[Docket No. EC08-66-000]

JP Morgan Chase & Co., The Bear Stearns Companies Inc.; Notice of Filing

April 11, 2008.

Take notice that on April 10, 2008, JP Morgan Chase & Co., The Bear Stearns Companies Inc., and Bear Stearns' public utility subsidiaries (collectively, Applicants), submitted an application for authorization under section 203 of the Federal Power Act. The Applicants state that the transaction as defined in the application will not have any effect on the limited sales of reactive power at cost-based rates.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211, 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a notice of intervention or motion to intervene, as appropriate. Such notices, motions, or protests must be filed on or before the comment date. On or before the comment date, it is not necessary to serve motions to intervene or protests on persons other than the Applicant.

The Commission encourages electronic submission of protests and interventions in lieu of paper using the "eFiling" link at <http://www.ferc.gov>. Persons unable to file electronically should submit an original and 14 copies of the protest or intervention to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426.
