Overview of This Information

(1) Type of Information Collection: Approval of an Existing Collection.

(2) Title of the Form: The Voluntary Appeal File (VAF) Brochure.

(3) Agency Form Number, if any, and the applicable component of the department sponsoring the collection: Form Number: 1110-0043.

Sponsor: Criminal Justice Information Services (CJIS) Division of the FBI, Department of Justice (DOJ).

(4) Affected Public who will be asked or required to respond, as well as a brief abstract:

Primary: Any individual requesting entry into the FBI's Criminal Justice Information Services (CJIS) Division's National Instant Criminal Background Check System (NICS) Section's Voluntary Appeal File (VAF).

Brief Abstract: Under 28 CFR, § 25.9(b)(1), (2), (3), the NICS must destroy all identifying information on allowed transactions within 24 hours of the Federal Firearm Licensee (FFL) being notified of the transaction's proceed status. If a potential purchaser is delayed or denied a firearm, then successfully appeals the decision, the NICS Section cannot retain a record of the overturned appeal or the supporting documentation. If the record cannot be updated, the purchaser continues to be delayed or denied, and if that individual appeals the decision, the documentation must be resubmitted for every subsequent purchase. As such, the Voluntary Appeal File (VAF) was mandated to be created and maintained by the NICS Section for the purpose of preventing future lengthy delays or erroneous denials of a firearm transfer. An individual wishing to request entry into the VAF may obtain a VAF brochure from the NICS Section, an FFL, or the NICS Section Web site at the Internet address: <http://www.fbi.gov/programs/nics/index.htm>.

(5) An estimate of the total number of respondents and the amount of time estimated for an average respondent to respond:

2.5 hours estimated burden to the respondent.

(6) An estimate of the total public burden (in hours) associated with the collection:

The number of persons requesting entry into the VAF is estimated to be 12,500 individuals. The time it takes each individual to complete the process is 2.5 hours. The total public burden hours is 12,500 respondents multiplied by 2.5 hours which equals 31,250 total burden hours.

I. Background

The Employee Polygraph Protection Act of 1988 (EPPA), 29 U.S.C. 2001 et seq., prohibits most private employers from using any lie detector tests either for pre-employment screening or during the course of employment. See 29 CFR 801.1(a). Federal, State and local government employers are exempted from the Act. Id. EPPA section 7 contains several limited exemptions authorizing polygraph tests under certain conditions, including testing: (1) By the Federal Government of experts, consultants or employees of Federal contractors, to name a few, engaged in national security intelligence or counterintelligence functions [29 U.S.C. 2006(b)-(c); 29 CFR 801.11]; (2) of employees the employer reasonably suspects of involvement in a workplace incident resulting in economic loss or injury to the employer's business [29 U.S.C. 2006(d); 29 CFR 801.12]; (3) of some current and prospective employees of certain firms authorized to manufacture, distribute or dispense controlled substances [29 U.S.C. 2006(f); 29 CFR 801.13]; and (4) of some prospective employees of private armored car, security alarm and security guard firms [29 U.S.C. 2006(e); 29 CFR 801.14]. The DOL's Wage and Hour Division may assess civil money penalties of up to $10,000 per violation against employers who violate any EPPA provision. See 29 U.S.C. 2005(a); 29 CFR 801.40(a)(2). EPPA section 5 requires the Secretary of Labor to promulgate such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out the Act and to require the recordkeeping necessary or appropriate for administration of the Act. See 29 U.S.C. 2004(a); 29 CFR 801.1(a), 801.30. Appendix A of Regulations 29 CFR part 801 contains a written statement setting forth both the examinee's and employer's legal rights for use in satisfying the EPPA section 8(b)(2)(d) disclosure requirement. Employers may use optional Form WH-1481 to provide this notice. This information collection is currently approved for use through October 31, 2008.

The DOL is particularly interested in comments which:

- Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;
- Evaluate the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;

- Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submissions of responses.
