SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[Release No. 34-56905; File No. SR-NASDAQ-2007-087]

Self-Regulatory Organizations; The NASDAQ Stock Market LLC; Notice of Filing and Immediate Effectiveness of Proposed Rule Change to Modify Fees for Members Using the Nasdaq Market Center

December 5, 2007.

Pursuant to section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Act"),¹ and Rule 19b-4 thereunder,² notice is hereby given that on October 31, 2007, The NASDAQ Stock Market LLC ("Nasdaq") filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission") the proposed rule change as described in Items I, II, and III below, which Items have been substantially prepared by the Exchange. The Exchange filed the proposed rule change pursuant to section 19(b)(3)(A) of the Act³ and Rule 19b-4(f)(2) thereunder,⁴ which renders it effective upon filing with the Commission. The Commission is publishing this notice to solicit comments on the proposed rule change from interested persons.

I. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Terms of Substance of the Proposed Rule Change

Nasdaq proposes to modify pricing for Nasdaq members using the Nasdaq Market Center. Nasdaq will implement this proposed rule change on November 1, 2007. The text of the proposed rule change is available at the Exchange's Web site, the Exchange and the Commission's Public Reference Room.

II. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, Nasdaq included statements concerning the purpose of and basis for the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. Nasdaq has prepared summaries, set forth in sections A, B, and C below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

Effective November 1, 2007, Nasdaq is implementing a set of pricing changes relating to securities listed on exchanges other than Nasdaq and the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE").⁵

Specifically, for certain "Low-Volume Securities," Nasdaq is adopting an enhanced liquidity provider rebate of $0.004 per share executed.⁶ A Low-Volume Security is defined as a security listed on an exchange other than Nasdaq or the NYSE with an average daily volume on all venues during the preceding month of less than 200,000 shares. For each calendar month, the determination of Low-Volume Securities will be made on the 25th day of the preceding month, based on trading volumes since the 25th day of the month before. For example, the determination of Low-Volume Securities for trading during the calendar month of November would be made on October 25, based on trading volumes from September 25 until October 24. The list of Low-Volume Securities will be posted on the NasdaqTrader.com Web site. By announcing the list prior to the first of the month, Nasdaq believes that it will enable market participants to reflect on the list when making trading decisions at the beginning of the month. A security with seven or fewer trading days during an assessment period, such as a new listing, will not be considered a Low-Volume Security, regardless of its volume, since the lack of trading data does not provide a meaningful basis for determining the security's potential volume during the following month.

As a corollary to the enhanced liquidity provider rebate for Low-Volume Securities, Nasdaq will be eliminating market data revenue sharing for these same securities. Nasdaq's existing program for sharing 50% of market data revenue with liquidity providers in Tape B securities will remain in effect for Tape B securities that are not Low-Volume Securities.

⁵ Transaction reports for these securities are disseminated by the Consolidated Tape Association ("CTA") on "Tape B."

⁶ There is, however, no liquidity provider rebate if the execution price is less than $1 per share.

Nasdaq believes that because the amount of a liquidity provider rebate is known by market participants prior to order execution, it provides a more direct incentive for liquidity provision than market data revenue sharing, the exact amount of which is estimated monthly but confirmed on a quarterly basis and depends upon a range of factors beyond the control of a particular market participant.

Accordingly, Nasdaq believes that substituting an enhanced rebate for market data revenue sharing may encourage market participants to make greater use of Nasdaq for trading the securities covered by the program.

At present, Nasdaq's only active program for market data revenue sharing is for liquidity providers in Tape B securities.⁷ Accordingly, the proposed enhanced rebate applies only to these securities. Moreover, Nasdaq's initial focus is on Low-Volume Securities (as defined above and in the rule) because Nasdaq believes that an enhanced credit may encourage tighter spreads and more overall activity in these stocks. Moreover, the focus on these securities will allow Nasdaq to evaluate the financial and market behavior impact of the change without materially increasing the overall amount of liquidity provider credits that it pays.

2. Statutory Basis

Nasdaq believes that the proposed rule change is consistent with the provisions of section 6 of the Act,⁸ in general, and with section 6(b)(4) of the Act,⁹ in particular, in that it provides for the equitable allocation of reasonable dues, fees and other charges among members and issuers and other persons using any facility or system which Nasdaq operates or controls. The change responds to fee changes by NYSE to ensure that Nasdaq's fees for routing to NYSE are generally consistent with charges that NYSE imposes on Nasdaq when it routes orders to it.

B. Self Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

Nasdaq does not believe that the proposed rule change will result in any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act, as amended.

⁷ The Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA")/NASDAQ Trade Reporting Facility also maintains a revenue sharing program, but Nasdaq's program under Rule 7024, which allows for discretionary sharing of an unspecified percentage of certain operating revenues, is not currently in use.

⁹ 15 U.S.C. 78f(b)(4).

C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants or Others

Written comments on the proposed rule change were neither solicited nor received.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

The foregoing proposed rule change is filed pursuant to section 19(b)(3)(A)(ii) of the Act¹⁰ and subparagraph (f)(2) of Rule 19b-4 thereunder¹¹ because it establishes or changes a due, fee, or other charge applicable only to a member imposed by a self-regulatory organization. Accordingly, the proposal is effective upon Commission receipt of the filing. At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission may summarily abrogate such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

Self-Regulatory Organizations; New York Stock Exchange LLC; Notice of Filing of Proposed Rule Change, as Modified by Amendment No. 1 Thereto, to Reduce From Six Months to Three Months the Period for Which a Company's Average Global Market Capitalization Must Exceed the Levels Established by the Exchange's Pure Valuation/Revenue Test

December 17, 2007.

Pursuant to section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Act"),¹ and Rule 19b-4 thereunder,² notice is hereby given that on October 29, 2007, New York Stock Exchange LLC ("NYSE" or "Exchange") filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission") the proposed rule change as described in Items I, II, and III below, which Items have been substantially prepared by the Exchange. On December 14, 2007, the Exchange filed Amendment No. 1 to the proposed rule change.³ The Commission is publishing this notice to solicit comments on the proposed rule change, as modified by Amendment No. 1, from interested persons.

I. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Terms of Substance of the Proposed Rule Change

The Exchange proposes to reduce from six months to three months the period for which the average global market capitalization of prospective listed companies must exceed the levels established by the Exchange's "pure valuation/revenue" test contained in section 102.01C of the Exchange's Listed Company Manual (the "Manual"). The text of the proposed rule change is included below. Proposed new language is italicized; proposed deletions are in [brackets].

In the case of companies listing in connection with an IPO, the company's underwriter (or, in the case of a spin-off, the parent company's investment banker or other financial advisor) must provide a written representation that demonstrates the company's ability to meet the $750,000,000 global market capitalization requirement based upon the completion of the offering (or distribution). For all other companies, market capitalization valuation will be determined over a [six]three-month average. In considering the suitability for listing of a company pursuant to the provision in the immediately preceding sentence, the Exchange will consider whether the company's business prospects and operating results indicate that the company's market

II. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, the Exchange included statements concerning the purpose of, and basis for, the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. The Exchange has prepared summaries, set forth in sections A, B, and C below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

The Exchange proposes to reduce from six months to three months the period for which the average global market capitalization of prospective listed companies must exceed the levels established by the Exchange's financial listing criteria contained in section 102.01C of the Manual.

Section 102.01C requires companies listing under the Exchange's "pure valuation/revenue" test to have a global market capitalization of $750 million. In the case of companies listing other than in connection with an initial public offering or a spin-off or upon emergence from bankruptcy, section 102.01C provides that the company must have met the required level of market capitalization on the basis of a six-month average. The Exchange believes that a reduction of this requirement from six months to three months will not diminish the quality of companies listing under the relevant tests. Rather, the Exchange believes that the primary effect of the proposed amendment would be to permit the earlier listing of companies that would ultimately qualify on the basis of a six-month average.⁴ In accepting companies that ⁴ The Exchange notes that under The NASDAQ Stock Market LLC ("Nasdaq") Global Market Standard 3, a company can list with $75 million in market value of listed securities (sustained over 90 consecutive trading days) and $20 million in market value of publicly held shares. See Nasdaq Rule 4420(c). The Exchange believes that, notwithstanding the proposed shift to a three-month from a six-month test period, the NYSE's "pure valuation/revenue" standard's requirement of a global market capitalization of $750 million is far more stringent than Nasdaq Global Market Standard 3.
