD.

Nasdaq proposes to amend Nasdaq Rule 6955 regarding transmission of OATS data to provide that a Proprietary Trading Firm would be required to transmit OATS order data information to Nasdaq Regulation only upon request.⁶ Although a Proprietary Trading Firm would not be required to transmit the order data information to Nasdaq Regulation unless requested, it still would be responsible for maintaining and retaining the information in a format that could be easily integrated into the NASD's OATS system in the event Nasdaq Regulation makes a request for such information.

III. Solicitation of Comments

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views, and arguments concerning Amendment No. 2, including whether Amendment No. 2 is consistent with the Act. Comments

⁵ OATS is an integrated audit trail of order, quote, and trade information for Nasdaq securities used to recreate events in the life cycle of orders and more completely monitor the trading practices of member firms.

⁶ Rule 0130 provides that the term Nasdaq Regulation should be understood as also referring to NASD staff, NASD Regulation staff, and NASD departments acting on behalf of Nasdaq pursuant to a regulatory services agreement between Nasdaq and the NASD.
