Littelfuse, Inc., Including On-Site Temporary Workers From Aerotek and Labor Solutions, Elk Grove, IL; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273), and Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974 (26 U.S.C. 2813), as amended, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance on August 6, 2007, applicable to workers of Littelfuse, Inc., Elk Grove, Illinois. The notice was published in the Federal Register on August 27, 2007 (72 FR 49024).

At the request of a company official, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers perform warehousing and distribution in support of a trade certified affiliate.

New information shows that temporary workers of AeroTek and Labor Solutions were employed on-site at the Elk Grove, Illinois, location of Littelfuse, Inc. The Department has determined that these workers were sufficiently under the control of the subject firm to be considered temporary workers.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending this certification to include temporary workers of AeroTek and Labor Solutions working on-site at the Elk Grove, Illinois, location of the subject firm.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers at Littelfuse, Inc., Elk Grove, Illinois, who were adversely affected by increased imports following a shift in production to a foreign country.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-61,885A is hereby issued as follows:

"All workers of Littelfuse, Inc., including on-site temporary workers from AeroTek and Labor Solutions, Elk Grove, Illinois, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after July 20, 2006, through August 6, 2009, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, and are also eligible to apply for alternative trade adjustment assistance under Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974."

Signed at Washington, DC, this 23rd day of May 2008.

Redman Homes, Inc., Division of Champion Homes, Silverton, Oregon, Including Employees of Redman Homes, Inc., Division of Champion Homes, Silverton, Oregon Operating at Various Locations in the State of Washington; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance on April 29, 2008, applicable to workers of Redman Homes, Inc., division of Champion Homes, Silverton, Oregon. The notice was published in the Federal Register on May 15, 2008 (73 FR 28167).

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers produced modular homes.

New information shows that worker separations have occurred involving employees of the Silverton, Oregon location of the subject firm operating at various locations in the state of Washington. These employees were engaged in the building of modular homes.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending this certification to include employees of the Silverton, Oregon location of Redman Homes, Inc., division of Champion Homes operating at various locations in the state of Washington.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Redman Homes, Inc., division of Champion Homes who were adversely affected by a shift in production to Canada.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-63,079 is hereby issued as follows:

"All workers of Redman Homes, Inc., division of Champion Homes, Silverton, Oregon (TA-W-63,079), including employees of Redman Homes, Inc., division of Champion Homes, Silverton, Oregon, including workers operating at various locations in the state of Washington (TA-W-63,079A), who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after March 26, 2007, through April 29, 2010, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, and are also eligible to apply for alternative trade adjustment assistance under Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974."

Notice of Determinations Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor herein presents summaries of determinations regarding eligibility to apply for a trade adjustment assistance for workers (TA-W) number and alternative trade adjustment assistance (ATAA) by TA-W number issued during the period of May 19 through May 23, 2008.

In order for an affirmative determination to be made for workers of a primary firm and a certification issued regarding eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance, each of the group eligibility requirements of section 222(a) of the Act must be met.

I. Section (a)(2)(A) all of the following must be satisfied:

A. A significant number or proportion of the workers in such workers' firm, or an appropriate subdivision of the firm, have become totally or partially separated, or are threatened to become totally or partially separated;

B. The sales or production, or both, of such firm or subdivision have decreased absolutely; and

C. Increased imports of articles like or directly competitive with articles produced by such firm or subdivision have contributed importantly to such workers' separation or threat of separation and to the decline in sales or production of such firm or subdivision; or

II. Section (a)(2)(B) both of the following must be satisfied:

A. A significant number or proportion of the workers in such workers' firm, or an appropriate subdivision of the firm, have become totally or partially separated, or are threatened to become totally or partially separated;

B. There has been a shift in production by such workers' firm or subdivision to a foreign country of articles like or directly competitive with articles which are produced by such firm or subdivision; and

C. One of the following must be satisfied:

1. The country to which the workers' firm has shifted production of the articles is a party to a free trade agreement with the United States;

2. The country to which the workers' firm has shifted production of the articles to a beneficiary country under the Andean Trade Preference Act, African Growth and Opportunity Act, or the Caribbean Basin Economic Recovery Act; or

3. There has been or is likely to be an increase in imports of articles that are like or directly competitive with articles which are or were produced by such firm or subdivision.

Also, in order for an affirmative determination to be made for secondarily affected workers of a firm and a certification issued regarding eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance, each of the group eligibility requirements of section 222(b) of the Act must be met.

(1) Significant number or proportion of the workers in the workers' firm or an appropriate subdivision of the firm have become totally or partially separated, or are threatened to become totally or partially separated;

(2) The workers' firm (or subdivision) is a supplier or downstream producer to a firm (or subdivision) that employed a group of workers who received a certification of eligibility to apply for trade adjustment assistance benefits and such supply or production is related to the article that was the basis for such certification; and

(3) Either—

(A) The workers' firm is a supplier and the component parts it supplied for the firm (or subdivision) described in paragraph (2) accounted for at least 20 percent of the production or sales of the workers' firm; or

(B) A loss or business by the workers' firm with the firm (or subdivision) described in paragraph (2) contributed importantly to the workers' separation or threat of separation.

In order for the Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance to issue a certification of eligibility to apply for Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance (ATAA) for older workers, the group eligibility requirements of section 246(a)(3)(A)(ii) of the Trade Act must be met.

1. Whether a significant number of workers in the workers' firm are 50 years of age or older.

2. Whether the workers in the workers' firm possess skills that are not easily transferable.

3. The competitive conditions within the workers' industry (i.e., conditions within the industry are adverse).
