SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Public Participation

Interested persons are invited to participate in this rulemaking by submitting written data, views, or arguments on all aspects of the interim rule. DHS also invites comments that relate to the economic, environmental, or federalism effects that might result from this interim rule. Comments that will provide the most assistance to the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) in developing these procedures will reference a specific portion of the interim rule, explain the reason for any recommended change, and include data, information, and authority that support such recommended change.

Background

On November 25, 2002, the President signed into law the Homeland Security Act of 2002, Public Law 107-296, 116 Stat. 2135 (HSA). Accordingly, as of March 1, 2003, the former Immigration and Nationalization Service (INS) of the Department of Justice and the former U.S. Customs Service of the Department of the Treasury were transferred to DHS and reorganized to become U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP), U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE), and U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS).

After passage of the HSA, both CBP and ICE retained authority to perform asset seizures and forfeitures under the provisions of 8 CFR part 274 and 19 CFR parts 162 and 171. DHS, for the purpose of improved efficiency, has consolidated the processing of asset forfeitures into CBP's operations. The regulations in Titles 8 and 19, however, currently provide two different procedures. This interim rule consolidates the procedures for administrative seizure and forfeiture process by altering the text of 8 CFR 274.1 to refer to 19 CFR parts 162 and 171. This rule also makes technical conforming changes to update references from INS and U.S. Customs Service to CBP and ICE where applicable.

Interim Rule Changes

Pursuant to the provisions of section 618 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1618), petitions for remission of forfeitures were accepted by the former U.S. Customs Service, and now accepted by CBP, prior to initiation of any administrative or judicial forfeiture process. Under the regulations adopted under section 274(b) of the Immigration and Nationality Act of 1952, as amended (8 U.S.C. 1324(b) (INA)), the remission or mitigation of such forfeitures could occur only after completion of the forfeiture process. No statute, however, requires this restriction. Under this interim rule, the procedures previously used for immigration-related forfeitures will be eliminated and all asset forfeiture proceedings will be conducted under a consolidated procedure. This interim rule revises 8 CFR part 274 in its entirety to bring seizures and forfeitures effected under section 274(b) of the INA, as amended, and other forfeiture authorities, into conformity with procedures under 19 CFR parts 162 and 171. This change permits CBP to entertain petitions for remission and return of seized property prior to completing the forfeiture process, whether the seizure was effected under the customs laws or the immigration laws, and whether the seizure was made by CBP or ICE.

Accordingly, 8 CFR part 274 is amended to reference Title 19 administrative seizure and forfeiture processes. This is the only significant difference between the provisions and DHS through this interim rule adopts the procedure that provides greater flexibility and is more favorable to petitioners for remission.

Other Changes

The provisions of current 19 CFR 162.21 reference the former U.S. Customs Service and U.S. Customs Officers. The interim rule updates these references to reflect U.S. Customs and Border Protection and CBP Officers as applicable.

Currently, 19 CFR 162.22(d) references retention of vessels or vehicles pending penalty payment and specifically references section 460 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19

U.S.C. 1460). Section 460 of the Tariff Act of 1930 was repealed by Public Law 99–570, title III, section 3115(b), Oct. 27, 1986, 100 Stat. 3207–82. Accordingly, this interim rule removes 19 CFR 162.22(d) and redesignates paragraph (e) as paragraph (d).

This rule also updates certain delegations of authority to reflect the current organizational structures. Title 19 CFR 162.92(d)(1) currently empowers the Customs Assistant Commissioner, Investigations, or his designee, to extend the period for sending notices for any seizure under the Civil Asset Forfeiture Reform Act of 2000, Public Law 106–185, 114 Stat. 202, (CAFRA). Currently, the Assistant Commissioner, Investigations, is the official designated by CBP to grant time extensions for sending notices of seizure as authorized by 18 U.S.C. 983(a)(1)(B). 67 FR 9188 (Feb. 28, 2002). Inasmuch as a reorganization plan under the HSA moved the investigative functions previously performed by Customs agents to ICE, DHS is changing the regulation to reflect this change in authority. In addition, an official within CBP must retain the authority for certain seizures effected by CBP officers or Border Patrol agents. Accordingly, this interim rule amends 19 CFR 162.92(d)(1) to designate the Assistant Secretary of ICE, or his or her designee, and the Commissioner of CBP, or his or her designee, as the officials authorized to grant such an extension.

Administrative Procedure Act

This rule is procedural in nature and does not alter the substantive rights of the affected parties. Therefore, this rule is exempt from the notice and comment rulemaking requirements under the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 553(b)(A)). In addition, the delayed effective date requirement of 5 U.S.C. 553(d) does not apply to this rule. DHS, however, is interested in public comments on this rule and will consider all timely comments in the preparation of a final rule.

The interim rule may benefit entities whose property is seized under 8 CFR part 274. Under the interim regulations, entities whose property is seized under 8 CFR part 274 may take advantage of pre-forfeiture administrative processing and request return of their property prior to the conclusion of forfeiture processing. Prior to this interim rule, owners of property seized under 8 CFR part 274 were required to wait for their petitions to be acted upon until after forfeiture processing was complete. There will be no increased costs to either private companies or individuals as a result of this interim rule. The interim rule may also yield cost savings for the government if seized items can leave government storage areas more quickly under the earlier petitioning provision.

Regulatory Requirements

Executive Order 12866

This interim rule is not a significant regulatory action under Executive Order 12866.

Regulatory Flexibility Act

The Regulatory Flexibility Act (RFA) (5 U.S.C. 603(b)), as amended by the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement and Fairness Act of 1996 (SBREFA), requires an agency to prepare and make available to the public a regulatory flexibility analysis that describes the effect of a proposed rule on small entities (i.e., small businesses, small organizations, and small governmental jurisdictions) when the agency is required “to publish a general notice of proposed rulemaking for any proposed rule.” Because this rule is being issued as an interim rule, on the grounds set forth above, a regulatory flexibility analysis is not required under the RFA.

Paperwork Reduction Act

DHS has determined that the collection of information required by this interim rule falls under the “administrative exception” to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501, et seq.). The “administrative exception,” applies because any such collection is made during the conduct of administrative action taken by an agency against specific individuals or entities. 5 CFR 1320.4(a)(2).
