Final Procedures for Participation in the 2010 Decennial Census Local Update of Census Addresses Program

AGENCY: Bureau of the Census, Department of Commerce.

ACTION: Final notice.

SUMMARY: This notice documents the final procedures for the 2010 Decennial Census Local Update of Census Addresses (LUCA) program, as well as the comments received on the proposed procedures published in the June 22, 2007, Federal Register notice (72 FR 34434). The Bureau of the Census (Census Bureau) is using the LUCA program to help develop the housing unit and group quarters (e.g., college dormitory, nursing home, correctional facility, etc.) address information that it will need to conduct the 2010 Decennial Census LUCA program. The LUCA program is offered to tribal, state, and local units of general-purpose governments, such as cities and townships, and the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico (or their designated representatives), in areas where the Census Bureau performs a precensus address canvassing operation. Participants have three options for reviewing and annotating the 2010 Decennial Census LUCA program materials.

A future notice will announce the establishment, outside the Department of Commerce (DOC), of the Census Address List Appeals process that will be established by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for the 2010 Census LUCA program. The Census Bureau and the OMB will publish a separate Federal Register notice seeking comments on this Appeals process at a later date.

DATES: These LUCA program procedures, which reflect revisions based on public comment following publication of draft procedures, will go into effect on March 7, 2008.

ADDRESSES: Please send any correspondence about the 2010 Census LUCA program procedures to Ms.

Teresa Angueira, Associate Director for Decennial Census, U.S. Census Bureau, Washington, DC 20233.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: For information about the Census Bureau's 2010 Census LUCA program, contact Ms. Linda M. Franz, Assistant Division Chief for Geographic Partnership Programs, Geography Division, U.S. Census Bureau, Washington, DC 20233–7400; telephone (301) 763–9061; fax (301) 763–4710; or by e-mail at linda.m.franz@census.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

The Census Address List Improvement Act of 1994

The Census Address List Improvement Act of 1994 (Pub. L. 103–430, 108 Stat. 4393 (1994)) mandates the establishment of a program to be used by the Census Bureau for developing the decennial census address list, and address lists for other censuses and surveys conducted by the Census Bureau. The Act's provisions direct the Secretary of Commerce to: (1) Publish standards defining the content and structure of address information that tribal, state, and local governments may submit to be used for developing a national address list; (2) develop and publish a timetable for the Census Bureau to receive, review, and respond to submissions; and (3) provide a response to the submissions regarding the Census Bureau's determination for each address. The Act provides further that OMB's Administrator of the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, acting through the Chief Statistician and in consultation with the Census Bureau, shall develop a process for tribal, state, and local governments to appeal determinations of the Census Bureau. The Act also directs the U.S. Postal Service to provide the Secretary of Commerce with address information, as appropriate, for use by the Census Bureau.

The Act authorizes the Census Bureau to provide designated officials of tribal, state, and local governments with access to census addresses information. Prior to Census 2000, the Census Bureau was limited to providing block summary totals of addresses to tribal, state, and local governments. Census 2000 marked the first decennial census where tribal and local governments were able to review the census address list.

Summary of Comments Received in Response to the Proposed Program

On June 22, 2007, the Census Bureau issued a Federal Register notice (72 FR 34434) requesting comments on the proposed procedures for developing the
